The Power of Language and the Language of Power from Churchill to Obama

Rossella Marcianò,2024-03-06 During the first decade of the 21st century the world did not experience a major pandemic nor a war at the borders of Europe Many events more or less tragic however occurred in those years from Brexit to the triumph of leftist liberalism in the USA This book is a comprehensive study of the political rhetoric of major politicians in those years all belonging to the British and American world from Obama to Farage from Johnson to Romney with occasional incursions from the not so distant past of British and American politics from Churchill to Enoch Powell and Margaret Thatcher This book methodologically uses the analytical tools provided by Critical Discourses Analysis CDA a linguistic sub discipline that evolved from the pioneering works of scholars such as Norman Fairclough Teun A van Dijk and Ruth Wodak It offers a comprehensive and sophisticated analysis of the rhetorical devices used by men and women of power demonstrating how much rhetoric now as it has been from time immemorial from the classical worlds of Athens Rome and Jerusalem and even before shaped not only the language of the politicians for good or evil but the destiny of the world Post-Truth,

Post-Press, Post-Europe Paul Rowinski,2020-09-20 This book explores whether a beleaguered press in recent years has been developing an emotive Eurosceptic post truth rhetoric of its own competing for attention with populist politicians These politicians now by pass the media talking directly to their publics in blogs on Twitter and Facebook In the post truth age objective facts are less influential in shaping opinion than appeals to emotion Audiences congregate around views they share and want to believe The author presents a critical discourse analysis of the language used by populist politicians online on Facebook and subsequently quoted in the press which highlights how the political rhetoric of Italian and British politicians is often at its most inflammatory around the issue of immigration The same goes for the press The Italian case study focuses on media coverage of the 2014 and 2019 European elections and 2018 general election The British case study examines press reporting of the 2016 UK referendum on EU membership the 2017 general election and the September 2019 parliamentary debate immediately following the UK Supreme Court ruling that proroguing of Parliament was illegal From the picture that emerges the author argues that journalists need to change how they report to challenge the post truthers holding them to account and pressing them on the facts while also harnessing the emotions of disaffected publics Teaching and Learning
