Bazan, 1990 Modernity and Epistemology in Nineteenth-Century Spain Ryan A. Davis, Alicia Cerezo Paredes, 2016-12-14

The fraught tension between science and religion has loomed large in scholarship about the nineteenth century in Spain especially given the prominence of the Catholic Church and the discoveries made by Wallace and Darwin The struggle for epistemological superiority between these two discourses science and religion has served to overshadow certain corners of the cultural landscape that though prominent sites of intellectual exploration in their day have received comparatively less scholarly attention until recently Fringe Discourses brings together a group of essays that seeks to restore a sense of the epistemological richness of nineteenth century Spain By exploring the relationship between epistemology modernity and subjectivity these essays recover significant efforts by Spanish authors and intellectuals to explain human nature and their world which seemed to be changing so radically before their eyes In doing so the essays also reveal just how elastic the relationship was between science and pseudoscience genius and quackery Offering a veritable Wunderkammer the authors collected here train their sights both on curious fields of study from pogonolgy the science of beards to Spiritualism and curiouser people from a government spy on undercover assignment in Morocco dressed as a Moorish prince to a hypnotic huckster who dupes the queen regent With other authors focusing on science fiction dystopias mystical journeys and

Refashioning "knights and Ladies Gentle Deeds" Paul R. Rovang, 1996 While not neglecting the question of direct borrowings author Paul Rovang applies a theory of intertextuality to probe how the poet responded to the chivalric romance themes conventions materials and structures which he encountered in the Morte Darthur Both works are treated not as monoliths but as links in a network of texts and other cultural phenomena relating to chivalry In this way a fuller sense is given not only of how vitally connected the two works are but of how Spenser refashioned the transmitted ideals and symbols of Arthurian knighthood for his own age

Mother Nature Emilia Pardo Bazan, 2010 Mother Nature is certainly Emilia Pardo Bazan's greatest contribution to the Realistic Naturalistic Spanish novel of her time and represents her literary powers at the very height of her career as a writer It has been said that this novel presents the keenest challenges and the most compelling rewards offering the reader the purposefully overgrown ecological social and moral background for a poignant central narrative of human frailty that pits the desire for personal happiness against the necessity of meeting moral standards

Handbook of Diachronic Narratology Peter Hühn, John Pier, Wolf Schmid, 2023-07-24 This handbook brings together 42 contributions by leading narratologists devoted to the study of narrative devices in European literatures from antiquity to the present Each entry examines the use of a specific narrative device in one or two national literatures across the ages whether in successive or distant periods of time Through the analysis of representative texts in a range of European languages the authors compellingly trace the continuities and evolution of storytelling devices as well as their culture specific manifestations In response to Monika Fludernik's 2003 call for a diachronization of narratology this new handbook complements existing synchronic approaches that tend to be ahistorical in their outlook and departs from postclassical narratologies that often prioritize thematic and ideological concerns A new direction in narrative theory diachronic narratology explores previously overlooked questions from the evolution of free indirect speech from the Middle Ages to the present to how changes in narrative sequence encoded the shift from a sacred to a secular worldview in early modern Romance literatures An invaluable new resource for literary theorists historians comparatists discourse analysts and linguists
