The Great Alaska Zingwater Caper English Edition:

The Great Alaska Zingwater Caper Neil Davis, 2004-12      Caught in the Sluice Neil Davis, 1994-12-01 Caught in the Sluice is a lively collection of some of the fictional but accurate adventures heartbreaking to hilarious that have befallen the men and women who have worked the gold bearing gravels of Alaska's Interior region Moose John strides daydreaming through the first pages in this collection of mining tales followed by Wilfred Winchester Wilkensfield III who discovers an unexpected prehistoric hazard while mining for gold in permafrost The Olgilvie Gold Fibulator creates bonanzas for miners and Shakespearean actors alike Double Dose Dobson demonstrates that he can teach his sons a thing or two even from the grave and an implacable little lady has a showdown with a gigantic dredge Davis a miner and geophysicist takes his lifetime of experience in mining and the North and spins a few lively yarns around the workings of the sluicebox and the human heart

Battling Against Success Neil Davis, 1997-09-01 Alaska at midcentury offered great opportunities to the restless and ambitious people who had survived the Great Depression and World War II Some of those who came North succeeded some came and left some came and managed to beat down every opportunity that raised its ugly head That's pretty much the story of the narrator of this autobiographical novel and his family who wrestled with the trees the mud the machinery the bugs and most of all themselves while trying to make a living on the northern frontier Some of the characters whose lives touched on this story are the real people who acted to join Alaska to the Union and to the 20th century or fought bravely against both Davis draws the reader into the often funny sometimes sad and always rich experiences that bring his young protagonist from childhood into adulthood
