

The Incredible Growing Zoey
by rustyrusty

Nate was driving his pickup down the old farm road outside of town. It was dark, and he kept glancing over his shoulder to make sure his headlights were the only lights around. Clapton was a small, rural town – more of a collection of farms and small businesses than a town, even – and the local police force were infamous for being bored out of their mind.

Nate glanced at the glove compartment, where a glass bong and zip-locked ounce of weed were waiting for him and his friends. A single light on the horizon, and Nate knew he would have to kill his headlights, hide in the pitch dark, and race back home. Bored cops made for bad drug busts.

Suddenly his cellphone jingled and he hit the speaker button.

"Hello?"

"Nate? It's me." Erin Carnino's chipper voice was unmistakable. "Hey, are you sure we won't get in trouble?"

Nate wasn't sure. "Totally. The nearest building's like five miles away. You're on your way, right?"

"Yeah." Erin sounded nervous, which didn't surprise Nate in the least. Erin was timid, frantic, and usually paranoid. For a moment, Nate wondered if smoking would only exacerbate her issues, but he had been looking forward to getting high with Erin for weeks now, and so he shrugged off the concern.

"Listen," Erin continued, "is it alright if my sister comes too?"

"Your sister?" Nate hadn't been aware of any sisters. Erin was one who would never stop talking about her life when she was nervous. Nate knew that Erin was a florist, and was allergic to peppermint, and was horrified of snakes, jellyfish, and volcanoes of all things, but he had never heard a word about any siblings.

"Yeah," said Erin. "She's been under a lot of stress. I think she could really use this, just to – you know – relax?" There was a pause. "Weed makes you relax, right? I haven't smoked since middle school, and that was on accident. I just remember getting really hungry and giggly."

"Yeah, yeah it does." Nate groaned. "You said you were on your way. She's in the car with you already, isn't she?"

"Well, yeah." Another pause. "She's twenty, if you're worried about her being underage or something. If it's not okay, I can take her home."

"No, no," said Nate, realizing his plans were hindered already. "It's totally fine. I'd love to meet her."

"Alright," Erin said, sounding like her usual, bubbly self again. "We'll be there in ten."

"Alright. Just look for the headlights."

As Nate waited for Erin and her sister to arrive, he packed the Indica and filled the bong with water. A bit later, and his thoughts were already swimming. After flirting with Erin for three months, Nate still wasn't sure if he was being friend-zoned, or if Erin was just oblivious. Finally having convinced her to try smoking again, Nate knew he could pick her brain a bit once she was high and relaxed, just to finally figure out if she was interested in him at all. The presence of her younger sister, might make things a little more difficult, he decided, but he could still pull it off with some playful flirting.

After a few more minutes, Erin's headlights came through the dark horizon, rolled past the corn fields that went forever, and finally pulled against the truck.

"Howdy!" Erin beamed from the driver seat of her hatchback. "Sorry, I know I should've asked about Zoey coming before I actually picked her up."

"Seriously, it's fine," Nate said more or less honestly. He let the high in his system amplify his
