The Gospels As Historical Documents Part 3 The Fourth Gospel:

The Gospels as Historical Documents Vincent Henry Stanton, 1920      The Gospels as Historical Documents, Part III Vincent Henry Stanton, 2008-11-20      Studies in the Fourth Gospel Leon Morris, 2006-06-01 These in depth studies on the Gospel of John written by the man who describes himself as a conservative evangelical demonstrate that the application of the critical method to an understanding of scripture need not rule out an acceptance of inspiration Dr Morris is here concerned with the authorship of the fourth Gospel its relation to the Synoptists the origin and date of writing and with other similar issues To his discussion of these issues he brings both his impressive scholarship and firm commitment to the revelatory nature of the Bible The result is an informed and articulate statement of the conservative position on the many crucial questions raised by John's Gospel In his Preface to this volume Dr Morris notes that Critical Protestant scholars and Roman Catholics are reading one another's works and discussing one another's writings with charity and mutual profit Perhaps it is not too much to hope that both will include the conservative evangelicals within the scope of their reading and charity In the hope that it will make some small contribution to the continuing dialogue this book goes forth      Is John's Gospel True? Maurice Casey, 1996 This study demonstrates that the Gospel attributed to John gives an inaccurate account of the life and teaching of Jesus It shows that this Gospel was finished during a fierce conflict between the Johannine community and the Jewish community During this conflict the Johannine community hailed Jesus as God and declared that the Jews were children of the devil They attributed their beliefs to Jesus and portrayed him as quarrelling with the Jews as they did Consequently this document is fiercely anti Jewish and has been used to fuel anti semitism reasons for the author to challenge the fitness of John's Gospel to be in anyone's sacred scriptures      The Journal of Education, 1921      The Church Quarterly Review, 1905      The Nation and Athenæum, 1920      The Journal of Religion, 1923 Includes section Book reviews      The Nation and Athenæum, 1920      The Cambridge Review, 1922      The Nation and the Athenæum, 1920      The Abingdon Bible Commentary Frederick Carl Eiselen, Edwin Lewis, David George Downey, 1929      The Gospels Vincent Taylor, 2009-05-20 As the subtitle indicates this book is not intended to be anything more than a brief introduction to the four gospels It treats questions of sources date and authorship and the mutual relations of one Gospel to another It does not attempt to discuss the deepest and most beautiful things in the Gospels but rather those questions about which we must form opinions if we are to read these unique works with insight and understanding This edition has been carefully revised and notes and references have been added relating to the Q the Proto Luke and Bussmann's Hypotheses the authorship of 1 John and the critical problems connected with the Fourth Gospel and it should be of service to students and to the growing number of readers who are keenly interested in the question of Gospel Origins      Library Bulletin of the University of St. Andrews University of St. Andrews, 1923      Johannine Writings and Apocalyptic Stanley E. Porter, Andrew K. Gabriel, 2013-09-15 Johannine Writings and Apocalyptic provides a wide ranging and thorough annotated bibliography for John's Gospel the Johannine letters Revelation and apocalyptic writings pertinent to these books More inclusive than many other bibliographies this volume provides reference to over 1300 individual entries often including references to multiple works with a given description Annotations are designed to provide guidance to a wide range of readers from students wishing to gain entry to the subject to graduate students engaging in research to professors needing ready access to useful materials The volume is topically organized and indexed for easy access      Current Literature ,1921
