The Lord Is My Song Mark G. Turner, 2016-04-12 Having been involved in Christian music for many years I have made an unfortunate observation Far too often music has been the primary focus of many worship practices and events Our Lord whom we love must be restored to the central point of our worship As an orchestral composer I realize how alluring music can be We must set this allurements aside and refocus on Gods glory If artistic beauty and musicianship have taken center stage then our music may have become a sinful source of pride Singers and musicians have sometimes become involved in worship teams and choirs without ever having begun a personal relationship with our Lord Jesus and when their musical motivation fades they depart having never learned to love Him Music is the organized auditory communicative expression by the living of the life they possess and the truths they profess In worship we affirm His worth Worship as an act of the will indicates our position as His obedient people and He as Lord must receive our adoration It is my intent with these devotionals based on seventy five passages of Scripture comprising 291 verses to provide a valuable resource for all who lead worship

Of Light and Its Absence Diana Vogel,2012-12-23 Of Light and Its Absence is author Jared Hugh Bohland's third book of poetry and lyrics and quite likely the most intimate and personal work yet written It is an incredibly honest look at the dichotomy of light and darkness love and hate good and evil Jared brings out the stark contrast between these opposing forces through two independent works the first being a collection of actual love letters made of poetry and lyrics written to his wife during a period of physical separation due to work and the second being a collection of actual nightmares and night terrors experienced by Jared himself throughout his lifetime Playing off the title of the book Jared attempts to use his real life experiences to provide a window into the reality that light love and goodness are real and that darkness hate and evil are merely their absence When we realize this truth we can begin to appreciate their presence and seek them out even further

Reflections from the Third Mountain Steve Rincavage,2017-12-26 Every journey starts with a first step a second step and sometimes followed by a lot of prep Hopefully this leads to a third step and many future accomplishments Our lives have many cycles right wrong or indifferent these poems categorize them into hills ravines ditches and mountains Your first mountain starts at conception and generally takes a breaking point after high school or some form of higher education or armed services Your second mountain typically lasts the longest It consists of those working years and can span until your retirement Marriage house hunting and children sometimes get entwined into those productive years Somewhere around 50 years old sometimes later one starts to navigate up the third mountain Your most productive years are behind you and you ponder how do I make a difference when the dash is over on this sphere
