The Hitman S Woman:

The Hitman's Woman Devon Vaughn Archer, 2011-10-24 Beverly Holland lives it up with her older businessman beau Eric Fox. He gives her everything she craves except satisfaction between the sheets. Frustrated, she picks up sexy stranger Dante at a hotel bar who shows her what she's been missing. But he's also about to shake up her life. Beverly has no idea that Eric is really a hitman or that Dante has a vendetta. Eric killed his brother and now he wants Eric dead. Beverly also doesn't know that while she's carrying on with her man's potential killer, her man's carrying on with her best friend Marilyn who will do anything to make Eric hers. When the forces of lust, lies, betrayal, and revenge collide, who's going to survive and who will ultimately be the hitman's woman.

When Women Kill Alia Trabucco Zerán, 2022-04-05 A genre-bending feminist account of four Chilean women who committed the double transgression of murder, violating not only criminal law but also the invisible laws of gender. Women Who Kill: Four Crimes Retold analyzes four homicides carried out by Chilean women over the course of the twentieth century. Drawing on her training as a lawyer, Alia Trabucco Zerán offers a nuanced close reading of their lives and crimes, foregoing sensationalism in order to dissect how all four were both perpetrators of violent acts and victims of another, more insidious kind of violence. This radical retelling challenges the archetype of the woman murderer and reveals another narrative, one as disturbing and provocative as the transgressions themselves. What makes women lash out against the restraints of gendered domesticity and how do we, readers/viewers/the media/the art world/the political establishment, treat them when they do? Expertly intertwining true crime, critical essay, and research diary, International Booker Prize finalist Alia Trabucco Zerán's The Remainder (in a translation by Sophie Hughes) brings an overdue feminist perspective to the study of deviant women.

Homicide Investigation John J. Miletich, 2003 Professionals in law enforcement and those considering law enforcement as a career, students of sociology, psychology, criminal justice, and law and criminology courses, and readers of true crime literature will find this book an engaging and informative reference. BOOK JACKET

Women and Capital Punishment in the United States David V. Baker, 2015-12-07 The history of the execution of women in the United States has largely been ignored, and scholars have given scant attention to gender issues in capital punishment. This historical analysis examines the social, political, and economic contexts in which the justice system has put women to death, revealing a pattern of patriarchal domination and female subordination. The book includes a discussion of condemned women granted executive clemency and judicial commutations, an inquiry into women falsely convicted in potentially capital cases, and a profile of the current female death row population.

International Noir Pettey Homer B. Pettey, 2014-11-11 Following World War II, film noir became the dominant cinematic expression of Cold War angst, influencing new trends in European and Asian filmmaking. International Noir examines film noir's influence on the cinematic traditions of Britain, France, Scandinavia, Japan, Hong Kong, Korea, and India. This book suggests that the film noir style continues to appeal on such a global scale because no other cinematic form has merged style and genre to effect a vision of the disturbing.

consequences of modernity International noir has however adapted and adopted noir themes and aesthetic elements so that national cinemas can boast an independent and indigenous expression of the genre Ranging from Japanese silent films and women s films to French Hong Kong and Nordic New Waves this book also calls into question critical assessments of noir in international cinemas In short it challenges prevailing film scholarship to renegotiate the concept of noir Ending with an examination of Hollywood s neo noir recontextualization of the genre and post noir s reinvigorating critique of this aesthetic International Noir offers Film Studies scholars an in depth commentary on this influential global cinematic art form further offering extensive bibliography and filmographies for recommended reading and viewing

Kiely,2016-05-09 There has been a huge increase in violent deaths in Ireland in recent years. While men are more often the killers there has been a rise in the number of murders committed by women. There is no single reason for this some of the women featured in More Bloody Women killed for love gone wrong some as revenge some in the heat of the moment some in cold blood. For some women it was just business. Among the infamous cases in this book are the Black Widow Catherine Nevin who set up her husband's murder in Jack White's Inn Linda and Charlotte Mulhall the Scissor Sisters who killed and dismembered their mother's violent boyfriend before dumping the remains in a canal Sharon Collins who tried to hire a professional assassin to kill her partner Kelly Noble who stabbed a friend to death outside a supermarket and whose own mother was already in prison for killing Kelly's father and Lynn Gibbs who tragically drowned her daughter in a bath because she believed the girl was suffering from anorexia. A solution that unfortunately only made matters a whole lot worse for him. But to backtrack a little to the genesis of this momentous disaster.
