The New Guitarscape in Critical Theory, Cultural Practice and Musical Performance Kevin Dawe,2017-07-05 In The New Guitarscape Kevin Dawe argues for a re assessment of guitar studies in the light of more recent musical social cultural and technological developments that have taken place around the instrument The author considers that a detailed study of the guitar in both contemporary and cross cultural perspectives is now absolutely essential and that such a study must also include discussion of a wide range of theoretical issues literature musical cultures and technologies as they come to bear upon the instrument Dawe presents a synthesis of previous work on the guitar but also expands the terms by which the guitar might be studied Moreover in order to understand the properties and potential of the guitar as an agent of music culture and society the author draws from studies in science and technology design theory material culture cognition sensual culture gender and sexuality power and agency ethnography real and virtual and globalization Dawe presents the guitar as an instrument of scientific investigation and part of the technology of globalization created and disseminated through corporate culture and cottage industry held close to the body but taken away from the body in cyberspace and involved in an enormous variety of cultural interactions and political exchanges in many different contexts around the world In an effort to understand the significance and meaning of the guitar in the lives of those who may be seen to be closest to it as well as providing a critically informed discussion of various approaches to guitar performance technologies and techniques the book includes discussion of the work of a wide range of guitarists including Robert Fripp Kamala Shankar Newton Faulkner Lionel Loueke Sharon Isbin Steve Vai Bob Brozman Kaki King Fred Frith John 5 Jennifer Batten Guthrie Govan Dominic Frasca I Wayan Balawan Vicki Genfan and Hasan Cihatter

Musical Bows and Zithers along the Great Silk Road Xiao Mei, Gisa Jähnichen, 2023-10-04 The musical bow is usually considered one of the earliest instruments in the history of instrumental development yet the validity of this view has not been proven In all likelihood it was one among many other early instruments created to produce sound The same can be said in general for all the simple chordophones called zithers of which the musical bow is one type The papers collected in this volume have been initially presented at the International Council for Traditional Music Colloquium ICTM held in Shanghai in December 2022 They try to challenge some previous depictions of instrumental development and one sided explanations of musical histories They specifically focus on exploring the interrelationship between instrumental development and the availability of natural resources in particular geographical regions While the papers at the colloquium focused on sound production they also explored the role of ethnomusicology as a discipline in guiding local decision making and interregional research co operation
