The Hindu Temple Stella Kramrisch, 1976-01-01 Proceedings of the Tenth Seminar of the IATS, 2003. Volume 7: Text, Image and Song in Transdisciplinary Dialogue, 2007-03-31 The papers in this volume all result from field work in the Indian Himalayas and the TAR conducted by the Interdisciplinary Research Unit Austrian Science Fund While the research goals were established within the framework of transdisciplinary research each scholar approaches scientific problems according to the methodologies associated with their respective disciplines philology philosophy history art history linguistics and anthropology In the contribution published here Steinkellner Klimburg Salter Widorn and Jahoda explicate the structure methods and advantages of transdisciplinary research Lasic and Tauscher analyse two different philosophical questions on the basis of manuscripts from Tabo Spiti and Gondhla Lahaul Pasang Wangdu Tropper and Ponweiser each examine a Buddhist monument from a different perspective Keru TAR Wanla Ladakh and Tabo Papa Kalantari and Hein discuss respectively an iconographic problem and oral traditions from Spiti and upper Kinnaur Epic Narratives in the Hoysala Temples Evans, 2018-11-13 This volume is a detailed exposition of the visual retellings from the R m ya a Mah bh rata and Bh gavata Pur a on specific South Indian Hoysa a temples The first part of the book deals with the Am te vara temple particularly its narrative panels depicting the R m ya a Mah bh rata and Bh gavata Pur a The text is a r sum of episodes paired with photographs which illustrate and review the visual retellings and explore Indian techniques of visual narrative Corollary material from other Hoysa a temples with narrative reliefs including new sites is presented in the second part There are very few published contextual studies of Indian narrative sculptures and so the book is a contribution to the documentation of Indian medieval art examining visual narratives within the context of the Hindu temple The book is illustrated with 150 photographs The Art and Architecture of the Indian Subcontinent James C. Harle, 1994-01-01 Thirty years research and first hand knowledge of the area have enabled the author to trace the cultural contacts which have contributed to the rich mosaic of sculpture temples mosques and painting that have gone towards the creation of one of the great civilizations of the world Steps to Water Morna Livingston, 2002-04 From the fifth to the nineteenth centuries the people of western India built stone cisterns to collect the water of the monsoon rains and keep it accessible for the remaining dry months of the year These magnificent structures known as stepwells or stepped ponds are much more than utilitarian reservoirs Their lattice like walls carved columns decorated towers and intricate sculpture make them exceptional architecture while their very presence tells much about the region s ecology and history For these past 500 years stepwells have been an integral part of western Indian communities as sites for drinking washing and bathing as well as for colorful festivals and sacred rituals Steps to Water traces the fascinating history of stepwells from their Hindu origins to their zenith during Muslim rule and eventual decline under British occupation It also reflects on their current use preservation and place in Indian communities In stunning color and quadtone photographs and drawings Steps to Water reveals the depth of the stepwells beauty and their intricate details and serves as a lens on these fascinating cultural and architectural monuments

Mandalas and Yantras in the Hindu Traditions Gudrun Bühnemann, 2021-11-15 In recent years ma alas have attracted much interest among a wider public The main focus of such interest has been directed toward Tibetan ma alas specimens of which have been included in numerous publications But ma alas are found across a wide spectrum of South Asian religious traditions including those of the Hindus and Jains Hindu ma alas and yantras have hardly been researched This book attempts to fill this gap by clarifying important aspects of ma alas and yantras in specific Hindu traditions through investigations by renowned specialists in the field Its chapters explore ma alas and yantras in the Smṛti, Pāraśara and Kṛta traditions An essay on the vṛstupurāṃśaśāstra and its relationship to architecture is also included With 13 colour plates

Temples of the Indus Michael W. Meister, 2010-07-26 In Pakistan's northwest a sequence of temples built between the sixth and the tenth centuries provides a missing chapter in the evolution of the Hindu temple in South Asia Combining some elements from Buddhist architecture in Gandhara with the symbolically powerful curvilinear Nagara tower formulated in the early post Gupta period this group stands as an independent school of that pan-Indic form offering new evidence for its creation and original variations in the four centuries of its existence Drawing on recent archaeology undertaken by the Pakistan Heritage Society as well as scholarship from the Encyclopaedia of Indian Temple Architecture project this volume finally allows the Salt Range and Indus temples to be integrated with the greater South Asian tradition Hinduism and the Religious Arts Heather Elgood, 2000-04-01 The roots between the Hindu religion and the wider culture are deep and uniquely complex No study of either ancient or contemporary Indian culture can be undertaken without a clear understanding of Hindu visual arts and their sources in religious belief and practice Defining what is meant by religion no such term exists in Sanskrit and what is understood by Hindu ideals of beauty Heather Elgood provides the best synthesis and critical study of recent scholarship on the topic In addition this book offers critical background information for anyone interested in the social and anthropological roots of artistic creativity as well as the rites practices and beliefs of the hundreds of millions of Hindus in the world today The Cult of Draupadi, Volume 2 Alf Hiltebeitel, 1988 This is the first volume of a projected three volume work on the little known South Indian folk cult of the goddess Draupadi and on the classical epic the Mahabharata that the cult brings to life in mythic ritual and dramatic forms Draupadi the chief heroine of the Sanskrit Mahabharata takes on many unexpected guises in her Tamil cult but her dimensions as a folk goddess remain rooted in a rich interpretive vision of the great epic By examining the ways that the cult of Draupadi commingles traditions about the goddess and the epic Alf Hiltebeitel shows the cult to be singularly representative of the inner tensions and working dynamics of popular devotional Hinduism Imperial Gazetteer of India ... James Sutherland Cotton, Sir Richard Burn, Sir William Stevenson Meyer, 1908

Exploring India's Sacred Art Stella Kramrisch, 1994-04-30 Encyclopaedia of Indian Temple Architecture: pt. 1 Text, v. 2, pt. 1 Plates. North India: Foundations of North Indian style, c.250 B.C.-A.D. 1100 Michael W.

Meister,1991 Hinduism in Middle India Lavanya Vemsani,2022-10-06 Narasimha is one of the least studied major deities of Hinduism Furthermore there are limited studies of the history thought and literature of middle India Lavanya Vemsani redresses this by exploring a range of primary sources including classical Sanskrit texts puranas and epics and regional accounts sthalapuranas which include texts artistic compositions and oral folk stories in the regional languages of Telugu Oriya and Kannada She also examines the historical context as well as contemporary practice Moving beyond the stereotypical classifications applied to sources of Hinduism this unique study dedicates chapters to each region of middle India bringing together literary religious and cultural practices to comprehensively understand the religion of Middle India Madhya Desha Incorporating lived religion and textual data this book offers a rich contribution to Hindu studies and Indian studies in general and Vaishnava Studies and regional Hinduism in particular The Routledge Handbook of Hindu Temples Himanshu Prabha Ray,Salila Kulshreshtha,Uthara Suvrathan,2022-10-13 This handbook is a comprehensive study of the archaeology social history and the cultural landscape of the Hindu temple Perhaps the most recognizable of the material forms of Hinduism temples are lived dynamic spaces They are significant sites for the creation of cultural heritage both in the past and in the present Drawing on historiographical surveys and in depth case studies the volume centres the material form of the Hindu temple as an entry point to study its many adaptations and transformations from the early centuries CE to the 20th century It highlights the vibrancy and dynamism of the shrine in different locales and studies the active participation of the community for its establishment maintenance and survival The illustrated handbook takes a unique approach by focusing on the social base of the temple rather than its aesthetics or chronological linear development It fills a significant gap in the study of Hinduism and will be an indispensable resource for scholars of archaeology Hinduism Indian history religious studies museum studies South Asian history and Southeast Asian history Chapters 1 4 and 5 of this book are available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com They have been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license General Index to the Bombay Gazetteer Serie James MacNabb Campbell,2025-07-09 Reprint of the original first published in 1883 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Sacred Landscapes in Asia ,2024-01-01 Throughout history the peoples of Asia have been known for their mobility and interactions The notion of territorially defined nations is historically recent There was a continuing dialogue between Asian cultures which functioned at both the spatial and the temporal level propelled by the movement of the great religions of Asia across continents via trading communities clergies Buddhist and Sufi scholars and communities of artisans The present volume explores the aesthetic theories underlying many genres of the Asian arts These characterize the dialogue between and amongst different Asian regions The same Asian notions of space and time are manifested in architectural form as also in a wide variety of visual arts The contributors in this volume identify the multi layered discourse comprising the nature of monuments as also the movement of motifs and symbols through sculptured and picturised representation Some essays focus on fundamental notions such as nyata as common to the Indian Korean and other Asian countries Also the papers bear testimony to the phenomena of dialogue and distinctiveness continuity and change This is evident in architectural structures sculptural forms particularly in iconography and of course in the performing arts The IIC Asia Project in its second phase has with purpose traced the trajectory of transmission systems in Asian civilization in different domains and at different levels be it the vertical transmission from generation to generation in education or the artistic transmission and diffusion through the arts It is hoped that this volume will add to the meager literature that exists on the subject and will stimulate further research and study
