You Stole My Identity:

Who Stole my Identity? Ángel Martínez, 2024-08-07 The identity theft A real threat in the digital age While the bank robbery in Miami Florida 20 years ago when Facebook was just beginning might seem like an episode taken from a common police series the story told by ngel Mart nez in his work is far from fiction It is a real story full of the drama inherent in life itself which exposes us to the alarming reality of identity theft and kidnapping to which we are exposed as citizens In this digital age where information is power we are in the hands of increasingly sophisticated criminals who have the technological tools necessary to steal and falsify our identities This situation makes us vulnerable victims susceptible to serious consequences that go beyond the material In an increasingly interconnected world personal identity has become one of the most valuable and at the same time vulnerable assets The consequences of falling victim to this crime can be devastating both financially and personally Therefore it is essential to take measures to protect our identity this book will make you reflect on the subject so you can not miss your library
