encompassing new material this invigorating volume measures political risk for instance the risk that foreign investment might face in any country It also demonstrates how progress or regress made in good governance initiatives as conditionalities to aid can be assessed Governments can monitor their own policy environments and take remedial action if necessary The methodology allows for measurement of previously unquantified soft factors that add to the risks foreign investors might face demonstrating why these factors are of importance to both risk assertive and risk averse investors Features include 103 contextualized measurable risk factors and their 411 risk factor indicators Guidelines to using these factors in order to perform generic macro analyses or micro client project industry specific analyses Explanation of the methodology with which to comprehensively measure the probability of risk occurring in any macro or micro investment climate

Towards Africa-oriented Risk Analysis Models Korwa Gombe Adar, Richard O. Iroanya, F. O. C. Nwonwu, 2008 Risk analysis studies on Africa conducted by a number of international organisations have addressed a number of complex and interlocking socioeconomic and political issues largely painting a bleak picture of the continent These reports have been used by the Western countries as benchmarks for the flow of donor funds often with disastrous consequences The failure of the Structural Adjustment Programmes SAPs introduced by the Bretton Woods institutions in the 1970s and 1980s serve as a good example Taking cognisance of these interpretations the case studies in this volume have employed appropriate methodological conceptual and theoretical approaches with the objective of reaching balanced assessments on the underlying principles of risk and threat in Africa The authors take a more holistic view clearly defining the concept of risk and its corollaries and going beyond the somewhat limited view of those organisations which apply largely Eurocentric values to their assessments
