

Persuade Me About The Giver Essay

Directions: You will write a persuasive essay using the following directions:

1. Select one (1) of the following subjects to respond to.
 - a. Is the Community in The Giver a utopian society?
 - b. Which is a better place to live, the Community in The Giver or Samoa?
 - c. Is Utopia possible? (Please include evidence from outside the novel also.)
 - d. Did Jonas and Gabriel live or die at the end of the novel?
 - e. Genetic engineering is the scientific alteration of the DNA molecules of living organisms. It is normally used to increase yields in both animal and crop production. Many ethical questions abound about this barely explored area of science. Should humans use genetic engineering?
 - f. Some say that the Earth is already overpopulated and its resources taxed. This is one reason to argue for population control. A con for population control would be that people are an important resource to keep building up.

 - b. Reasons (that formed this opinion)
 - c. Evidence (from the text and other sources that support your reasons)
 - d. Refute the Opposition (anticipate at least one objection and prove it wrong)
 3. Support your opinion with evidence from The Giver.
 - a. Introduce the book as your main resource—include title and author.
 - b. Find passages from the text that support your reasons.
 - c. Insert the passage into your essay directly before or after your reason. Explain how the passage supports your reason.
 - d. Include page number for all passages included in your essay -- in parentheses after the insertion.
- Here's an example:
- Although Jonas doesn't like to think about his light eyes, Lily points out how that he is different. "And he has funny eyes like yours, Jonas" (p. 20).
4. Your writing should reflect your best effort.
 - a. Keep your writing clear and concise, quality is more important than quantity.
 - b. Use examples from the text to support your reasons. Also, EXPLAIN how your examples support your reasons.
 - c. Include an attention-grabbing opening, making the reader WANT to read your essay.
