

Farewell Speech for Teachers

Respected Principal, esteemed teachers, staff, and my dear fellow students,

Today, as we gather here to bid farewell to our beloved teachers, it is a moment filled with a myriad of emotions. Our hearts are heavy with the sadness of saying goodbye, yet there's a glimmer of joy for the new chapters you are about to embark upon.

Teachers, you are not just educators; you are mentors, guides, and the architects who have shaped our minds and souls. You've taught us not just the subjects but the lessons of life. It's under your guidance that we've learned to think, analyze, and dream. Your dedication, passion, and unwavering support have been the driving force behind our successes.

To our Principal, thank you for being the backbone of this institution. Your visionary leadership and commitment to excellence have not only elevated our school's standards but have inspired us all to strive for greatness.

To the teachers who are leaving us today, each one of you holds a special place in our hearts. You've been our source of inspiration, pushing us beyond our limits and encouraging us to reach for the stars. You've celebrated our achievements, guided us through our failures, and taught us the importance of resilience and perseverance.

Your lessons have gone beyond the textbooks, teaching us the value of kindness, empathy, and respect. You've instilled in us the courage to face challenges, the wisdom to make the right choices, and the strength to stand up for what we believe in.

As you move on to the next phase of your lives, know that your impact on us is indelible. The knowledge you've imparted, the morals you've instilled, and the memories we've created together will forever be cherished. You leave behind a legacy of inspired learners, and for that, we are eternally grateful.

To my peers, let us take forward the lessons our teachers have taught us, honoring their contributions by living up to the values and ideals they've instilled in us. Let's continue to make

Teaching Middle Years Donna Pendergast, 2020-07-16 Teaching Middle Years has established itself as the most respected Australian text to focus on the adolescent years of schooling. Recognition of the educational importance of this age group continues to grow as research reveals the benefits of programs designed especially for young people's needs. This third edition provides a systematic overview of the philosophy, principles and key issues in middle schooling together with a new depth of focus on the emotional problems and behavioural challenges in working with students. The editors explore in detail two key areas in middle years pedagogy: differentiation and engagement, and there are new chapters on achieving effective transition, the importance of physical activity in adolescence and how to develop cooperative and collaborative learning. Featuring contributions from leading experts in the field and fully revised and updated to reflect the latest research, Teaching Middle Years will assist both pre-service and in-service teachers to bring out the very best in their students. Praise for the first edition: Teaching Middle Years gives the reader many ideas and examples based on sound research. It's an excellent coverage of the current thinking in this critical area of education from Teacher The National Education Magazine. Offers educators a combination of theoretical constructions based on Australian and international research and practical suggestions for teaching middle years students based on the proven good practices of many effective middle years teachers from the Australian Journal of Middle Schooling. This book should be required reading for every middle school leader who strives to better understand and facilitate middle level learning and achievement from Choice Current Reviews for Academic Libraries.

It reveals how in the days of Hellenistic rule, ancient Judaism was able to cope with the threat from the aggressive politics of the empires. Within this context, the elderly Tobit's hymn of praise at the end of the narrative in Tob 13 opens a vista of hope for its addressees.
