illustrated edition Anon E. Mouse, 2017-10-23 This extraordinary volume contains 33 old and forgotten folk and fairy tales including stories like The Magic Mirror The Ugly Duckling The Goldsmith's Fortune The Enchanted Wreath The Clever Cat and many many more These stories originate from Jutland Rhodesia Zimbabwe Uganda India Scotland Denmark and various European countries The stories are brought to life by illustrations from H J Ford Herein are 8 full page colour plates 19 full page pen and ink drawings and a further 33 in text vignettes There was a time when the president of the Folk Lore Society believed it was not acceptable for the editors of the day in particular Mr Andrew Lang and Mr Joseph Jacobs to publish fairy books Their reply was that they did not see any harm in it and they were ready to put themselves on their country and be tried by a jury of children And so they were proving the President of the FLS wrong This book also contains many references to fairies As to whether there are really any fairies or not is a difficult question Andrew Lang never saw any himself but he knew several people who have seen them in the Highlands and heard their music If ever you are near Nether Lochaber go to the Fairy Hill and you may hear the music your self as grown up people have done but you must go on a fine day If fairies really do not exist why do so many people believe in them the world over The ancient Greeks the old Egyptians the Hindus the Chinese the Africans and even the Native Americans claim to have seen them and it is unlikely that so many different peoples would have seen and heard them The Editor cannot say good bye without advising children as they pursue their studies to read The Rose and the Ring by the late Mr Thackeray He believes this book is quite indispensable in every child s library and parents should be urged to purchase it at the first opportunity as without it no education is really complete

The Orange Fairy Book Andrew Lang,2016-04-12 The children who read fairy books or have fairy books read to them do not read prefaces and the parents aunts uncles and cousins who give fairy books to their daughters nieces and cousins leave prefaces unread For whom then are prefaces written When an author publishes a book out of his own head he writes the preface for his own pleasure After reading over his book in print to make sure that all the u s are not printed as n s and all the n s as u s in the proper names then the author says mildly in his preface what he thinks about his own book and what he means it to prove if he means it to prove anything and why it is not a better book than it is But perhaps nobody reads prefaces except other authors and critics who hope that they will find enough in the preface to enable them to do without reading any of the book This appears to be the philosophy of prefaces in general and perhaps authors might be more daring and candid than they are with advantage and write regular criticisms of their own books in their prefaces for nobody can be so good a critic of himself as the author if he has a sense of humour If he has not the less he says in his preface the better These Fairy Books however are not written by the Editor as he has often explained out of his own head The stories are taken from those told by grannies to grandchildren in many countries and in many languages French Italian Spanish Catalan Gaelic Icelandic Cherokee African Indian Australian Slavonic Eskimo and what not The stories are not literal or word by word translations but have been altered in many ways to make them suitable for children FAIRIES The Story of the Hero Makoma The Magic Mirror Story of the King Who Would See Paradise How Isuro the Rabbit Tricked Gudu Ian the Soldier s Son The Fox and the Wolf How Ian Direach Got the Blue Falcon The Ugly Duckling The Two Caskets The Goldsmith s Fortune The Enchanted Wreath The Foolish Weaver The Clever Cat The Story of Manus Pinkel the Thief The Adventures of a Jackal The Adventures of the Jackal s Eldest Son The Adventures of the Younger Son of the Jackal The Three Treasures of the Giants The Rover of the Plain The White Doe The Girl Fish The Owl and the Eagle The Frog and the Lion Fairy The Adventures of Covan the Brown Haired The Princess Bella Flor The Bird of Truth The Mink and the Wolf Adventures of an Indian Brave How the Stalos Were Tricked Andras Baive The White Slipper The Magic Book
