Beyond the Snow Leopard Bill Crozier, 2024-09-03 The sighting of snow leopard tracks in the depths of a Ladakhi winter set off a ten year journey through a land of mountains, Buddhism, wild creatures and adventurers. You should come with me to Dolpo next year, said Ade. No further encouragement was required. Dolpo was the land of the snow leopard immortalised by the American author Peter Matthiessen. Without hesitation I said I was going. I wanted to follow in the footsteps of Matthiessen and I dared to hope that I might see a snow leopard. Australian based British born doctor Bill Crozier sets out to seek the snow leopard in the Himalayas, Ladakh, Nepal and Tibet and finds adventure, friendship, wonder and enlightenment. His guides are the twentieth century writers of the Himalayas: Peter Matthiessen, The Snow Leopard, George B. Schaller, Stones of Silence, David Snellgrove, Himalayan Pilgrimage, Eric Shipton, That Untravelled World and the profound writings of Buddhist monks over the centuries. Beyond the Snow Leopard delves in particular into the ancient land of Dolpo and journeys to the birthplace of the Buddha at Lumbini. Crozier captures the real side of travelling through this contested and harsh region with friends and family and relates the joys of a lifetime loving the outdoors and mountains.

Tibetan Diary Geoff Childs, 2004-09-27 In this rich and deeply personal account of life in the highlands of Nepal, Geoff Childs chronicles the daily existence of a range of people from venerated lamas to humble householders. Offering insights into the complex dynamics of the ethnically Tibetan enclave of Nubri, Childs provides a vivid and compelling portrait of the ebb and flow of life and death, of communal harmony and discord and of personal conflicts and social resolutions. Part ethnography, part travelogue and part biography, Tibetan Diary is a one of a kind book that conveys the tangled intricacies of a Tibetan society. Childs's immensely readable and informative narrative incorporates contemporary observations as well as vignettes culled from first person testaments including oral histories and autobiographies. Examining the tensions between cultural ideals and individual aspirations, he explores certain junctures in the course of life: how the desire to attain religious knowledge or to secure a caretaker in old age contrasts with social expectations and familial obligation, for example. The result is a vivid and unparalleled view of the quest for both spiritual meaning and mundane survival that typifies life in an unpredictable Himalayan environment.
