Empires Krishan Kumar,2020-10-22 Empires have been the commonest form of political organization for most of recorded history How should we best understand them What are their principles and how do they differ from other political forms such as the nation state What sort of relations between rulers and ruled do they express Do they as many have held follow a particular course of rise decline and fall How and why do empires end and with what consequences Is the era of empire over This book explores these questions through a fascinating analysis of the major empires of world history and the present It pays attention not just to the modern overseas empires of the Europeans but also to the ancient empires of the Middle East and Mediterranean the Islamic empires of the Arabs Mughals and Ottomans and the two thousand year Chinese Empire As Kumar shows understanding empires helps us understand better the politics of our own times Understanding the Global Experience Thomas Arcaro,Rosemary Haskell,Chinedu Eke,Robert Anderson,Stephen Braye,Ann Cahill,Brian Digre,Anne Bolin,Mathew Gendle,Duane McClearn,Jeffrey Pugh,Laura Roselle,Jean Schwind,Kerstin Sorensen,Anthony Weston,2016-03-22 First Published in 2016 In this anthology of essays for Global Studies students the editors hope to encourage readers to live intelligent and thoughtful lives not only as citizens of their native countries but also as citizens of the world The 10 Best of Everything Nathaniel Lande,Andrew Lande,2012 The ultimate travel guide offers an updated series of top ten lists covering top sporting events locations hotels restaurants and Sunday afternoon excursions and more than thirty extraordinary trips and expeditions on every continent History Textbooks and the Wars in Asia Gi-Wook Shin,Daniel C. Sneider,2011-02-08 Over the past fifteen years Northeast Asia has witnessed growing intraregional exchanges and interactions especially in the realms of culture and economy Still the region cannot escape from the burden of history This book examines the formation of historical memory in four Northeast Asian societies China Japan South Korea and Taiwan and the United States focusing on the period from the beginning of the Sino Japanese war in 1931 until the formal conclusion of the Pacific War with the San Francisco Peace Treaty of 1951 The contributors analyse the recent efforts of Korean Japanese and Chinese scholars to write a common history of Northeast Asia and question the underlying motivations for their efforts and subsequent achievements In doing so they contend that the greatest obstacle to reconciliation in Northeast Asia lies in the existence of divided and often conflicting historical memories The book argues that a more fruitful approach lies in understanding how historical memory has evolved in each country and been incorporated into respective master narratives Through uncovering the existence of different master narratives it is hoped citizens will develop a more self critical self reflective approach to their own history and that such an introspective effort has the potential to lay the foundation for greater self and mutual understanding and eventual historical reconciliation in the region This book will be essential reading for students and scholars of Asian history Asian education and international relations in East Asia The Global Experience: Readings in world history to 1550 Philip F.
