INTRODUCTION

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF DAVE EGGERS

Dave Eggers grew up outside Chicago before attending the University of Illinois-Champaign. His father died in 1991 and his mother in 1992, both of cancer. Eggers subsequently took responsibility for his 8-year-old brother Zach, moving to Berkeley, California, where he supported himself doing freelance graphic design. After a number of years writing on a freelance basis, Eggers published the memoir A Heartbreaking Work of Staggering Genius in 2000, which became a bestseller. Eggers has written a number of novels since then, which have been increasingly focused on social issues in the United States. He is also the founder of the independent publishing house McSweeney's, as well as the nonprofit tutoring and writing center 826 Valencia. He lives in California with his wife, Wendie Vale, and children.

HISTORICAL CONTEXT

Zeitoun takes place during, and immediately after Hurricane Katrina, which struck the Gulf Coast of America on August 29, 2005 as a Category 3 storm. The hurricane itself led to a great amount of damage in Louisiana and Mississippi, but what happened after the storm was even more catastrophic. The average elevation of New Orleans, Louisiana is about 16 feet below sea level, and the houses that had been built decades before to hold back storm surges were breached by Katrina. This led to massive amounts of flooding, and hundreds of thousands of people in Louisiana (as well as in neighboring states) had to flee their homes. The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) received a great deal of criticism for its slow and (according to some) incompetent response to the disaster, which, because of the location of the town, disproportionately impacted the city's poorest and minority residents. Dave Eggers also fits Zeitoun into a broader historical context of changes taking place in the country after the terrorist attacks of September 11th. Anti-Muslim sentiment skyrocketed, and because of the Patriot Act, government officials had much more freedom to detain and question anyone suspected to be linked to terrorism—even if that suspicion had only to do with a person's religion or ethnicity. It is this confluence of factors, Eggers suggests, that led to the perfect storm of Zeitoun's predicament.

RELATED LITERARY WORKS

Dave Eggers is known for his self-reflexive, often experimental works. One of his books, What Is the What, is the true story of one of the "Lost Boys" from South Sudan—though it was marketed as a novel. Zeitoun, on the other hand, was sold as nonfiction, because of the greater ability to fact-check witness accounts. In general, Zeitoun fits into a broader trend of creative or nonfiction narrative, which has its roots in an earlier generation of journalists who tried to create a compelling, engaging narrative rather than dry reporting; these included Norman Mailer's The Executioner's Song and Truman Capote's Cold Blood. More recently, writers have used creative nonfiction to draw attention to underreported social issues and make people care about them by highlighting individual stories. One example is Katherine Boo's Behind the Beautiful Forevers, which deals with the stories of residents of a slum in Mumbai, India.

KEY FACTS

- Full Title: Zeitoun
- When Written: 2006-2009
- Where Written: New Orleans and San Francisco
- When Published: 2009
- Literary Period: Contemporary
- Genre: Creative nonfiction
- Setting: New Orleans, Louisiana; Phoenix, Arizona; Baton Rouge, Louisiana
- Climate: Zeitoun and his wife Kathy are reunited at the Hurricane prison after a month of Zeitoun's wrongful imprisonment.
- Antagonist: Many of Zeitoun's and Kathy's frustrations stem from the official and complicated nature of their antagonists. The "system"—that is, the legal and judicial system as well as various levels of law enforcement, and the Federal Emergency Management Agency—has broken down as a result of Hurricane Katrina, so it is difficult to find one person to blame for Zeitoun's wrongful arrest and imprisonment.
- Point of View: Reported third-person narrative

EXTRA CREDIT

Bearing Witness. Eggers met the *Zeitoun*s through the McSweeney's author's history human rights project, "Voices of Witness." One of the interviewees for a Katrina book was Abdulrahman Zeitoun.

Aftermath. The book notes the emotional problems faced by Kathy and Zeitoun in the years after the storm, and their marriage fell apart by the beginning of 2012.

World Scientific Handbook Of Transboundary Water Management: Science, Economics, Policy And Politics (In 4 Volumes) ,2025-01-10 The impacts of population growth climate change and water scarcity and variability on a country s economy or society in addition to the sheer need to harness international rivers for domestic and regional purposes have made the management of transboundary freshwater a subject of great import Over the past several decades research in various disciplines utilizing a variety of methodologies has explored these issues focusing on freshwater s strategic importance as well as conflict cooperation and negotiation over shared water bodies rivers lakes aquifers This multi volume set seeks to contribute to this still burgeoning body of literature by focusing on several key themes that can help explain and recognize successes and failures in transboundary freshwater management In particular the set seeks to bring together original scholarship focusing on international law technology institutions formal and informal and the interplay of domestic and international affairs Each edited volume in the set aims to build on extant research while also fostering new paths of inquiry Overall the set seeks to become a guide for both academics and practitioners hoping to better understand the joint management of this precious natural resource from socio political legal economic and technological perspectives Volume 1 explores international law for shared freshwater resources both surface and subsurface waters from a multidisciplinary perspective It explains the role of international water law IWL and or specific norms within particular contexts case studies and critically examines that role and its relative success or failure in achieving the intended objectives Volume 2 explores the roles of and limitations of technologies and their applications in the management of transboundary water and wastewater It presents case studies and legal and political analyses that focus on the potential or actual roles and implications of the technologies in transboundary policy and management rather than detailed explications of the technologies themselves Volume 3 contributes to the growing literature seeking to understand how when and if institutions broadly defined impact states abilities to address their joint water disputes The volume presents a combination of single comparative and empirical analyses of cases across the world about the role of institutions in facilitating collaboration over transboundary water resources and mitigating conflict Volume 4 seeks to make sense of the interplay of domestic transnational and international dynamics in explaining conflict and cooperation over water through single or comparative case studies as well as analyses of on the ground transboundary water management experiences arising from these complex political dimensions

Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity Linda C. Tillman, James Joseph Scheurich, 2013-08-21 The rapid growth of diversity within U S schooling and the heightened attention to the lack of equity in student achievement school completion and postsecondary attendance has made equity and diversity two of the principle issues in education educational leadership and educational leadership research The Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity is the first research based handbook that comprehensively addresses the broad diversity in U S schools by race ethnicity culture language gender disability sexual identity and class The Handbook both highly values the critically important strengths and assets that diversity brings to the United States and its schools yet at the same time candidly critiques the destructive deficit thinking biases and prejudices that undermine school success for many groups of students Well known chapter authors explore diversity and related inequities in schools and the achievement problems these issues present to school leaders Each chapter reviews theoretical and empirical evidence of these inequities and provides research based recommendations for practice and for future research Celebrating the broad diversity in U S schools the Handbook of Research on Educational Leadership for Equity and Diversity critiques the inequities connected to that diversity and provides evidence based practices to promote student success for all children
