Engineering News-record, 1921 The Monstrous-Feminine Barbara Creed, 2023-11-02 This is a timely update of a seminal text which reinterprets key films of the horror genre including Carrie The Exorcist The Brood and Psycho In the first edition Creed draws on Julia Kristeva's theory of abjection to challenge the popular view that women in horror are almost always victims and argues that patriarchal ideology constructs women as monstrous in relation to her sexuality and reproductive body to justify her subjugation Although a projection of male fears and paranoid fantasies the monstrous feminine is nonetheless a terrifying figure Creed's argument contests Freudian and Lacanian theories of sexual difference to offer a provocative rereading of classical and contemporary horror This updated edition includes a new section examining contemporary feminist horror films in relation to nonhuman theory Creed proposes a new concept of radical abjection to reinterpret the monstrous feminine as a figure who embraces abjection by reclaiming her body and redefining her otherness as nonhuman while questioning patriarchy anthropocentrism misogyny and the meaning of the human Films discussed include Ginger Snaps Teeth Atlantics The Girl with All the Gifts Border and Titane Barbara Creed's classic remains as relevant as ever and this edition will be of interest to academics and students of feminist theory nonhuman theory critical animal studies race and queer theory Tools and Algorithms for the Construction and Analysis of Systems Armin

Michael Lerner comes a strategy for a new socialism built on love kindness and compassion for one another Revolutionary Love proposes a method to replace what Lerner terms the capitalist globalization of selfishness with a globalization of generosity prophetic empathy and environmental sanity Lerner challenges liberal and progressive forces to move beyond often weak kneed and visionless politics to build instead a movement that can reverse the environmental destructiveness and social injustice caused by the relentless pursuit of economic growth and profits Revisiting the hidden injuries of class Lerner shows that much of the suffering in our society including most of its addictions and the growing embrace of right wing nationalism and reactionary versions of fundamentalism is driven by frustrated needs for community love respect and connection to a higher purpose in life Yet these needs are too often missing from liberal discourse No matter that progressive programs are smartly constructed they cannot be achieved unless they speak to the heart and address the pain so many people experience Liberals and progressives need coherent alternatives to capitalism but previous visions of socialism do not address the yearning for anything beyond material benefits Inspired by Herbert Marcuse Erich Fromm and Carol Gilligan Revolutionary Love offers a strategy to create the Caring Society Lerner details how a civilization infused with love could put an end to global poverty homelessness and hunger while democratizing the economy shifting to a twenty eight hour work week and saving the life support system of Earth He asks that we develop the courage to stop listening to those who tell us that fundamental social transformation is unrealistic
