Z J C Student Written Notes Of History:

Zimbabwe Books in Print, 1993 Horizon, 1998 High School Days Dr. Ross Gordon Cooper, 2019-08-02 High school days in Africa were ones of challenge hard work and fun I attended a total four high schools commencing Form 1 at Vainona High School Forms 3 at Benoni and Churchill High Schools and sixth form college at ILSA During my time I faced many struggles and adjustments but throughout my high school era I never failed a public exam ZJC O AS and A Levels and Maths Olympiad I also took a keen interest in sport and clubs In particular I represented my schools in innumerable chess tournaments There were also the times of flirting and romance Punishments included the cane manual labour and detention Suspension and expulsions were only for very serious offences I hope that this book brings back high school memories to each reader People Making History Peter S. Garlake, Andre Proctor, 1985 Zimbabwean history is covered in two books from a socialist perspective Written in accessible language Book 1 describes pre colonial African history enlivened by many drawings photographs original sources and maps which are integrated into the text Book 2 applies a people centred approach and examines Africa from colonization to the present day in the context of international history The course follows a thematic approach balanced by a sense of chronology Re-thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Edward Shizha, Ngoni Makuvaza, 2017-04-17 What have postcolonial Sub Saharan African countries achieved in their education policies and programmes How far have they contributed to successful attainment of the targeted 2015 Millennium Development Goals MDGs on education What were the constraints and barriers for developing an education system that appeals to the needs of the sub region Re thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Post Millennium Development Goals is an attempt to demonstrate that Sub Saharan Africa has the potential and capability to provide solutions to challenges facing its desire and ability to provide sustainable education to its people To that end the contributors are academics with an African vision attempting to come up with African home grown perspectives to fill the gap created by the lapse of the MDGs as the guiding vision and framework for educational provision in Africa and beyond The book seeks to articulate and address African issues from an informed as well as objective African perspective The book is also intended to provide insights to scholars who are interested in studying and understanding the nature of postcolonial education in the Sub Saharan African region Given the objectives and themes of this book it is intended for academic scholars undergraduate and graduate students human rights scholars curriculum developers college and university academics teachers education policy makers international organisations and local and international non governmental organisations that are interested in African education policies and programmes Rethinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century provides contemporary reflections from multiple perspectives and re positions the issue of education at the forefront of the debates on African development Lamine Diallo Associate Professor Wilfrid Laurier University Canada The book is a welcome addition to discourses and analyses on education in sub Saharan Africa with
