The Bookseller ,1894 The Person of Jesus Christ in the Writings of Juhanon Gregorius Abu'l Faraj

Commonly Called Bar Ebraya Mathunny John Panicker,2002 Panicker s book about the Christology of the Bar Ebraya a work he completed while living in Rome provides a comprehensive overview of the great Middle Age theologians of the Syrian renaissance with a view to considering key Christological questions Panicker who is now a lecturer at the Orthodox seminar in Kottayam has specific ecumenical aims in mind when he discusses the themes of his book Hence Panicker is able to make significant contributions to modern ecumenism Women, Pilgrimage, and Rituals of Healing in Modern and

Ancient Greece Evy Johanne Håland,2023-07-21 This book investigates religious rituals and gender in modern and ancient Greece with a specific focus on women s role in connection with healing How can we come to understand such mainstays of ancient culture as its healing rituals when the male recorders did not and could not know or say much about what occurred since the rituals were carried out by women The book proposes that one way of tackling this dilemma is to attend similar healing rituals in modern Greece carried out by women and compare the information with ancient sources thus providing new ways of interpreting the ancient material we possess Carrying out fieldwork being present during often enduring rituals within cultures despite other changes teaches one whole new ways of looking at written and pictorial records of such events By bringing ancient and modern worlds into mutual illumination this text also has relevance beyond the Greek context both in time and space Publisher and Bookseller ,1894 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series The Letters of Barsanuphius and John John Chryssavgis,2022-06-02 Revealing unexpected truths about early desert spirituality this volume argues that the lives of Barsanuphius and John relate closely to contemporary urban communities and how clergy tackle social challenges The early Desert Fathers and Mothers have exercised a particular charm and appeal in recent years but they have often been portrayed as inaccessible and eccentric figures in the history of monastic spirituality John Chryssavgis argues that the elders have an unusual capacity to reach into the depths of the heart to reveal the extraordinary in the very ordinary and that the correspondence between Barsanuphius and John offers an unparalleled glimpse into the sixth century religious political and secular world It opens with an exploration into the historical context of Palestinian monasticism followed by an evaluation of the fundamental principles and practices of Barsanuphius and John The Month

Peterborough Chronicle The E text is of enormous importance in Chronicle studies in its early part it is the best representative of the Northern Recension of the Chronicle in continuing up to the second half of the twelfth century its span is by far the longest of all the versions Even more than other versions of the Chronicle it reflects transitions of vital interest to historians linguists and literary scholars The E text has not been edited in its entirety except as a facsimile for over a century This semi diplomatic edition offers a readable text with modern punctuation and capitalization The interpolated material relating to Peterborough is clearly distinguished from the rest of the text Indices of personal names people names and place names follow the text itself The Introduction includes an account of the manuscript and a linguistic analysis of the E text The E text cannot of course be studied in isolation This volume is part of the Anglo Saxon Chronicle Collaborative Series and with its publication the Series now includes editions of the main texts through from A to F A substantial section of the Introduction to the volume is devoted to a detailed discussion of E's complex textual relationships with the other versions of the Chronicle and also with other relevant documents such as Peterborough Charters and twelfth century Latin chronicles Dr SUSAN IRVINE is Senior Lecturer in the Department of English University College London Illustrations of Biblical Literature James Townley, 1842 The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1894 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom Reports from the Select Committee Appointed to Inquire Into the State of the Public Records of the Kingdom, 1801 National Geographic Traveler: Spain, 3rd Edition Fiona Dunlop, 2008-10-21 The Mediterranean country of Spain ranks No 2 in world destinations and its vibrancy and passion are brought alive in the colorful comprehensive National Geographic Traveler Spain Sumptuous pictures complement detailed city maps practical travel tips and everything from where to find the best tapas to Spanish history and culture Contemplative Literature Louis Komjathy, 2015-08-31 This is the first theoretically informed and historically accurate comparative anthology of primary texts on meditation and contemplative prayer Written by international experts on the respective texts and corresponding traditions Contemplative Literature provides introductions to and primary sources on contemplative practice from various religious traditions The contributors explore classical Daoist apophatic meditation Quaker silent prayer Jewish Kabbalah Southern Buddhist meditation Sufi contemplation Eastern Orthodox prayer Pure Land Buddhist visualization Hindu classical Yoga Dominican Catholic prayer Daoist internal alchemy and modern therapeutic meditation Each introduction to a contemplative text discusses its historical context the associated religious tradition and literature the method of contemplative practice and the text's legacy and influence Volume editor Louis Komjathy opens the work with a thoughtful consideration of interpretive issues in the emerging interdisciplinary field of contemplative studies Readers will gain not only a nuanced understanding of important works of contemplative literature but also resources for understanding contemplative practice and contemplative experience from a comparative and cross cultural perspective A Library of the World's Best Literature Charles Dudley Warner, 2009-01-01 It would be enough to recommend this astonishing 45 volume set first published in 1896 if it were merely a wonderfully massive compilation of the world's best writings from the world's best authors up until the advent of the 20th century But A Library of the World's Best Literature is so much more than that For this marvelous collection represents the evolution of human thought the evolution of human civilization even as seen through the mind of one of the most important if sadly almost forgotten literary figures of the 19th century Popular American essayist novelist and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER 1829 1900 was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue biography and autobiography fiction and more and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work a splendid survey of global literature classic and modern and it's not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain who stole Warner's quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it had assembled this set it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world And so it still deserves to be Arranged not chronologically but alphabetically mostly under the names of authors but in some cases of literatures or special subjects such as Icelandic literature or Arthurian legend this set is no dry reference work These eminently browsable volumes available through Cosimo for the first time in decades in both paperback and hardcover editions are meant to be read and enjoyed by anyone who loves the written word Volume 45 features more synopses of notable works from Adam Bede by George Eliot to Zury The Meanest Man in Spring County by Joseph Kirkland including many not previously referenced in the set but highlighted as well worth a serious reader's time and attention This volume also includes a General Index to the 45 volume set
