Yuhl, 2006-03-08 Charleston South Carolina today enjoys a reputation as a destination city for cultural and heritage tourism In A Golden Haze of Memory Stephanie E Yuhl looks back to the crucial period between 1920 and 1940 when local leaders developed Charleston's trademark image as America's Most Historic City Eager to assert the national value of their regional cultural traditions and to situate Charleston as a bulwark against the chaos of modern America these descendants of old line families downplayed Confederate associations and emphasized the city's colonial and early national prominence They created a vibrant network of individual artists literary figures and organizations such as the all white Society for the Preservation of Negro Spirituals that nurtured architectural preservation art literature and tourism while appropriating African American folk culture In the process they translated their selective and idiosyncratic personal familial and class memories into a collective identity for the city The Charleston this group built Yuhl argues presented a sanitized yet highly marketable version of the American past Their efforts invited attention and praise from outsiders while protecting social hierarchies and preserving the political and economic power of whites Through the example of this colorful southern city Yuhl posits a larger critique about the use of heritage and demonstrates how something as intangible as the recalled past can be transformed into real political economic and social power Fairy Tales from Gold Lands May Wentworth,1867

Motherlove in Shades of Black Gloria Thomas Pillow,2014-01-10 This book closely examines the mother figure in six works by African American women at various times in American history Harriet Jacobs s Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Pauline Hopkins s Contending Forces Nella Larsen s Passing Gwendolyn Brooks s Maud Martha Alice Walker s The Color Purple and Toni Morrison s Beloved It studies how the mother in each novel negotiates the ragged hostile landscape of a prohibitive environment to love protect and raise her children Delving far deeper than surface explanations it is informed by psychological analysis to reveal the forces that create the unique tensions of the African American mother s life her inspired strategies for survival and the character of the nurturing she gives her children Sex, Shame, and Violence Kathleen Cash,2016-07-19 Choice Outstanding Academic Title of 2017 For more than three decades Kathleen Cash has lived and worked with impoverished people learning about their lives Listening to them talk about their feelings of shame Cash heard how people suffered from being unable to change what was happening to them HIV infection sexual and domestic violence violence toward children and environmental degradation She saw that many interventions lacked emotional and cultural integrity and thus did little to alleviate these hardships So Cash went outside the conventional approaches to health promotion and social justice and devised a community narrative practice a strategy for engaging people through storytelling From numerous ethnographic interviews she pieced together cultural stories in a way that resonated with community people and revealed the paradoxes in their suffering Cash recruited local artists to illustrate the stories in a form resembling a graphic novel and distributed these booklets for community discussion This book includes excerpts from these illustrated stories In Thailand Bangladesh Haiti Uganda and the United States people learned to talk about forbidden subjects and say what they could never say before They stood up to each other reconciled and made health seeking decisions By helping others they repaired themselves In cathartic conversations they acknowledged shame which led to acts of courage and generosity My Hope Hope Dukes,2022-10-28 Hello my dear If you re reading this today is your start to becoming a new improved and best version of yourself and it will change your life forever It changed mine Now one thing is for sure Change is not easy When you re striving hard to do the right thing and to fulfill your purpose in life there will be people places and things that will try to deter you from walking in your purpose and will try to take you back to the place that you have been delivered from So brace yourself It gets harder from here But even though the road gets rough God will never leave you He will give you the strength that you need to get through any situation joy in the midst of pain and His peace that passes all understanding that all you need Hope is defined as a feeling of expectation and desire for a certain thing to happen a feeling of trust Life has all kinds of disappointments These disappointments may have started to harden your heart made you lose hope or made you live with no expectations at all Disappointments may have made you believe that expectations are letdowns if you do not expect things then you will not be let down You may have started to always expect the worst for your life and maybe you have become content with suffering My friend Satan thought he had you but it is time to get your hope back I love you Always and forever Hope

The Maya World Matthew Restall, 1999-02-01 This pathbreaking work is a social and cultural history of the Maya peoples of the province of Yucatan in colonial Mexico spanning the period from shortly after the Spanish conquest of the region to its incorporation as part of an independent Mexico Instead of depending on the Spanish sources and perspectives that have formed the basis of previous scholarship on colonial Yucatan the author aims to give a voice to the Maya themselves basing his analysis entirely on his translations of hundreds of Yucatec Maya notarial documents from libraries and archives in Mexico Spain and the United States most of which have never before received scholarly attention These documents allow the author to reconstruct the social and cultural world of the Maya municipality or cah the self governing community where most Mayas lived and which was the focus of Maya social and political identity The first two parts of the book examine the ways in which Mayas were organized and differentiated from each other within the community and the discussion covers such topics as individual and group identities sociopolitical organization political factionalism career patterns class structures household and family patterns inheritance gender roles sexuality and religion The third part explores the material environment of the cah emphasizing the role played by the use and exchange of land while the fourth part describes in detail the nature and significance of the source documentation its genres and its language Throughout the book the author pays attention to the comparative contexts of changes over time and the similarities or differences between Maya patterns and those of other colonial era Mesoamericans notably the Nahuas of central Mexico

Racecraft Barbara J. Fields, Karen E. Fields, 2022-02-01 A new edition of a celebrated contemporary work on race and racism Praised by a wide variety of people from Ta Nehisi Coates to Zadie Smith Racecraft ought to be positioned as Bookforum put it at the center of any discussion of race in American life Most people assume racism grows from a perception of human difference the fact of race gives rise to the practice of racism Sociologist Karen E Fields and historian Barbara J Fields argue otherwise the practice of racism produces the illusion of race through what they call racecraft And this phenomenon is intimately entwined with other forms of inequality in American life So pervasive are the devices of racecraft in American history economic doctrine politics and everyday thinking that the presence of racecraft itself goes unnoticed That the promised post racial age has not dawned the authors argue reflects the failure of Americans to develop a legitimate language for thinking about and discussing inequality That failure should worry everyone who cares about democratic institutions

Speaking Lives, Authoring Texts DeVonna S. Fulton Minor, Reginald H. Pitts, 2012-02-01 Speaking Lives Authoring Texts is a critical
