choice of a starting point in California but through her obedience the Lord made beautiful memories from that return home He turned ashes into beauty in a very short time For there is no respect of persons with God he loves all of us Romans 2 11 16 For God so Loved the world that he gave his one and only son that who ever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life John 3 16 NIV

Mulholland, 2009-11 Joel Mulholland recounts the heartening story of her very memorable grandmother Between the ages of twelve and thirteen her grandmother received Christ as her Savior He would serve as her rock of strength for all her days The death of someone close to your heart leaves an overwhelming sense of void Suddenly a life is taken the body is lifeless and the soul is gone As a Christian there is the struggle between knowing that they are truly at peace and the natural human selfishness of wanting to keep them close But with the sting of each death comes new growth and maturity the realization of how much their love was needed and how much was shared with others The author s grandma left many treasures years of letters journal entries endless personal writings and remembered fellowship with family and friends will give a complete understanding of her journey Then the tributes from others and the impressions she left upon their own lives gives proof to her aspirations Through the tragic death of her father marriage to a young GI raising five boys and two girls and college at eighty two as Grandmere put it I am ready to see my Jesus
