CHAPTER SUMMARIES

1 Brian is 13 years old. He boards a small plane from New York to the Canadian wilderness. While on the plane, he thinks about his parents' recent divorce. He thinks about but does not explain a "secret". He has a hatchet his mom gave him attached to his belt. Suddenly Brian realizes the pilot is having a heart attack and dies. Brian realizes that he is now all alone in the small plane, thousands of feet in the air.

2 Brian tries to use the radio, but loses the signal before he can get any useful information across. He keeps trying the radio. Suddenly the engine on the plane dies, and Brian realizes he will be forced to land it. He points the nose of the plane down and throws up.

3 Brian is convinced that he will not survive the crash. The plane lands on a lake. Water pours into the plane but he is able to survive by unbuckling his seat belt and swimming to land. He passes out from pain and exhaustion.

4 Brian recalls the incident of "the secret". He saw his mom in a strange car, kissing someone who was not his dad. When he wakes up, he can't believe he has survived the crash. He is covered in mosquito bites. Exhausted and in pain, he quickly falls asleep again.

Teaching Reading to Every Child Diane Lapp, James Flood, Cynthia H. Brock, Douglas Fisher, 2013-06-17

This popular text, now in its Fourth Edition, introduces pre-service and in-service teachers to the most current theories and methods for teaching literacy to children in elementary schools. The methods presented are based on scientific findings that have been tested in many classrooms. A wealth of examples, hands-on activities, and classroom vignettes, including lesson plans, assessments, lists of children's literature books, fiction and nonfiction texts, and more, illustrate the methods and bring them to life. The text highlights the importance of teaching EVERY child to become competent in all of the nuances and complexities of reading, writing, and speaking. The value of reflection and peer discussion in learning to expand their students' literacies is emphasized. Readers are encouraged to reflect on their own experiences with reading and teaching throughout their lifetimes, experiences that will serve well in learning to teach reading. Your Turn boxes invite readers to think about their views of the material presented and to talk with colleagues and teachers about their best ways of learning this new information. Did You Notice boxes engage readers in observation and analysis of methods and classroom situations discussed in the text. Teachers' stories serve as models of successful teaching and to draw readers into professional dialogue about the ideas and questions raised. End of chapter questions and activities provide additional opportunities for reflection and discussion.
