The Inspector And Silence:

The Inspector and Silence Hakan Nesser, 2011-06-14 It's a sweltering summer in Sweden and Chief Inspector Van Veeteren is long overdue for a holiday when a secretive and dubious religious sect comes under investigation. One of its members, a girl on the cusp of adolescence, is found dead in the forest near their holiday camp, brutally raped and strangled. The discovery of her body has been phoned in by an anonymous caller. The members of the sect, the Pure Life, are led by Oscar Yellinek, a charismatic but unnervingly guarded messiah figure. In an act that mystifies and infuriates Van Veeteren and his associates, the members of the Pure Life choose to remain silent about the incident rather than defend themselves. But an unidentified woman is continuing to assist the authorities, and her knowledge suggests she's more than just a passing Good Samaritan. Her tips become doubly perplexing as a new string of increasingly horrifying crimes defy everything Van Veeteren and his team thought they knew about the case. A riveting new addition to Hakan Nesser's acclaimed series, The Inspector and Silence is suspense at its haunting best.

Court of Session, 1864 Representing Italy Through Food Peter Naccarato, Zachary Nowak, Elgin K. Eckert, 2017-03-09 Italy has long been romanticized as an idyllic place. Italian food and foodways play an important part in this romanticization, from bountiful bowls of fresh pasta to bottles of Tuscan wine. While such images oversimplify the complex reality of modern Italy, they are central to how Italy is imagined by Italians and non-Italians alike. Representing Italy through Food is the first book to examine how these perceptions are constructed, sustained, promoted, and challenged. Recognizing the power of representations to construct reality, the book explores how Italian food and foodways are represented across the media, from literature to film and television, from cookbooks to social media, and from marketing campaigns to advertisements. Bringing together established scholars such as Massimo Montanari and Ken Albala with emerging scholars in the field the thirteen chapters offer new perspectives on Italian food and culture Featuring both local and global perspectives which examine Italian food in the United States Australia and Israel the book reveals the power of representations across historical geographic socio economic and cultural boundaries and asks if there is anything that makes Italy unique An important contribution to our understanding of the enduring power of Italy Italian culture and Italian food both in Italy and beyond Essential reading for students and scholars in food studies Italian studies media studies and cultural studies Black Bag Moon Susan Woldenberg Butler,2022-02-16 Black Bag Moon Doctors Tales from Dusk to Dawn is filled with inspiring educational entertaining and often quirky tales Based on a series of interviews conducted with general practitioners across the globe the book creatively presents myriad aspects of clinical practice Each fictionalised story illustrates various themes in the human condition whilst simultaneously highlighting the struggles and achievements of both patients and doctors This insightful collection offers stimulating reading for all healthcare professionals and general readers alike who will appreciate the honest often moving scenes which effortlessly unfold in each chapter Hansard's Parliamentary Debates Great Britain.
