

TARDY POLICY

- Students who are tardy to school unexcused for the first 10 minutes of the school day should report directly to class.
- Students requiring an excused tardy admit and all students arriving after the first 10 minutes, must report to the Attendance Office to secure an admit.
- Once a student accumulates 10 tardies, a doctor's note or official documentation is required.
- Additionally, excessive tardies may result in loss of privileges and/or detentions/suspensions according to our progressive discipline plan.
- Student tardy records can be obtained using the online grade book through either the student or parent portal. Excused tardies include doctor's appointments with a note.

Guide to College Writing Assessment Peggy O'Neill, Cindy Moore, Brian Huot, 2009-04-15 While most English professionals feel comfortable with language and literacy theories assessment theories seem more alien English professionals often don't have a clear understanding of the key concepts in educational measurement such as validity and reliability nor do they understand the statistical formulas associated with psychometrics But understanding assessment theory and applying it by those who are not psychometricians is critical in developing useful ethical assessments in college writing programs and in interpreting and using assessment results A Guide to College Writing Assessment is designed as an introduction and source book for WPAs department chairs teachers and administrators Always cognizant of the critical components of particular teaching contexts O'Neill Moore and Huot have written sophisticated but accessible chapters on the history theory application and background of writing assessment and they offer a dozen appendices of practical samples and models for a range of common assessment needs Because there are numerous resources available to assist faculty in assessing the writing of individual students in particular classrooms A Guide to College Writing Assessment focuses on approaches to the kinds of assessment that typically happen outside of individual classrooms placement evaluation exit examination programmatic assessment and faculty evaluation Most of all the argument of this book is that creating the conditions for meaningful college writing assessment hinges not only on understanding the history and theories informing assessment practice but also on composition programs availing themselves of the full range of available assessment practices

Academics Engaging with Student Writing Jackie Tuck, 2017-07-14 Student writing has long been viewed as a problem in higher education in the UK Moreover the sector has consistently performed poorly in the National Student Survey with regard to assessment and feedback Academics Engaging with Student Writing tackles these major issues from a new and unique angle exploring the real life experiences of academic teachers from different institutions as they set support read respond to and assess assignments undertaken by undergraduate students Incorporating evidence from post 1992 universities Oxbridge members of the Russell Group and others this book examines working practices around student writing within the context of an increasingly market oriented mass higher education system Presenting a wealth of relevant examples from disciplines as diverse as History and Sports Science Tuck makes extensive use of interviews observations texts and audio recordings in order to explore the perspectives of academic teachers who work with student writers and their texts This book will be of interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of academic literacies higher education language and literacy language in higher education English for academic purposes and assessment Furthermore academic teachers with experience of this crucial aspect of academic labour will welcome Tuck's pioneering work as an indispensable tool for making sense of their own engagement with student writers
