French Cinema in the 1980s Phil Powrie, 1997 French film in the 1980s might have lacked the invention of the New Wave but gritty police thrillers and nostalgic costume dramas such as Jean de Florette and Manon des Sources brought French cinema to a wider audience than ever before This landmark study is not merely a history of French film in the 1980s but offers a set of critical essays on the crisis of masculinity in contemporary French culture and its interrelationship with nostalgia After a brief overview both of the crisis in the French film industry during the 1980s and of the socio political crisis of masculinity in the wake of 1970s feminism the book is divided into three sections the retro nostalgic film the Polar or police thriller and the comic film Films studied in detail include Diva Subway Coup de foudre Vivement dimanche La Vie est un long fleuve tranquille and Tenue de soir e while the volume covers actors from Gérard Depardieu Daniel Auteuil and Yves Montand to Isabelle Adjani Isabelle Huppert and Emmanuelle Béart

Music in Contemporary French Cinema Phil Powrie, 2017-06-29

This book explores composed scores and pre-existing music in French cinema from 1985 to 2015 so as to identify critical musical moments It shows how heritage films construct space through music generating what Powrie calls third space music while also working to contain the strong women characters found in French heritage films through the use of leitmotifs and musical cues He analyses fiction films in which the protagonists perform at the piano showing how musical performance supports the performance of gender Building on aspects of musical performance and in particular the use of songs performed in films Powrie uses a database of 300 films since 2010 to theorize the intervention of music at critical moments as a crystal song Applying Roland Barthes's concept of the punctum and Gilles Deleuze's concept of the crystal image Powrie establishes the importance of the crystal song which reconfigures time as a crystallization of past present and future

Past Forward Dayna Oscherwitz,2010-09-15 In Past Forward French Cinema and the Post Colonial Heritage author Dayna Oscherwitz focuses on the world of French films with a new lens Drawing upon a wealth of research and the examination of popular French movies Oscherwitz offers fresh perspectives not only on the unique importance of motion pictures and their indelible influence on French character but on current debates regarding individual and collective memory Past Forward traces the development and ascension of the French heritage film those historical and costume dramas focusing on prestigious French subjects events and settings These motion pictures preeminent during a period of globalization and fear over the affects of immigration in 1980s France quickly came to embody a specific version of French national and collective identity one that idealized the past condemned the present and created an institutional form of memory Oscherwitz presents the intriguing notion that French heritage films are not exclusively expressions of nationalism and nostalgia as has commonly been asserted On the contrary although these movies were born out of a perceived loss of French culture their ambivalence toward traditional hallmarks of nationalism opens them up to new interpretation Also in contrast to typical conceptions the author suggests that these heritage films are far from cinematic bastions of multicultural backlash instead she argues popular culture has in its own fashion reinserted the history of colonialism and immigration into the national past thus reimagining heritage itself Against this backdrop Oscherwitz goes on to investigate the multicultural worlds of beur and banlieue movies cinema seemingly in direct contrast with the heritage film offering the theory that these films serve as a countermemory to an institutionalized one and provide alternative models of collective memory and identity Through careful analysis of several examples Oscherwitz demonstrates how these two seemingly different realms heritage and multicultural cinema are far from mutually exclusive in the construction of French identity Throughout the volume numerous well known French movies are reexamined inviting new interpretations of and challenging old views through investigations of familiar cinematic works Past Forward is arevolutionary volume that boldly reimagines our ideas about French film and its role in communicating history and memory

Paratexts Gerard Genette, 1997-03-13 Paratexts are those liminal devices and conventions both within and outside the book that form part of the complex mediation between book author publisher and reader titles forewords epigraphs and publishers jacket copy are part of a book's private and public history In this first English translation of Paratexts Gerard Genette shows how the special pragmatic status of paratextual declaration requires a carefully calibrated analysis of their illocutionary force With clarity precision and an extraordinary range of reference Paratexts constitutes an encyclopedic survey of the customs and institutions as revealed in the borderlands of the text Genette presents a global view of these liminal mediations and the logic of their relation to the reading public by studying each element as a literary function Richard Macksey's foreword describes how the poetics of paratexts interact with more general questions of literature as a cultural institution and situates Genette's work in contemporary literary theory French XX Bibliography Douglas W.

Literature, 1985 Hollywood's Indies Yannis Tzioumakis, 2012-03-07 For almost three decades the big Hollywood studios have operated classics divisions or specialty labels subsidiaries that originally focused on the foreign art house film market while more recently and controversially moving on to the American indie film market This is the first book to offer an in depth examination of the phenomenon of the classics divisions by tracing its history since the establishment the first specialty label in 1980 United Artists Classics to more contemporary outfits like Focus Features Warner Independent and Picturehouse This detailed account of all classics divisions examines their business practices their position within the often labyrinthine structure of contemporary entertainment conglomerates and their relationship to their parent companies Yannis Tzioumakis examines the impact of those companies on American indie cinema and argues that it was companies such as Fox Searchlight and Paramount Classics now Paramount Vantage that turned independent filmmaking to an industrial category endorsed by the Hollywood majors as opposed to a mode of filmmaking practised outside the conglomerated major players and posed as a sustained alternative to mainstream Hollywood cinema A number of case studies are provided including such celebrated films as Mystery Train The Brothers McMullen Broken Flowers Before Sunset and many others Movie Lists Paul Simpson, 2011-05-26 Action African greats alcohol Robert Aldrich aliens Woody Allen Pedro Almodovar Robert Altman animated anime apocalypses Argentina art Asia minor avant garde And that's just A for you A taste of this fabulously quirky and enjoyable book which is both a celebration of movies and movie trivia and a handy entertaining guide to films that we know you will enjoy It is fantastically functional The lists are well conceived and easy to understand mostly assembled by genre actor director theme or country of origin and the reviews are witty and informative Oddly enough most movie guides are not full of recommendations But Movie Lists is in spades leaving readers in no doubt that the films reviewed are the business Oh and you don't have to watch them all before you die There is no premise of death in this book You just need to get down to the local Blockbusters or flick your remote to Movies on Demand Only the popcorn is not supplied

Representing Jazz Krin Gabbard, 1995 Traditional jazz studies have tended to see jazz in purely musical terms as a series of changes in rhythm tonality and harmony or as a parade of great players But jazz has also entered the cultural mix through its significant impact on novelists filmmakers dancers painters biographers and photographers Representing Jazz explores the other history of jazz created by these artists a history that tells us as much about the meaning of the music as do the many books that narrate the lives of musicians or describe their recordings Krin Gabbard has gathered essays by distinguished writers from a variety of fields They provide engaging analyses of films such as Round Midnight Bird Mo'Better Blues Cabin in the Sky and Jammin' the Blues the writings of Eudora Welty and Dorothy Baker the careers of the great lindy hoppers of the 1930s and 1940s Mura Dehn's extraordinary documentary on jazz dance the jazz photography of William Claxton painters of the New York School the traditions of jazz autobiography and the art of vocalese The contributors to this volume assess the influence of extramusical sources on our knowledge of jazz and suggest that the living contexts of the music must be considered if a more sophisticated jazz scholarship is ever to evolve Transcending the familiar patterns of jazz history and criticism Representing Jazz looks at how the music actually has been heard and felt at different levels of American culture With its companion anthology Jazz Among the Discourses this volume will enrich and transform the literature of jazz studies Its provocative essays will interest both aficionados and potential jazz fans Contributors Karen Backstein Leland H Chambers Robert P Crease Krin Gabbard Frederick Garber Barry K Grant Mona Hadler Christopher Harlos Michael Jarrett Adam Knee Arthur Knight James Naremore
