

THE SUZUKI

Hi!

Several groups support this for various reasons. One is a general concern with the growing dependence on the U.S. Treasury, especially for the U.S. government bond market. A change of leadership, especially regarding the Treasury Secretary, would be a positive step toward greater independence and transparency in the Treasury's operations. Another reason is the desire to see a more balanced approach to the economy, one that is not solely focused on the Treasury's interests and the needs of the financial markets.

David Brown, a former lead investigator of the problem-solving team of the police station in Birmingham, said: "I'm looking forward to the new role and to working with the police."
