All about us

A job fit for your lifestyle

The great thing about our 24 hour, seven days a week operation is that there is a big chance we've got a shift pattern to suit you - whether it is part time or full time.

We will always try to find ways to help you to take the time off you need, either with a flexi-leave, shift swap or career break. So you can manage things that are important to you whilst working for Tesco. This might include taking exams, childcare or religious holidays.

Training and Development Opportunities

At Tesco, we value our people. This means a performance review at least once a year, and if you are an development for bigger roles, a career discussion once every 12 months. We provide the support and direction for you to meet your goals.

You will also receive structured training and development that involves both in-store training on the shop floor and attending workshops.

We offer professional training and development for all our people that involves attending workshops and in-store training.

Rewards and Benefits

As well as competitive salaries at all levels, we also offer a whole package of other ways to help you make more of your money, including your future and how after your health. You will receive paid holiday, a staff discount card (after one year service) and an award-winning pension scheme.

To thank our people for the success they've brought the business, we award free shares to everyone who has worked here for one year at the end of the financial year (February). After five years three Tesco shares can be sold tax free. We also operate a Save As You Earn and Buy As You Earn share options scheme that all

Tesco is the UK's number one retailer. We have the lowest prices, the best quality, the biggest range and undoubtedly the best staff!

We have become a market leader by doing the little things that really matter for our customers and staff.

We believe in treating each other with respect and giving everyone an equal opportunity to get on.

It is our people that make the difference every day. They help us to create a great shopping trip for our customers and earn their loyalty for life.

A Tesco store is a high-performing, professional business where everyone has a role to play. Each role is aimed at making sure we do our best for each and every customer.

All about you

So, what are we looking for?

Everyone is welcome at Tesco. We want our stores to reflect the local community and we understand that you know local people best. We hand pick new members of the Tesco team based on their attitude and ability to give great service to customers, regardless of disability, age, race, sex or religion.

We're looking for positive, cheerful and friendly people who enjoy working with others and who love to share a smile!

If this is you then we'd love to hear from you.

What to expect

Please take your time to fill in this application form, as it is the first step of the selection process.

When you have completed the form take it along to your locally recruiting store. Once we have had time to review your application and providing you are able to demonstrate the skills we are looking for, you will be contacted for an interview.

The interview could be on a one to one basis or in a group. Part of this session is designed to give you the opportunity to see what it is really like to work as part of the team in Tesco, and you'll get to have a quick go at the job you have applied for.

Don't worry, this is just to make sure that you fit in with the store and for you to decide whether Tesco is right for you. After this you can expect to hear from us within 10 days of interview, hopefully to welcome you to the team!

Getting in touch

We hope you'll decide we're right for you, and that you've got what it takes to help tell us - and our customers - more further. If you like what you have read, then please complete this application form and return it to your locally recruiting store.

Diversity was one of the first books to respond to growing academic coverage of the topic of diversity management at degree level. This fourth edition has been fully updated to reflect new working practices, statistical information and developments in equality and diversity law as well as including new case studies and analysis of current and emerging areas of debate in the UK and across Europe. Diversity management is a term that covers not only race, disability and sex discrimination but also broader issues such as individual and cultural differences. The Dynamics of Managing Diversity fourth edition provides HR and business managers of the future with the legal information and research findings to enable them to develop meaningful diversity policies in their organizations. This new edition offers coverage of topical areas such as female representation on executive boards, religious diversity and economic migration following EU enlargement. Multiple analytical perspectives such as socio-legal and feminist approaches provide rich insights to the subject matter. Practical case studies illustrate the real-life issues in a local, international and organizational context. Kirton and Greene present the subject of diversity management in a logical and structured manner, beginning each chapter with aims and objectives and ending with discussion questions, making this book the perfect support resource for those teaching or studying in the field of equality and diversity.

Analytics and Knowledge Management Suliman Hawamdeh, Hsia-Ching Chang, 2018-08-06. The process of transforming data into actionable knowledge is a complex process that requires the use of powerful machines and advanced analytics techniques. Analytics and Knowledge Management examines the role of analytics in knowledge management and the integration of big data theories, methods and techniques into an organizational knowledge management framework. Its chapters, written by researchers and professionals, provide insight into theories, models, techniques and applications with case studies examining the use of analytics in organizations. The process of transforming data into actionable knowledge is a complex process that requires the use of powerful machines and advanced analytics techniques. Analytics, on the other hand, is the examination, interpretation and discovery of meaningful patterns, trends and knowledge from data and textual information. It provides the basis for knowledge discovery and completes the cycle in which knowledge management and knowledge utilization happen. Organizations should develop knowledge focuses on data quality, application domain, selecting analytics techniques and on how to take actions based on patterns and insights derived from analytics. Case studies in the book explore how to perform analytics on social networking and user-based data to develop knowledge. One case explores analyzing data from Twitter feeds. Another examines the analysis of data obtained through user feedback. One chapter introduces the definitions and processes of social media analytics from different perspectives as well as focuses on techniques and tools used for social media analytics. Data visualization has a critical role in the advancement of modern data analytics, particularly in the field of business intelligence and analytics. It can guide managers in understanding market trends and customer purchasing patterns over time. The book illustrates various data visualization tools that can support answering different types of business questions to improve profits and customer relationships. This insightful reference concludes with a chapter on the critical issue of cybersecurity It examines the process of collecting and organizing data as well as reviewing various tools for text analysis and data analytics and discusses dealing with collections of large datasets and a great deal of diverse data types from legacy system to social networks platforms Cyber Law in the United Kingdom Ian
