Zebra Forest Adina Rishe Gewirtz:

Zebra Forest Adina Gewirtz, 2013-04-09 Inspired by her brooding grandmother to strive for excellence in all things resourceful 11 year old Annie lies to her social worker and invents imaginative stories about her murdered father until an escaped fugitive takes her family hostage upending everything she thought she knew about herself her family and their past
A first novel Blue Window Adina Rishe Gewirtz, 2018-04-03 Five siblings fall through time and space into a strange unkind world their arrival mysteriously foretold and land in the center of an epic civil struggle in a country where many citizens have given themselves over to their primal fears and animal passions at the urging of a power hungry demagogue When siblings Susan Max Nell Kate and Jean tumble one by one through a glowing cobalt window they find themselves outside their cozy home and in a completely unfamiliar world where everything looks wrong and nothing makes sense Soon an ancient prophecy leads them into battle with mysterious forces that threaten to break the siblings apart even as they try desperately to remain united and find their way home Thirteen year old twins Max and Susan and their younger siblings take turns narrating the events of their story in unique perspectives as each of the children tries to comprehend their stunning predicament and their extraordinary new powers in his or her own way From acclaimed author Adina Rishe Gewirtz comes a riveting novel in the vein of C S Lewis and E Nesbit full of nuanced questions about morality family and the meaning of home

Zebra Forest Adina Rishe Gewirtz, 2014-09-09 An emotionally honest family story with an ending that's hopeful without being implausibly upbeat Publishers Weekly starred review In an extraordinary debut novel an escaped fugitive upends everything two siblings think they know about their family their past and themselves Driven by suspense and psychological intrigue Zebra Forest deftly portrays an unfolding standoff of truth against family secrets and offers an affecting look at two resourceful imaginative kids as they react and adapt to the hand they've been dealt Zebra Forest Adina Rishe Gewirtz, 2013-04-09 In an extraordinary debut novel an escaped fugitive upends everything two siblings think they know about their family their past and themselves When eleven year old Annie first started lying to her social worker she had been taught by an expert Gran If you're going to do something make sure you do it with excellence Gran would say That was when Gran was feeling talkative and not brooding for days in her room like she did after telling Annie and her little brother Rew the one thing they know about their father that he was killed in a fight with an angry man who was sent away Annie tells stories too as she and Rew laze under the birches and oaks of Zebra Forest stories about their father the pirate or pilot or secret agent But then something shocking happens to unravel all their stories a rattling at the back door an escapee from the prison holding them hostage in their own home four lives that will never be the same Driven by suspense and psychological intrigue Zebra Forest deftly portrays an unfolding standoff of truth against family secrets and offers an affecting look at two resourceful imaginative kids as they react and adapt to the hand they've been dealt From ZEBRA FOREST We called it the Zebra Forest because it looked like a zebra Its trees were a mix of white birch and chocolate oak and if you stood a little ways from it like at our house looking across the back field that was our yard you saw stripes black and white that went up into green Gran never went out there except near dusk when the shadows gathered She didn't like to be out in full sunlight usually and told me once she didn't like the lines the trees made Gran was always saying stuff like that Perfectly beautiful things like a clean blue sky over the Zebra made tears come to her eyes and if I tried to get her to come outside with me she'd duck her head and hurry upstairs to bed But then it would be storming lightning sizzling the tops of the trees and she'd run round the house cheerful making us hot cocoa and frying up pancakes and warming us with old quilts We had few rules in our house but keeping out of the Zebra Forest in a storm was one of them
