academic exploration Poverty of the Imagination David Herman,2001-09-28 The primal scene of all nineteenth century western thought might involve an observer gazing at someone poor most commonly on the streets of a great metropolis and wondering what the spectacle meant in human moral political and metaphysical terms For Russia most of whose people hovered near the poverty line throughout history the scene is one of special significance presenting a plethora of questions and possibilities for writers who wished to depict the spiritual and material reality of Russian life How these writers responded and what their portrayal of poverty reveals and articulates about core values of Russian culture is the subject of this book which offers a compelling look into the peculiar convergence in nineteenth century Russian literature of ideas about the poor and about the processes of art Tried Money Changers Apocrypha Jonathan Kristian Wain,2019-08-10 An extensive collection of apocrypha divided into Old and New Testaments Some titles are rare and elusive such as Jannes and Jambres Gad the Seer and Psalms of Thomas Some texts are fragmented like the newly discovered Gospel of the Saviour due to the damage sustained by the manuscript The idea of Tried Money Changers is to provide the reader with an extensive library of apocrypha in one book Presented in an easy to read format with large text divided into three columns in an A4 size book Innocence and Ignorance Martin Stanislas Gillet (Père),1917 Ablution, Initiation, and Baptism David Hellholm,Tor Vegge,Øyvind Norderval,Christer Hellholm,2011-07-27 In the web of cultural processes of late antiquity ablution rites and initiation rites were performed in different forms and in different contexts Such rites existed in Early Judaism and Greco Roman cults and were also applied in early Christianity under the label baptism however not as one fixed rite uniformly performed and interpreted Baptismal rites developed diversely corresponding to the diversity among Christian groups of which some later came to be perceived as heretical Remains of art architecture and texts from these contexts were discussed in two conferences gathering scholars who are excellent within their respective fields text studies studies of rites archaeology architecture history of art and cultural anthropology These different fields of research have in recent years generated new knowledge that is relevant for the discussion of ablution and initiation rites and their function in late antiquity At the same time interests of research have altered in favour of a growing cooperation across discipline borders The present volumes are the outcome of two conferences in Rome 2008 and at Metochi Lesbos 2009 Ablution, Initiation, and Baptism: Methodological considerations ,2011 The present volumes is the result of an international collaboration of researchers who are excellent within their respective fields interpretation of texts studies of rites archaeology architecture history of art and cultural anthropology They met for two conferences to discuss the significance of rites of ablution initiation and baptism and their interpretation in Late Antiquity Early Judaism and Early Christianity The volume establishes a new international standard of research within these fields of scholarship Purity and Auspiciousness in Indian Society ,2022-05-20 Ritual Malidoma Patrice Some,1997-12-01 The stories within these books have the poignancy of new discoveries as well as the unworn imagination of the ancestors The commentary has the sharp edge of modern thought and the intricacy which results from the intellect being woven through the ritual complexities of tribal life The purpose of constructing thresholds that bring this world together is to find the powers that can heal the rends in tribal as well as modern communities Michael Meade from the Introduction Versed in the languages of psychology comparative literature as well as ancient mythology healing and divination Malidoma Patrice Some bridges paths between the ancient tribal world of the West African Dagara culture and modern Western society Ritual is written with wild imagination careful critical reflection and intuitive insights that will force the reader to encounter the world anew Shakespeare: Out of Court G. Potter, 2016-07-27 This book examines six plays by Shakespeare Love's Labour's Lost Hamlet As You Like It Twelfth Night The Winter's Tale and The Tempest as dramatizations of the Renaissance court in its developing history a history searched by Shakespeare to disclose its most characteristic gains and losses For these plays do not simply celebrate Tudor and Stuart rule they scrutinize it too in the centre of its institutional theatre of power the court This book shows how if the plays came into the court the court also came into the plays with its most salient features its competitiveness its inner tensions and its contradictions its language its cultural life and its entertainments exposed to the scrutiny of an art form that proved itself to be a new mode of historical understanding Classics of Spiritual Philosophy and the Present Vladimir Antonov, 2008

Universal Masonic Library Robert Macoy, 1855 A Covenant with Death Christopher B. Hays, 2015 Shows how ancient Near Eastern attitudes toward death illumine the Hebrew Bible Death is one of the major themes of First Isaiah although it has not generally been recognized as such In this work Christopher Hays offers fresh interpretations of more than a dozen passages in Isaiah 5:38 in light of ancient beliefs about death What especially distinguishes Hays's study is its holistic approach as he brilliantly synthesizes both literary and archaeological evidence resulting in new insights Hays first summarizes what is known about death in the ancient Near East during the Second Iron Age covering beliefs and practices in Mesopotamia Egypt Syria Palestine and Judah Israel He then shows how select passages in the first part of Isaiah employ the rhetorical imagery of death that was part of their cultural context further he identifies ways in which these texts break new creative ground Lost Saints Tricia A. Lootens, 1996 They also carry long standing struggles over femininity and sanctity into new highly charged secular contexts The Divine Verdict John Gwyn Griffiths, 1990-12-01 The theme of divine judgement has often been treated but usually with a concentration on one of its two main aspects either that which is seen in the present life and in history or that which is believed to occur only after death This new study seeks to combine the two aspects It also tries to cover the whole spectrum of the ancient religions Special attention is given to Israel Greece and Egypt Israel's neighbours are also considered and there are discussions of Judaism Christianity and Zoroastrianism In several areas notably in Egypt and Israel it is shown that punishment in this life is sometimes presented as a fate that man brings upon himself rather than as one imposed by God though always against a moral background derived from religion The origins of judgement after death in the Judaeo-Christian tradition are examined in some detail and elements are traced to Egyptian

Zoroastrian and Judaic sources Ethiopian Jewish Immigrants in Israel Tanya Schwarz, 2016-03-23 This is an ethnographic study of Ethiopian Jews or Beta Israel a few years after their migration from rural Ethiopia to urban Israel For the Beta Israel the most significant issue is not as is commonly assumed adaptation to modern society but rather belonging in their new homeland and the loss of control they are experiencing over their lives and those of their children Ethiopian Jewish immigrants resist those aspects of the dominant society which they dislike they reject normative Jewish practices and uphold Beta Israel religious and cultural ones ideologically counteract disparaging Israeli attitudes develop strong ethnic bonds and engage in overt forms of resistance The difficulties of the present are also overcome by creating a perfect past and an ideal future in what the author calls the homeland postponed all Jews will be united in a colour blind world of material plenty and purity The Dead Sea Scrolls Alex P. 1 2 DOI 10.5281/zenodo.4284460 Original Repository Zenodo <https://doi.org/10.5281/zenodo.4094821> This book investigates the history and decoration of one of the most important churches of Venice in the 16th century Santa Maria Assunta dei Crociferi Painters and sculptors of the stature of Titian Tintoretto Veronese Palma il Giovane Vittoria and Campagna all contributed major works of art many of which survive in the present day church of the Gesuiti But as a result of the suppression of the order of the Crociferi Crosiers or Crutched Friars in 1656 and of the subsequent demolition of their church the art historical significance of this ensemble had become largely overlooked Serious study of the church was further impeded by the loss of the church's archive Nevertheless readers are here presented with a surprisingly wide range of alternative archival and early printed sources that document the history of the church and integrate it with the surviving works of art We are taken on a journey of discovery of leading members of the order of lay patrons who supported the church's renovation and of the productive relationships that led to important artistic commissions Originally submitted by the late

Allison Sherman to the University of St Andrews in 2010 the present doctoral thesis was edited for publication by Carlo Corsato and provided with a full set of illustrations Two further additional essays by Allison Sherman are also included Titian's Martyrdom of St Lawrence and its Original Location in the Lost Venetian Church of Santa Maria Assunta dei Crociferi This was the opening chapter of the volume La Notte di san Lorenzo 2013 edited by Letizia Lonzi and the late Lionello Puppi Presented here is the unpublished original English version which summarises many of the discoveries included in the doctoral dissertation Murder and Martyrdom Titian's Gesuiti St Lawrence as a Family Peace Offering This appeared in Artibus et Historiae 2015 and offers the most significant investigation of the patronage of a masterpiece by Titian The Martyrdom of St Lawrence Church of the Gesuiti Venice
