Lauxtermann,Ida Toth,2020-02-05 In spite of the striking abundance of extant primary material Byzantine epigraphy remains uncharted territory The volume of the Proceedings of the 49th SPBS Spring Symposium aims to promote the field of Byzantine epigraphy as a whole and topics and subjects covered include Byzantine attitudes towards the inscribed word the questions of continuity and transformation the context and function of epigraphic evidence the levels of formality and authority the material aspect of writing and the verbal visual and symbolic meaning of inscribed texts The collection is intended as a valuable scholarly resource presenting and examining a substantial quantity of diverse epigraphic material and outlining the chronological development of epigraphic habits and of individual epigraphic genres in Byzantium The contributors also discuss the methodological questions of collecting presenting and interpreting the most representative Byzantine inscriptional material and addressing epigraphic material to make it relevant to a wider scholarly community

The Akathistos Hymnos and Intermedial Compositional Processes in Later Byzantium Jon C. Cubas Díaz,2025-03-28 This book explores intermedial compositional processes in later Byzantium building on the Akathistos Hymnos The relationship between the hymn's text music and illustrations has yet to be explored in detail The contributions here argue that these painted cycles should be studied as a result of interaction between hymnography psalmody and visual art not just as mere illustration of text Highlighting illuminated and notated manuscript copies of the hymn as evidence for varied liturgical and devotional practices they examine how icons and murals based on the Akathistos functioned as constituent elements of sacred space Focusing on intermediality this book helps bridge methodological gaps between scholarly approaches to medieval culture Later Byzantine Painting Robert S. Nelson,2024-10-28 Written over nearly three decades the fifteen essays involve the three aspects of the title art agency and appreciation The first refers to the general subject matter of the book Byzantine art chiefly painting of the twelfth through the fourteenth centuries the second to its often human like agency and the last to its historical reception Responding to different issues and perspectives that have animated art history and Byzantine studies in recent decades the essays have wide theoretical range from art historical formalism iconography archaeology and its manuscript equivalent codicology to statistics patronage narratology and the histories of science and collecting The series begins with art works themselves and with the imagery and iconography of church decoration and manuscript illumination shifts to the ways that objects act in the world and affect their beholders and concludes with more general appreciations of Byzantine art in case studies from the thirteenth century to the present

Schwartz, 2021 A comprehensive overview of Byzantine art history Examines the development of religious architecture cultural dissemination adornment survival of historical subjects and styles in succeeding centuries Features more than 150 illustrations Book jacket

Visual Arts in the Worshipping Church DeBoer, 2016 Although numerous studies have examined biblical and theological rationales for using the visual arts in worship this book by Lisa J DeBoer fills in a piece of the picture missing so far the social dimensions of both our churches and the various art worlds represented in our congregations The first part of the book looks at Orthodoxy Catholicism and Protestantism in turn including case studies of specific congregations showing how each tradition's use of the visual arts reveals an underlying ecclesiology DeBoer then focuses on six themes that emerge when Orthodox Catholic and Protestant uses of the visual arts are examined together the arts as expressions of the church's local and universal character the meanings attributed to particular styles of art for the church the role of the arts in enculturating the gospel and more DeBoer's Visual Arts in the Worshipping Church will focus and deepen the thinking of pastors worship leaders artists students and laypeople regarding what the arts might do in the midst of their congregations
