McGuinness, 2015-07-01 The Sisters of Our Lady of Christian Doctrine community was founded in 1910 by Marion Gurney who adopted the religious name Mother Marianne of Jesus A graduate of Wellesley College and a convert to Catholicism Gurney had served as head resident at St Rose's Settlement the first Catholic settlement house in New York City She founded the Sisters of Christian Doctrine when other communities of women religious appeared uninterested in a ministry of settlement work combined with religious education programs for children attending public schools The community established two settlement houses in New York City Madonna House on the Lower East Side in 1910 followed by Ave Maria House in the Bronx in 1930 Alongside their classes in religious education and preparing children and adults to receive the sacraments the Sisters distributed food and clothing operated a bread line and helped their neighbors in emergencies In 1940 Mother Marianne and the Sisters began their first major mission outside New York when they adapted the model of the urban Catholic social settlement to rural South Carolina. They also served at a number of parishes including several in South Carolina and Florida where they ministered to both black and white Catholics. In Neighbors and Missionaries, Margaret M. McGuinness, who was given full access to the archives of the Sisters of Christian Doctrine, traces in fascinating detail the history of the congregation from the inspiring story of its founder and the community's mission to provide material and spiritual support to their Catholic neighbors to the changes and challenges of the latter half of the twentieth century. By 1960, settlement houses had been replaced by other forms of social welfare, and the lives and work of American women religious were undergoing a dramatic change. McGuinness explores how the Sisters of Christian Doctrine were affected and how they adapted their own lives and work to reflect the transformations taking place in the Church and society. Neighbors and Missionaries examines a distinctive community of women religious whose primary focus was neither teaching nor nursing hospital administration. The choice of the Sisters of Christian Doctrine to live among the poor and to serve where other communities were either unwilling or unable demonstrates that women religious in the United States served in many different capacities as they contributed to the life and work of the American Catholic Church. Catholic World, 1875. The Collected Writings of Franz Liszt, Janita R. Hall-Swadley, 2012-04-20.

During his early years, Franz Liszt worked as a traveling piano virtuoso; his adventures highlighted by his entrance into the literary world as a correspondent for the most popular French journals of his time. In this second volume of Janita Hall-Swadley's The Collected Writings of Franz Liszt, Liszt's work as a music essayist and journalist is on full display. In his essays, readers will see the influence of the revolutionary theories of Hugues Felicit Robert de Lamennais, Victor Hugo, and François René de Chateaubriand, as Liszt boldly calls for social reforms on behalf of musicians and musical institutions from demands for a repertoire of church music of divine praise to the timely publication of inexpensive music editions. In addition to Liszt's scandalous review of Sigismond Thalberg and the fiery exchange that ensued, the essays include his testimonies to living composers Giacomo Meyerbeer and Robert Schumann and the recently deceased Niccolò Paganini. Alongside the essay, this new translation of Liszt's letters opens a window onto the composer's immersion in the Italian countryside where he paints a portrait of a rich musical landscape. Liszt regales his correspondents with amusing anecdotes at Sand's Italian country estate in Nohant, describes the beautiful landscape and artistic treasures of Italy from his residence on Lake Como, defends himself from Heinrich Heine's accusations of his ill-seated character, discusses the religious aesthetic of Raphael's painting, and offers his thoughts on the interconnectedness of all the arts. Including two complete facsimile reproductions of the existing manuscripts for De la situation des artistes and Sur Paganini propos de sa mort, Essays and Letters of a Traveling Bachelor of Music is a must-read for student and scholars of 19th-century classical music. *Proceedings of the 11th International Conference of Ar.Tec.
