The Orange Lilies A Morton Farrier Novella:

The Orange Lilies Nathan Dylan Goodwin, 2014-12 Morton Farrier has spent his entire career as a forensic genealogist solving other people's family history secrets all the while knowing so little of his very own family's mysterious past. However, this poignant Christmastime novella sees Morton's skills put to use much closer to home as he must confront his own past present and future through events both present day and one hundred years ago. It seems that not every soldier saw a truce on the Western Front that 1914 Christmas. This is the third book in the Morton Farrier genealogical crime mystery series although it can be enjoyed as a stand-alone story.

The Deserter's Tale Nathan Dylan Goodwin, 2023-09-15 When forensic genealogist Morton Farrier accepted an invitation to travel to Salt Lake City, Utah, to speak at the RootsTech genealogy conference, he had been unaware that one of his co-panelists was to be none other than his former girlfriend, Madison Scott Barnhart. Whilst he prepares anxiously to meet her for what will be the first time in twenty-six years and hopefully to discover the unresolved truth behind her abrupt ending of their relationship, he takes on the case of researching his wife's mysterious great grandfather, a man who deserted his Sussex family shortly after the First World War. In the course of his investigations and time in the States, Morton uncovers some shocking truths, some of which are uncomfortably close to home.

The Sawtooth Slayer Nathan Dylan Goodwin, 2022-10-28 April 2020 Twin Falls, Idaho. A serial killer is on the loose. A nameless man is kidnapping young women from their own homes, taking them out of the city to kill them before returning their bodies to random locations around the city. Detective Maria Gonzalez heads up the investigation but has very few leads to pursue. As time passes and fears rise that the killer might strike again with a fifth victim, Maria turns to Venator, an investigative genetic genealogy company, in the hope that they can identify the killer from his DNA alone before he has the chance to take yet another life. Despite her initial reticence to take on the company's first ever live case, Madison Scott Barnhart and her team in Salt Lake City agree to try to reveal the identity of this barbaric serial killer. In the midst of the global pandemic that has closed the Venator office and posed both personal and professional problems for Madison, time is running out on this case. This is the second novel in the Venator Cold Case series. Although it can be enjoyed as a stand-alone story for the best experience, begin your journey with The Chester Creek Murders.

The Foundlings Nathan Dylan Goodwin, 2021-10-30 Forensic genealogist Morton Farrier agrees to take on a case to identify the biological mother of three foundlings abandoned in shop doorways as newborn babies in the 1970s. He has just one thing with which to begin his investigation: the three women's DNA, one of whom is his half-aunt. With just six days of research time available to him, his investigation uncovers some shocking revelations and troubling links to his own grandfather, and Morton finds that for the first time in his career, he is advising his clients not to read his concluding report. This is the ninth novel in the Morton Farrier genealogical crime mystery series, although it can be enjoyed as a stand-alone story.
