Summary of the 7 Habits of Highly Effective People Short Summary, 2021-11-30

The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People goes in the opposite direction of conventional self-help promoting personality ethics such as appearance and attitude. Instead, Covey is of the view that readers should use a character ethic. A character ethic is founded on timeless ideals such as bravery and honesty. You have to go through what Covey refers to as a paradigm shift to accomplish this transformation. A successful individual understands how to change the paradigm from the outside into the inside out. They have advanced from dependency to independence and lastly to interdependence along the development continuum. A successful individual has also discovered a way to balance productivity while growing their capacity to create. To become a successful person, you must induce a paradigm change in your worldview by incorporating the seven habits of highly effective individuals into your daily routine.
