Youth's Companion, 1894      Resources in Education, 1999-10      An Affluent Society? Lawrence Black, Hugh Pemberton, 2017-07-28 During an election speech in 1957 the Prime Minister Harold Macmillan famously remarked that most of our people have never had it so good Although taken out of context this phrase soon came to epitomize the sense of increased affluence and social progress that was prevalent in Britain during the 1950s and 1960s Yet despite the recognition that Britain had moved away from an era of rationing and scarcity to a new age of choice and plenty there was simultaneously a parallel feeling that the nation was in decline and being economically outstripped by its international competitors Whilst the study of Britain's postwar history is a well trodden path and the paradox of absolute growth versus relative decline much debated it is here approached in a fresh and rewarding way Rather than highlighting economic and industrial decline this volume emphasizes the tremendous impact of rising affluence and consumerism on British society It explores various expressions of affluence new consumer goods shifting social and cultural values changes in popular expectations of policy shifting popular political behaviour changing attitudes of politicians towards the electorate and the representation of affluence in popular culture and advertising By focusing on the widespread cultural consequences of increasing levels of consumerism emphasizing growth over decline and recognizing the rising standards of living enjoyed by most Britons a new and intriguing window is opened on the complexities of this golden age Contrasting growing consumer expectations and demands against the anxieties of politicians and economists this book offers all students of the period a new perspective from which to view post imperial Britain and to question many conventional historical assumptions      Christian Souls and Chinese Spirits Nicole Constable, 2023-11-15 How do the people of a village that is both Chinese and Christian reconcile the contradictions between their religious and ethnic identities This ethnographic study explores the construction and changing meanings of ethnic identity in Hong Kong Established at the turn of the century by Hakka Christians who sought to escape hardships and discrimination in China Shung Him Tong was constructed as an ideal Chinese and Christian village The Hakka Christians translate traditional Chinese beliefs such as ancestral worship and death rituals that are incompatible with their Christian ideals into secular form providing a crucial link with the past and with a Chinese identity Despite accusations to the contrary these villagers maintain that while they are Christian they are still Chinese This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1994      Geographical Thought Anoop Nayak, Alex Jeffrey, 2013-12-02 Geographical Thought provides a clear and accessible introduction to the key ideas and figures in human geography The book provides an essential introduction to the theories that have shaped the study of societies and space Opening with an exploration of the founding in Love draws together a group of Catholic scholars and field practitioners to focus on the capacity of the Catechism to be a powerful point for the renewal of Christian catechesis education and culture through its reclamation of the Christian heritage its explanatory power and its compelling articulation of a civilization characterized by faith hope and love A special focus of the book is how the Catechism provides a creative reference point for pedagogical renewal in the Church Since the publication of the Catechism of the Catholic Church in 1992 catechists and pastors of souls have discovered how it has served as a great instrument of the New Evangelization We have awaited this volume as a mature reflection on its vital place in the hope expressed by St John Paul II for a springtime of New Evangelization In these pages you will find testimony on how through the Catechism this springtime is already taking shape Most Rev Mark Davies Bishop of Shrewsbury Province of Birmingham England
