- Q. When does my responsibility during the warranty period?
- A. The customer's responsibility includes all cases of normal maintenance, misuse, abnormal repairs, accidents and collision damage.
- Q. What are some examples of "abnormal" wear, neglect, or abuse?
- A. These items are general and covering each other in order. Specific examples include: running the machine out of oil, operating the machine with a broken or damaged part which causes another part to fail, and abuse, if you have any specific questions on operation or maintenance please consult your Yamaha Snow Blower dealer for advice.
- Q. Does the warranty cover incidental costs such as transportation due to a failure?
- A. No. The warranty is limited to repair of the machine itself.
- Q. Why I perform any or all of the recommended maintenance shown in the Owner's Manual in order to have the dealer do them?
- A. Yes, if you are a qualified mechanic and follow the procedure specified in the Owner's and Service Manuals. We do recommend, however, that the critical adjustments to timing and carburetor be done by a Yamaha Snow Blower dealer.
- Q. With the warranty for parts or operation if I do not operate or maintain my new Snow Blower as exactly as specified in the Owner's Manual?
- A. No. The warranty on a new Snow Blower will not be "voided" or "terminated" in operation if a particular failure is caused by operation or maintenance other than outlined in the Owner's Manual, that failure may not be covered under warranty.

- Q. What responsibility does my dealer have under this warranty?
- A. Each Yamaha Snow Blower dealer is expected to:
1. Completely set up every new machine before sale.
2. Explain the operation, maintenance and warranty requirements to your satisfaction at the time of sale, and upon your request at any later date. In addition, each Yamaha Snow Blower dealer is held responsible for the setup, service and warranty repair work.
- Q. Is the warranty transferrable to second owners?
- A. Yes. The remainder of the selling owner can be considered upon request. The unit has to be inspected and re-registered by an authorized transfer Snow Blower dealer for the policy to remain effective.
