You Cant Get There From Here Part English Edition:

You Can't Get There From Here Ryan Porter, 2019-04-08 Rather than reading small town representations in Canadian literature as portraits of a parochial past or a lost golden age this book claims that they are best understood as sophisticated statements on the effects of modernity in an ever more cosmopolitan world In Ontario as urbanization increased over the past century small towns became a popular literary trope and Ryan Porter argues that literary small towns are reflections and even sublimated explorations of contemporary life Referencing the theories of heritage scholars who view popularly understood pasts as constructions shaped by changing sensibilities You Can't Get There from Here argues that the literary small town Ontario past is malleable consisting of attempts to come to terms with the present in which the narrators find themselves The book focuses on four key Ontario authors Stephen Leacock Robertson Davies Alice Munro and Jane Urquhart as well as many secondary authors and links the readings to much broader trends in actual Ontario towns and in popular culture

Can't Get There from Here Todd Strasser, 2004-04 Tired of being hungry cold and dirty from living on the streets of New York City with a tribe of other homeless teenagers who are dying one by one a girl named Maybe ponders her future and longs for someone to care about her

The Tenth Prayer Stephen G. Esrafi, 2000-07-21 The Tenth Prayer tells the story of Israel in its early days The book follows half a dozen people from the 1930s through 1960 and focuses on one theme Who is a Jew That question which has divided Israel since independence is raised by a character saying I want to be a Jew a Jewish Jew from Palestine It is raised again by a follower of the Irgun Zvai Leumi who uses Hebrew as a nationality And it is raised again when a whole village of Italian Catholics converts to Judaism during the war and must fight for acceptance as Jews Finally it is raised in the death of a baby of an Israeli Jew and an American Baptist a baby that cannot be buried under Israeli law Also touched on are civil rights freedom of the press the Law of Return the Eichmann case and the little Eichmann case a Zionist leader accused of helping the Germans which leads to unpunished murder The novel brings the story only to 1960 but it portrays the new country without the adulation of previous English language fiction as might be imagined since the main character is the woman who broadcast as the Voice of Fighting Zion broadcasting station of the Irgun Other characters include a kibbutz woman who must leave her settlement because her husband voted for the wrong party an assimilated American Jew who was active in Peter Bergson's American League for a Free Palestine One character spends time in a Lebanese concentration camp where this author was the first American hostage in Lebanon
