The Great War And The Origins Of Humanitarianism 1918 1924:

The Great War and the Origins of Humanitarianism, 1918-1924 Bruno Cabanes, 2014-03-13 Pioneering study of the transition from war to peace and the birth of humanitarian rights after the Great War

Humanitarianism and the Greater War, 1914-24 Elisabeth Piller, Neville Wylie, 2023-10-17 This book provides fresh perspectives on a key period in the history of humanitarianism Drawing on economic cultural social and diplomatic perspectives it explores the scale and meaning of humanitarianism in the era of the Great War Foregrounding the local and global dimensions of the humanitarian responses it interrogates the entanglement of humanitarian and political interests and uncovers the motivations and agency of aid donors relief workers and recipients The chapters probe the limits of humanitarian engagement in a period of unprecedented violence and suffering and evaluate its long term impact on humanitarian action

The Routledge History of the First World War Paul R. Bartrop, 2024-08-27 The Routledge History of the First World War is a work which in a single volume covers a range of major themes and issues relating to that conflict Providing a comprehensive but readily accessible reference work examining the First World War in accordance with a broad range of themes this book presents the many ways in which study of the First World War can take place and introduces readers to new areas of research often untouched in other studies of the war With a scholarly Introduction and 60 chapters by specialist authors who come from 14 different countries across four continents the book is also intended to open lines of further inquiry from its solid base of academic knowledge The volume demonstrates the war's global and total nature examining the conflict in all major theatres and through the lens of the key combatants and neutrals It also fully engages with issues of race gender ideology and society during the war This book will appeal to students of all levels scholars and general readers alike interested in the First World War from several different perspectives and research areas The 60 chapters cover topics from numerous angles and provide detailed information about all aspects relating to the First World War

Religious Humanitarianism during the World Wars, 1914-1945 Patrick J. Houlihan, 2024-06-30 The history of modern war has focused on destruction however practices of saving lives and rebuilding societies have received far less scrutiny The world wars reconfigured geopolitics on a sacred secular spectrum dominated by the USA and the USSR In these events the motivations of humanitarian actors are disputed as either secular or religious evoking approval or censure Although modern global humanitarianism emerged during the world wars it is often studied in a Euro centric framework that does not engage the conflicts globality The effects of humanitarianism during the Second World War look toward the post 1945 era with not enough reflection on the pre 1945 history of humanitarianism Thus what is needed is a critical history beyond moralizing bringing synchronic and diachronic expansion to study questions of continuity and change A global history of religious humanitarianism during both world wars places faith based humanitarianism on a spectrum of belief and unbelief

Humanitarianism, empire and transnationalism, 1760-1995 Joy Damousi, Trevor Burnard, Alan Lester, 2022-03-08 This is the first book to examine the shifting relationship between humanitarianism and the expansion consolidation and postcolonial transformation of the Anglophone world across three centuries from the antislavery campaign of the late eighteenth century to the role of NGOs balancing humanitarianism and human rights in the late twentieth century Contributors explore the trade offs between humane concern and the altered context of colonial and postcolonial realpolitik They also showcase an array of methodologies and sources with which to explore the relationship between humanitarianism and colonialism These range from the biography of material objects to interviews as well as more conventional archival enquiry They also include work with and for Indigenous people whose family histories have been defined in large part by humanitarian interventions

Humanitarian Disarmament Treasa Dunworth, 2020-08-06 Humanitarian disarmament is not new but instead represents a re emergence of a long standing sensibility in disarmament discourse The Vanquished Robert Gerwarth, 2016-11-15 An epic groundbreaking account of the ethnic and state violence that followed the end of World War I and shaped the course of the twentieth century Winner of the Tomlinson Book Prize A Times Literary Supplement Best Book of 2016 In The Vanquished a highly original and gripping work of history Robert Gerwarth asks us to think again about the true legacy of the First World War In large part it was not the fighting on the Western Front that proved so ruinous to Europe's future but the devastating aftermath as countries on both sides of the original conflict were savaged by revolutions pogroms mass expulsions and further major military clashes In the years immediately after the armistice millions would die across central eastern and southeastern Europe before the Soviet Union and a series of rickety and exhausted small new states would come into being It was here in the ruins of Europe that extreme ideologies such as fascism would take shape and ultimately emerge triumphant As absorbing in its drama as it is unsettling in its analysis The Vanquished is destined to transform our understanding of not just the First World War but the twentieth century as a whole Britain and the Intellectual Origins of the League of Nations, 1914-1919 Sakiko Kaiga, 2021-04-22 An innovative study of the pre history of the League of Nations tracing the pro League movement's unexpected development The Emergence of Humanitarian Intervention Fabian Klose, 2016 A study of the emergence and development of humanitarian intervention from the nineteenth century through to the present day Drawing from a multitude of disciplines it investigates the complex and controversial debates over the legitimacy of protecting humanitarian norms and universal human rights by violent as well as non violent means Sharing Responsibility Luke Glanville, 2021-05-18 A look at the duty of nations to protect human rights beyond borders why it has failed in practice and what can be done about it The idea that states share a responsibility to shield people everywhere from atrocities is presently under threat Despite some early twenty first century successes including the 2005 United Nations endorsement of the Responsibility to Protect the project has been placed into jeopardy due to catastrophes in such places as Syria Myanmar and Yemen resurgent nationalism and growing global antagonism In Sharing Responsibility Luke Glanville seeks to diagnose the current crisis in international protection by exploring its long and troubled history With attention to ethics law and politics he measures what possibilities remain for protecting people wherever they reside from atrocities despite formidable challenges in the international arena With a focus on Western natural law and the European society of states Glanville shows that the history of the shared responsibility to protect is marked by courageous efforts as well as troubling ties to Western imperialism evasion and abuse The project of safeguarding vulnerable populations can undoubtedly devolve into blame shifting and hypocrisy but can also spark effective burden sharing among nations Glanville considers how states should support this responsibility whether it can be coherently codified in law the extent to which states have embraced their responsibilities and what might lead them to do so more reliably in the future Sharing Responsibility wrestles with how countries should care for imperiled people and how the ideal of the responsibility to protect might inspire just behavior in an imperfect and troubled world

Relief on the Hoof Eva Plach, 2025-11-15 Relief on the Hoof is about the thousands of horses and cattle that the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration UNRRA shipped as humanitarian aid in the immediate aftermath of WWII and about the seagoing cowboys who cared for the animals during their trans Atlantic journeys UNRRA contracted the Church of the Brethren to recruit almost 7 000 men to do this work and in exchange provided free passage on its ships to the cattle that were part of the Brethren s own humanitarian initiative the Heifer Project The Heifer Project emerged from a conviction that cows and their milk offered the best value as relief commodities As Eva Plach shows both UNRRA s animal aid program and the Heifer Project were responding to a crisis in postwar Europe Millions of livestock were lost during the war and contemporary experts warned that postwar recovery food security and the prevention of social and political unrest would be compromised without replenishing the lost herds Poland received more Heifer Project cattle than any other country and was the major recipient of UNRRA cattle and horses as well Relief on the Hoof shows that Poland s special status based on assessments of wartime destruction and postwar need reflected its unique geopolitical importance as Cold War tensions mounted

Voluntary Organisations, the Red Cross, and the Features of Humanitarian Reconstruction in Western Europe after the World Wars Romain Fathi, Melanie Oppenheimer, Paul-André Rosental, 2025-06-11 This book explores the ways in which non government organisations have contributed to the reconstruction of and care for populations in Western European countries including but not limited to Belgium France Germany Italy and the United Kingdom in the aftermath of the World Wars Historical research on voluntary or non government organisations and their contribution to the reconstruction of states communities and humanitarian assistance to civilian populations following conflicts epidemics and disasters through the twentieth century has generally focused on non Western European countries except for Second World War II The historiography suggests that it is mostly in Eastern Europe the Middle East Asia and Africa that natural or man made disasters have occurred and that these places have been the focus for humanitarian assistance Rather the humanitarian enterprise is viewed through the binary of the Global North Global South those who save and those who are saved The chapters in this volume investigate how the Red Cross movement the League of Red Cross Societies the International Committee of Red Cross and individual national societies and other voluntary organisations such as the Rockefeller Foundation and a range of other international and local non government bodies have contributed to reconstruction in these countries at both national and local levels following times of crises such as wars civilian upheavals and disasters This book will appeal to scholars and students of history humanitarian studies international relations and social sciences The chapters in this book were originally published as special issues in European Review of History Revue europeenne d'histoire Humanitarianism in the Modern World Norbert Götz, Georgina Brewis, Steffen Werther, 2020-07-23 This is an innovative new history of famine relief and humanitarianism The authors apply a moral economy approach to shed new light on the forces and ideas that motivated and shaped humanitarian aid during the Great Irish Famine the famine of 1921 1922 in Soviet Russia and the Ukraine and the 1980s Ethiopian famine They place these episodes within a distinctive periodisation of humanitarianism which emphasises the correlations with politico economic regimes the time of elitist laissez faire liberalism in the nineteenth century as one of ad hoc humanitarianism that of Taylorism and mass society from c 1900 1970 as one of organised humanitarianism and the blend of individualised post material lifestyles and neoliberal public management since 1970 as one of expressive humanitarianism The book as a whole shifts the focus of the history of humanitarianism from the imperatives of crisis management to the pragmatic mechanisms of fundraising relief efforts on the ground and finance This book is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

Gendering Global Humanitarianism in the Twentieth Century Esther Möller, Johannes Paulmann, Katharina Stornig, 2020-08-24 This volume is interesting both because of its global focus and its chronology up to the present it covers a good century of changes It will help define the field of gender studies of humanitarianism and its relevance for understanding the history of nation building and a political history that goes beyond nations Glenda Sluga Professor of International History and ARC Kathleen Laureate Fellow at the University of Sydney Australia This volume discusses the relationship between gender and humanitarian discourses and practices in the twentieth century It analyses the ways in which constructions norms and ideologies of gender both shaped and were shaped in global humanitarian contexts The individual chapters present issues such as post genocide relief and rehabilitation humanitarian careers and subjectivities medical assistance community aid child welfare and child soldiering They give prominence to the beneficiaries of aid and their use of humanitarian resources organizations and structures by investigating the effects of humanitarian activities on gender relations in the respective societies Approaching humanitarianism as a global phenomenon the volume considers actors and theoretical positions from the global North and South from Europe to the Middle East Sub Saharan Africa South and South East Asia as well as North America It combines state and non state humanitarian initiatives and scrutinizes their gendered dimension on local regional national and global scales Focusing on the time between the late nineteenth century and the post Cold War era the volume concentrates on a period that not only witnessed a major expansion of humanitarian action worldwide but also saw fundamental changes in gender relations and the gradual emergence of gender sensitive policies in humanitarian organizations in many Western and non Western settings

Struggle and Mutual Aid Nicolas Delalande, 2023-01-31 A dynamic historian revisits the workers internationals whose scope and significance are commonly overlooked In current debates about globalization open and borderless elites are often set in opposition to the immobile and protectionist working classes This view obscures a major historical fact for around a century from the 1860s to the 1970s worker movements were at the cutting edge of internationalism The creation in London of the International Workingmen s Association in 1864 was a turning point What would later be called the First International aspired to bring together European and American workers across languages nationalities and trades It was a major undertaking in a context marked by opening borders moving capital and exploding inequalities In this urgent engaging work historian Nicolas Delalande explores how international worker solidarity developed what it accomplished in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and why it collapsed over the past fifty years to the point of disappearing from our memories

The International Legal Protection of Persons in Humanitarian Crises Dug Cubie, 2017-04-20 The instinctual desire to support those in need irrespective of geographic cultural or religious links is both facilitated and overwhelmed by the extent of information now available about the multiple humanitarian crises which occur on a daily basis around the world Behind the images of devastating floods and earthquakes or massive forced displacements resulting from armed conflicts is the all too real suffering faced by individuals and families From the 2004 Indian Ocean Tsunami to the on going conflict in Syria recent years have seen an increasing debate regarding the international legal mechanisms to protect persons in such humanitarian crises The International Legal Protection of Persons in Humanitarian Crises argues that an acquis humanitaire is identifiable through the interconnected web of existing and emerging international regional and national laws policies and practices for the protection of persons caught up in humanitarian crises Indeed the humanitarian imperative to alleviate suffering wherever it may be found permeates various branches of international law and is reflected in the extensive humanitarian activities undertaken by States and other actors in times of armed conflict population displacement and disaster Dug Cubie argues that by clarifying the conceptual framework and normative content of the acquis humanitaire gaps and lacunae can be identified and the overall protection of persons strengthened

International Communism and Transnational Solidarity: Radical Networks, Mass Movements and Global Politics, 1919-1939 , 2016-11-21 This book provides an analysis of the articulation and organisation of radical international solidarity by organisations that were either connected to or had been established by the Communist International Comintern such as the International Red Aid the International Workers Relief the League Against Imperialism the International of Seamen and Harbour Workers and the International Trade Union Committee of Negro Workers The guiding light of these organisations was a radical interpretation of international solidarity usually in combination with concepts and visions of gender race and class as well as anti capitalism anti imperialism anti colonialism and anti fascism All of these new transnational networks form a controversial part of the contemporary history of international organisations Like the Comintern these international organisations had an ambiguous character that does not fit nicely into the traditional typologies of international organisations as they were neither international governmental organisations nor international non governmental organisations They constituted a radical continuation of the pre First World War Left and exemplified an attempt to implement the ideas and movements of a new type of radical international solidarity not only in Europe but on a global scale Contributors are Gleb J Albert Bernhard H Bayerlein Kasper Brask n Fredrik Petersson Holger Weiss The NGO Moment Kevin O'Sullivan,2021-10-14 This book is a study of compassion as a global project from Biafra to Live Aid Kevin O Sullivan explains how and why NGOs became the primary conduits of popular concern for the global poor between the late 1960s and the mid 1980s and shows how this shaped the West s relationship with the post colonial world Drawing on case studies from Britain Canada and Ireland as well as archival material from governments and international organisations he sheds new light on how the legacies of empire were re packaged and re purposed for the post colonial era and how a liberal definition of benevolence rooted in charity justice development and rights became the dominant expression of solidarity with the Third World In doing so the book provides a unique insight into the social cultural and ideological foundations of global civil society It reveals why this period provided such fertile ground for the emergence of NGOs and offers a fresh interpretation of how individuals in the West encountered the outside world

History of Intellectual Culture 3/2024 Charlotte A. Lerg,Johan Östling,Jana Weiß,Anne Kwaschik,Claudia Roesch,2024-10-21 The third issue of the yearbook History of Intellectual Culture HIC devotes a thematic section to experimental spaces for knowledge production The articles in this section investigate the role of experimental environments as sites for knowledge production during the long nineteenth century thereby extending the scope beyond the confines of traditional academic institutions such as academies laboratories and universities By focusing on intentional communities colonial gardens agricultural colonies and artistic colonies as experimental spaces the authors investigate the intertwined social natural and aesthetic aspects of environments An overarching aim is to develop a distinct perspective rooted in the history of knowledge wherein experiments are conceptualized both as a category employed by the historical actors and as a methodological concept In addition the third issue comprises several individual papers covering a wide range of topics stretching from the U S patent system in the 1930s and anti intellectualism in interwar Britain to the cultural translation of knowledge in the wake of the Holocaust and the circulation of economic knowledge in postwar Sweden The issue also contains several theoretical historiographical and methodological interventions and reflections including a conversation on decolonizing knowledge in academia and beyond The Red Cross Movement Neville Wylie,Melanie Oppenheimer,James Crossland,2020-03-26 This book offers new and exciting scholarship on the history of the Red Cross Movement by leading historians in the field It re imagines and re evaluates the Red Cross as an institutional network and a key actor in the humanitarian space through two centuries of war and peace
