The Sooner Story Anne Barajas Harp, 2015-07-08 David Ross Boyd stepped off the train in Norman Oklahoma on August 6 1892 and looked toward the southwest There was not a tree or shrub in sight wrote the former Kansas school superintendent just hired to serve as the University of Oklahoma's first president Behind me was a crude little town of 1 500 people and before me was a stretch of prairie on which my helpers and I were to build an institution of culture By 1895 five years after the University's official founding the school boasted four faculty members three men and one woman and 100 students Today the campus is home to more than 30 000 students and 2 700 full time faculty and is one of the most respected public universities in the nation with twenty one colleges offering hundreds of majors at the bachelor's master's and doctoral level OU's remarkable journey from that treeless prairie to its present standing as a world class institution of learning unfolds in The Sooner Story Arriving upon the university's 125th anniversary the book updates a history that last left off in 1980 when William Slater Banowsky was at the helm Author Anne Barajas Harp examines the school's history through the lens of each presidential administration from the beginning of David Ross Boyd's tenure to the present moment in David Lyle Boren's presidency now in its third decade In describing what each president encountered in his turn she captures the unique character challenges and accomplishments of each administration as these reflect the university's growth and progress through the twentieth and early twenty first centuries Discouraged Boyd wrote at his arrival in 1892 Not a bit The sight was a challenge The Sooner Story conveys the inspiration and excitement of meeting and renewing that challenge over the past 125 years

Society in Focus William E. Thompson, Joseph V. Hickey, Mica L. Thompson, 2018-11-13 Society in Focus An Introduction to Sociology Ninth Edition emphasizes how society and social forces affect everything from globalization and international policies to day to day activities in our personal lives In this edition the authors go beyond the mere questioning of issues to take a closer look at the social world in which we live They provide an integrated approach that uses sociological thinking to help students analyze and understand key concepts To focus increased attention on sociological thinking and research methods they have chosen four key themes media and technology globalization cultural diversity and trends for the future Because sociology is about all of us and our daily lives it is an eminently practical and useful discipline for understanding our social world This Ninth Edition Includes specific student outcomes for each chapter as well as assessment items linked to those outcomes new chapter opening vignettes that give real life examples illustrating important terms concepts and theories included in that chapter updated data statistics maps charts boxes and tables citing the latest research available examples of the powerful impact of media and technology on society especially the role social media play in helping to shape and define our daily social lives new photos and cartoons accompanied by critical thinking questions that reinforce and illustrate important sociological terms concepts and theories Between Worlds Linda Chisholm, 2017-11-30 How the story of how missionary schools adopted the Bantu education reforms gives insight into the ongoing legacy of the apartheid in the South African educational system The transition from apartheid to the post apartheid era has highlighted questions about the past and the persistence of its influence in present day South Africa This is particularly so in education where the past continues to play a decisive role in relation to inequality Between Worlds German Missionaries and the Transition from Mission to Bantu Education in South Africa scrutinises the experience of a hitherto unexplored German mission society probing the complexities and paradoxes of social change in education It raises challenging questions about the nature of mission education legacies Linda Chisholm shows that the transition from mission to Bantu Education was far from seamless Instead past and present interpenetrated one another with resistance and compliance cohabiting in a complex new social order At the same time as missionaries complied with the new Bantu Education dictates they sought to secure a role for themselves in the face of demands of local communities for secular state controlled education When the latter was implemented in a perverted form from the mid 1950s one of its tools was textbooks in local languages developed by mission societies as part of a transnational project with African participation Introduced under the guise of expunging European control Bantu Education merely served to reinforce such control The response of local communities was an attempt to domesticate and master the foreign body of the mission so as to create access to a larger world This book focuses on the ensuing struggle fought on many fronts including medium of instruction and textbook content with concomitant sub texts relating to gender roles and sexuality South Africa s educational history is to this day informed by networks of people and ideas crossing geographic and racial boundaries The colonial legacy has inevitably involved cultural mixing and hybridisation with paradoxically parallel pleas for purity Chisholm explores how these ideas found expression in colliding and coalescing worlds one African the other European caught between mission and apartheid education Who's who of Southern Africa , 2002 Vols for 1967 70 include as a section Who s who of Rhodesia Mauritius Central and East Africa
