The Muslim Entrepreneur The Muslim Entrepreneur Series Book 1:

The Muslim Entrepreneur Oumar Soule, 2015-08 This book is about Muslim Entrepreneurs from all around the world that have achieved success We examine what Islam says about entrepreneurship becoming wealthy the attitude and philosophies of the wealthy Muslim Entrepreneurs and also the strategies they follow to reach high levels of success What to do with the money and many other points Islamic Entrepreneurship Rasem N. Kayed, M. Kabir Hassan, 2013-12-16 This book discusses the idea that there is a specific Islamic form of entrepreneurship Based on extensive original research amongst small and medium sized enterprises in Saudi Arabia it shows how businesses are started and how they grow in the context of an Islamic economy and society It argues that as specific Islamic approaches to a wide range of economic activities are being formulated and implemented there is indeed a particular Islamic approach to entrepreneurship Examining the relationship between Islamic values and entrepreneurial activity the book considers whether such values can be more effectively used in order to raise the profile of Islamic entrepreneurship and also to promote alternatives to development in the contemporary business environment The book analyses the nature of entrepreneurship and the special qualities of Islamic entrepreneurship and discusses how the Islamic approach to entrepreneurship can be encouraged and developed further still Women Entrepreneurs and Business Empowerment in Muslim Countries Minako Sakai, Amelia Fauzia, 2022-09-26 This book analyzes women entrepreneurs in Muslim countries who are using Islamic values to develop and run small businesses As a core case study the authors are using Indonesia as it is the largest Muslim country in the world by population The project examines supportive policies and economic programs in detail and considers their effects on the businesses of several women entrepreneurs Additionally the authors argue that this work life balance is critical for the definition of a successful female Muslim entrepreneur The monograph considers whether this new phenomenon indicates a change in the conception of ideal Muslim womanhood or whether it is a limited phenomenon with few impacts beyond Indonesia The book will appeal to academic and practitioner audience interested in Islam gender studies Middle Eastern and South Asian politics development anthropology and social policy Islam, Modernity and Entrepreneurship among the Malays P. Sloane, 1998-11-23 The book is based on original research on the entrepreneurial leaders in the Malay community and on the author's own participation in Malay business ventures Sloane draws on her experience of working in Wall Street to analyse the ironies and contradictions in both the prevailing Western Asian and Malay definitions of entrepreneurship and the heroes of competing styles of capitalism Rebranding Islam James Bourk Hoesterey, 2015-11-11 Kyai Haji Abdullah Gymnastiar known affectionately by Indonesians as Aa Gym elder brother Gym rose to fame via nationally televised sermons best selling books and corporate training seminars In Rebranding Islam James B Hoesterey draws on two years study of this charismatic leader and his message of Sufi ideas blended with Western pop psychology and management theory to examine new trends in the religious and economic desires of an aspiring middle class the political predicaments bridging self and state and the broader themes of religious authority economic globalization and the end s of political Islam At Gymnastiar s Islamic school television studios and MQ Training complex Hoesterey observed this charismatic preacher developing a training regimen called Manajemen Qolbu into Indonesia s leading self help program via nationally televised sermons best selling books and corporate training seminars Hoesterey s analysis explains how Gymnastiar articulated and mobilized Islamic idioms of ethics and affect as a way to offer self help solutions for Indonesia s moral economic and political problems Hoesterey then shows how after Aa Gym s fall the former celebrity guru was eclipsed by other television preachers in what is the ever changing mosaic of Islam in Indonesia Although Rebranding Islam tells the story of one man it is also an anthropology of Islamic psychology The Good Entrepreneur Cristina Santini, 2020-12-20 This book explores the relationship between entrepreneurship and doing good As research into entrepreneurship has evolved so has the business environment and the society in which entrepreneurs work Now more than ever entrepreneurs are found to reflect on personal commitment ethical issues and more recently the influence they could have on society In short they have embraced the concept of the good entrepreneur Over time many different strands of good entrepreneurship have emerged from social green and sustainable entrepreneurship to ecopreneurship and so forth Indeed some strands of research have merged while others have registered a lack of field research and analysis In this book the author argues that this excessive fragmentation has created the need for a reflection on the role of niches in entrepreneurship Providing analysis from multiple perspectives the author provides an overview of the relationship between entrepreneurship and doing good as well as an exploration of the drivers that promote research in this field and an outline of research dynamics Contributing to the current debate around the field of entrepreneurship and its ability to drive responsible and sustainable business practices this book presents a comprehensive guide for students graduate master and PhD academics and institutions and offers the reader an enhanced understanding of the evolution and research challenges within good entrepreneurship

Muslim Belonging in Secular India

Taylor C. Sherman, 2015-08-25 Muslim Belonging in Secular India surveys the experience of some of India's most prominent Muslim communities in the early postcolonial period Muslims who remained in India after the Partition of 1947 faced distrust and discrimination and were consequently compelled to seek new ways of defining their relationship with fellow citizens of India and its governments Using the forcible integration of the princely state of Hyderabad in 1948 as a case study Taylor C Sherman reveals the fragile and contested nature of Muslim belonging in the decade that followed independence In this context she demonstrates how Muslim claims to citizenship in Hyderabad contributed to intense debates over the nature of democracy and secularism in independent India Drawing on detailed new archival research Dr Sherman provides a thorough and compelling examination of the early governmental policies and popular strategies that have helped to shape the history of Muslims in India since 1947

African Entrepreneurship Alusine Jalloh, 1999 Between 1961 and 1978 Muslim Fula immigrants from different West African countries became one of the most successful mercantile groups in Freetown the capital city of Sierra Leone African Entrepreneurship published by Ohio University Press on December 31 1999 examines the commercial activities of Fula immigrants and their offspring in Sierra Leone Author Alusine Jalloh explores the role of Islam in Fula commercial organizations and social relationships as well as the connection between Fula merchants and politics Departing from the prevailing scholarship Jalloh characterizes the Fula businesses as independent rather than appendages of Western expatriate commerce In addition to establishing successful businesses Fula merchants established Islamic educational institutions for propagating the Muslim faith and promoting Islamic scholarship This study also examines the evolution of Fula chieftaincy from the colonial era to the postcolonial period and documents the importance of mercantile wealth and networks in the election of Fula chiefs in Freetown African Entrepreneurship makes an important contribution to the understudied role of African business in Sierra Leone
