Stepping Into Zion Janice W. Fernheimer, 2014-10-15 Considers the question Who is a Jew a critical rhetorical issue with far reaching consequences for Jews and non Jews alike Hatzaad Harishon The First Step was a New York based multiracial Jewish organization that worked to increase recognition and legitimacy for Black Jews in the sixties and seventies In Stepping into Zion Janice W Fernheimer examines the history and archives of Hatzaad Harishon to illuminate the shifting definitions and borders of Jewish identity which have critical relevance to Jews of all traditions as well as to non Jews Fernheimer focuses on a period when Jewish identity was in flux and deeply influenced by the Civil Rights and Black Power movements In 1964 white and Black Jews formed Hatzaad Harishon to foster interaction and unity between Black and white Jewish communities They raised the question of who or what constitutes Jewishness or Jewish identity and in searching for an answer succeeded both historically and rhetorically in gaining increased recognition for Black Jews Fernheimer traces how despite deep disagreement over definitions members of Hatzaad Harishon were able to create common ground in a process she terms interruptive invention an incremental model for rhetorical success that allows different groups to begin and continue important but difficult discussions when they share little common ground or make unequal claims to institutional and discursive power or when the nature of common ground is precisely what is at stake Consequently they provide a practical way out of the seemingly incommensurable stalemate incompatible worldviews present Through insightful interpretations of Hatzaad Harishon s archival materials Fernheimer chronicles the group s successes and failures within the larger rhetorical history of conflicts that emerge when cultural identities shift or expand

Between War and the State Van Nguyen-Marshall, 2023-07-15 In Between War and the State Van Nguyen Marshall examines an array of voluntary activities including mutual help professional charitable community development student women s and rights organizations active in South Vietnam from 1954 to 1975 By bringing focus to the public lives of South Vietnamese people Between War and the State challenges persistent stereotypes of South Vietnam as a place without society or agency. Such robust associational life underscores how an active civil society survived despite difficulties imposed by the war, government restrictions, economic hardship, and external political forces. These competing political forces, which included the United States, Western aid agencies, and Vietnamese communist agents, created a highly competitive arena wherein the South Vietnamese state did not have a monopoly on persuasive or coercive power. To maintain its influence, the state sometimes needed to accommodate groups and limit its use of violence. Civil society participants in South Vietnam leveraged their social connections; made alliances; appealed to the domestic and international public; and used street protests to voice their concerns, secure their interests, and carry out their activities.

Managing Youth Ministry Chaos Mike Woodruff, 2000 My Life of Ministry, Writing, Teaching, and Traveling Mark G. Boyer, 2021-02-04

In My Life of Ministry: Writing, Teaching, and Traveling, The Autobiography of an Old Mines Missionary, I present my life as a child growing up in a French village about sixty miles south of St. Louis in the middle of the twentieth century. After eighteen years of life in Old Mines, the oldest settlement in the state of Missouri, I moved to St. Louis for four years and then to St. Meinrad, Indiana, for four years where education opened my eyes to a world very much larger than my village of origin. Life continued for me after ordination as a priest in the Roman Catholic Church in Springfield and Joplin, Missouri. Because my life is the thread stitching together this book, I have made it manageable by dividing it into four categories: ministry, writing, teaching, and travel. These categories contain the stories of others whose life threads of seventy years are woven into my lifetime tapestry. This is my autobiography, one of a missionary from Old Mines to the thirty-nine counties forming the southern third of the state of Missouri, composed during my seventieth year of life.

Axiom Bill Hybels, 2008-09-09. The best leaders not only lead well but also reflect on their leadership long enough and thoughtfully enough to articulate the philosophies that cause them to do so. Whether serving in the marketplace or in ministry as executives or rank-and-file employees, as salaried staff or volunteer servants, good leaders can pinpoint the rationale for their actions and decisions with the ease of reciting their home address. In Axiom: The Language of Leadership, author Bill Hybels divulges the God-given convictions that have dictated his leadership strategy for more than three decades as senior pastor of Willow Creek Community Church. Oriented toward four key leadership categories: 1. Vision and strategy, 2. Promote shameless profitability, 3. Take a flyer, 4. Teamwork and communication. Obi Wan Kenobi: Isn't it for hire? Disagree without drawing blood, 5. Activity and assessment, 6. Develop a mole system, 7. Sweat the small stuff, 8. Personal integrity, 9. Admit mistakes, and 10. Your stock goes up. Fight for your family. Axiom brokers accessible wisdom from one leader's journey as well as emboldens you to nail down the reasons why you lead like you lead.

Eduardo Chibás Ilan Ehrlich, 2015-03-26 This comprehensive biography of Eduardo Ren Chib s 1907 1951 traces the life and times of Cuba s most popular and charismatic politician during the late 1940s and early 1950s Chib s whose admirers included young Fidel Castro emphasized honesty in Cuban public life and promised to sweep away corrupt politicians during his popular Sunday broadcasts His ties with supporters many of whom knew him simply as Eddy were closer and more informal than any previous Cuban politician During his 1948 presidential campaign Chib s often hurled himself into the arms of adoring supporters after speeches Such gestures were met with wonder and disgust by politicians more accustomed to buying votes than winning hearts His suicide in 1951 dashed the dreams of his followers who hoped he would deliver an honest government that provided services for the island s poor and respected Cuba s progressive 1940 constitution His death which was followed seven months hence by a military coup and eight years later by Castro s revolution represents one of the great what ifs of Cuban politics This seminal work explores Chib s s life in order to explain the nature of Cuban politics from the mid twentieth century to today , Towards Effective Sentencing Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Justice Committee,2008 This report evaluates the extent to which the provision s of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 to provide overall structure and clarity to sentencing by reserving prison for the most dangerous offenders and by making effective provision to deal with other offenders through community sentence have been implemented and its impact on sentencing The Committee is concerned that the Government failed to engage in any adequate resource and capacity planning for the coming into effect of the Imprisonment for Public Protection IPP This new sentence was not accompanied by the level of custodial resources required to make it work Meanwhile the desired shift to community penalties where public safety is not at issue has not occurred to the extent that was hoped Resources are a fundamental issue in delivering an effective sentencing strategy So too is public confidence in the criminal justice system The Government has failed to provide the information and leadership required to facilitate an informed public debate while the media climate for such debate often depends on isolated discussion of particular cases which inhibits calm consideration While the Government accepted the recommendations of Lord Carter s review of prisons the Committee found his report deeply unimpressive as it was not evidence based and was a missed opportunity It should have considered how to develop new ideas to address the problems with sentencing and provision of custodial and non custodial facilities in England and Wales The Government has not learnt vital lessons from past experience It needs to adopt a strategic approach to sentencing The Committee make a series of detailed recommendations around these issues in order to make further progress towards effective sentencing The First Thatcher Government, 1979-1983 Martin Holmes,2019-06-18 Originally published in 1985 This book has two aims first to analyse the change in economic policy formation between 1979 and 1983 and the way in which policy sources were translated into reality and second to analyse how the first Thatcher government has changed the nature of contemporary Conservatism These two themes overlap so consistently Necessary Noise Chérie Rivers Ndaliko,2016-09-28 Written by a scholar and activist in the center of the current public policy debate in the Democratic Republic of the Congo Necessary Noise presents a compelling view on the uneasy balance of accomplishing change through art against the unsteady background of war Ghana's Ashanti Pioneer Newspaper Jarvis L. The Jewish Agency and Syria during the Arab Revolt in Palestine Mahmoud Muhareb, 2022-12-29. Founded in 1929 the Jewish Agency played a central role in the founding of the State of Israel. Throughout the 1920s 30s and 40s many secret meetings took place between the JA and Arab leaders and elites. The dominant narrative claims that Syrian leaders and elites were not involved in any such meetings. However this book reveals for the first time that a multitude of secret meetings and negotiations took place including with the Syrian National Block the official Syrian leadership at the time and the Shahbandari opposition and leaders of Jabal al Druze. Based mainly on primary sources from Israeli archives including documentation of discussions reports and decisions taken by the JA leadership the book tells a new story of a critical period of history the Arab Revolt of 1936 1939 in Palestine. Mahmoud Muhareb argues that the main historic objective of the JA was to reach agreements with Arab leaders and Arab states behind the back of the Palestinians and at their expense and to normalize its relations with the Arab states while it continued to deny the national rights of the Palestinians. The book challenges Israeli and Syrian official narratives and substantiates the Palestinian narrative as well as some Israeli new historians who asserted Israel refusal to recognize the national rights of the Palestinians and affirmed its attempts to reach a comprehensive settlement with the Arab states at the expense of the Palestinians. The book includes Arabic and Hebrew sources translated into English for readers.
