 newspaper Haaretz sent a young journalist named Elie Wiesel to the Soviet Union to report on the lives of Jews trapped behind the Iron Curtain I would approach Jews who had never been placed in the Soviet show window by Soviet authorities wrote Wiesel They alone in their anonymity could describe the conditions under which they live they alone could tell whether the reports I had heard were true or false and whether their children and their grandchildren despite everything still wish to remain Jews From them I would learn what we must do to help or if they want our help at all What he discovered astonished him Jewish men and women young and old in Moscow Kiev Leningrad Vilna Minsk and Tbilisi completely cut off from the outside world overcoming their fear of the ever present KGB to ask Wiesel about the lives of Jews in America in Western Europe and most of all in Israel They have scant knowledge of Jewish history or current events they celebrate Jewish holidays at considerable risk and with only the vaguest ideas of what these days commemorate Most of them come to synagogue not to pray Wiesel writes but out of a desire to identify with the Jewish people about whom they know next to nothing Wiesel promises to bring the stories of these people to the outside world And in the home of one dissident he is given a gift a

Walking in Zen, Sitting in Zen Osho,2023-03-15 Zen is another name for meditation The word zen comes from the Sanskrit root dhyana it has traveled far Dhyana means a state of absolute silence of thoughtless silence but full of awareness Even the thought that I am aware is enough to distract you from your meditation Even to know that I am in meditation is enough to destroy it A state of meditation is an innocent silent state You are blissfully unaware of your awareness You are but you are utterly relaxed You are not in a state of sleep you are fully alert more alert than ever You are alertness rather

How AI Thinks Nigel Toon,2024-02-08 THE 2 TIMES BESTSELLER Artificial intelligence is going to have a massive impact on everyone's lives an accessible and sensible read that helps demystify AI Deborah Meaden entrepreneur and star of Dragon's Den Nigel Toon is a visionary leader in the field of artificial intelligence a must read Marc Tremblay Distinguished Engineer Microsoft Those who understand how AI thinks are about to win big We are used to thinking of computers as being a step up from calculators very good at storing information and maybe even at playing a logical game like chess But up to now they haven't been able to think in ways that are intuitive or respond to questions as a human might All that has changed dramatically in the past few years Our search engines are becoming answer engines Artificial intelligence is already revolutionising sectors from education to healthcare to the creative arts But how does an AI understand sentiment or context How does it play and win games that have an almost infinite number of moves And how can we work with AI to produce insights and innovations that are beyond human capacity from writing code in an instant to unfolding the elaborate 3D puzzles of proteins We stand at the brink of a historic change that will disrupt society and at the same time create enormous opportunities for those who understand how AI thinks Nigel Toon shows how we train AI to train itself so that it can paint images that have never existed before or converse in any language In doing so he reveals the strange and fascinating ways that humans think too as we learn how to live in a world shared by machine intelligences of our own creation New York Magazine ,1981-07-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Tragedy and Biblical Narrative J. Cheryl Exum,1996-05-16 Using insights about ancient and modern tragedy this study offers challenging and provocative new readings of selected Biblical narratives the story of Israel s first king Saul rejected for his disobedience to God and driven to madness the story of Jephthah s sacrifice of his daughter in fulfillment of his vow to offer God a sacrifice in return for military victory and the story of Israel s most famous king David whose tragedy lies in the burden of divine judgement that falls on his house as a consequence of his sins The book discusses how these narratives handle such perennial tragic issues as guilt suffering and evil Soldiers ,1994 The Buying Curve David Fitzgerald and Karen Holden,2014-01-31 Sales is an industry that has evolved from the simple wheel to today s myriad of products or services camouflaged with features benefits and fluff led by stellar group of brand name companies If you are new to sales frustrated with your current career in sales because of inconsistent numbers or are an old dog that needs a new proven sales pitch this really is the only book you will EVER need to unlocking a rewarding career in sales not just from a production stand point but also by understanding the complete process of the Buying Curve The book is split into four parts The Sale nine steps of the sales process delivered in an easy to follow and read format Most importantly what will increase your sales without effort in fact easier than what you are currently doing If you are new to the industry it will insure you get off to the right start with a solid and proven way to make you a top sales person no matter what type of industry you are working in If you are looking to refresh your old style look no further this book will take you from snail mail to email and social media The second part No Sale takes a light hearted but real look at the mistakes we make when we are not selling and the impact it has on us a must read for all The third section How do we really fix what went wrong in our sales pitch The last section Coming Full Circle relates to what is needed in selling to today s media savvy prospect who know their options that shop around with a touch of
