Johnson,2018 The US Marine Corps has traditionally been one of the most innovative branches of the US military but even it has struggled to learn and retain lessons from past counterinsurgency wars Jeannie L Johnson looks at the clash between strategic culture and organizational learning through the US Marine Corps s long experience with counterinsurgency She first undertakes a fascinating examination of what makes the Marines distinct their identity norms values and perceptual lens To do this Johnson uses an innovative framework for analyzing strategic culture Next she traces the history of the Marines counterinsurgency experience from the expeditionary missions of the early twentieth century through the Vietnam War and finally to the Iraq War She shows that even a service as self aware and dedicated to innovation as the US Marine Corps is significantly constrained in the lessons learned process by its own internal predispositions Even when internal preferences can be changed ingrained biases endemic to the broader US military culture and American public culture create barriers to learning The JAG Journal ,1956 Infantry ,2009 Naval Aviation News ,1974

Counterinsurgency and the United States Marine Corps Leo J. Daugherty III,2015-08-04 From the turn of the 20th century until the end of World War II the United States Marine Corps fought a series of small wars starting in the Philippines in 1899 and ending in the islands of the southwest Pacific in 1945 Through this experience the Marines perfected the prosecution of such wars in its famed Small Wars Manual written for Marine Corps schools in the late 1930s The present volume is a chronological examination of the various Marine expeditions in the Pacific West Indies and Central America from 1899 through 1945 and of the lessons learned The Army Lawyer ,2012-06 Handbook of Terrorist and Insurgent Groups Scott N. Romaniuk,Animesh Roul,Pamela Fabe,János Besenyő,2024-10-24 Handbook of Terrorist and Insurgent Groups A Global Survey of Threats Tactics and Characteristics examines the most current and significant terrorist and insurgent groups around the world The purpose is to create a descriptive mosaic of what is a pointedly global security challenge The volume brings together conceptual approaches to terrorism insurgency and cyberterrorism with substantive and empirical analyses of individual groups organisations and networks By doing so not only does the coverage highlight the past present and future orientations of the most prominent groups but it also examines and illustrates their key characteristics and how they operate including key leaders and ideologues Highlighting specific individual groups the chapters collectively present a robust and comprehensive outlook on the current geography of terrorism and insurgency groups operating in the world today This comprehensive volume brings the collective expertise and knowledge of more than 50 academics intelligence and security officials and professionals together all of whom are considered subject experts in their respective areas of research and practice The volume is based on both desk based and fieldwork conducted by experts in these areas incorporating analyses of secondary literature but also the use of primary data including first hand interviews on the various groups regions of operation their tactics and how their ideologies motivate their actions Decisions of the United States Court of Military Appeals United States. Court of Military Appeals,1952 Sea Power in the Twenty-First Century Charles Koburger,1997-09-16 As the U S Navy enters the twenty first century many of the ships aircraft weapons and tactics it employed so successfully during the Cold War will no longer be cost effective or even effective Future battlefields will shift the locus of naval action from the high seas into littoral waters demanding sustained operations in relatively narrow shallow waters Naval forces in the twenty first century must not only meet the traditional requirements of command of the sea ships planes troops and bases carrying out forward presence crisis response strategic deterrence and sealift They must now put these together to obtain the four key operational capabilities of littoral warfare command control intelligence and surveillance and communication battlespace dominance power projection and force sustainment The core of the new U S strategic concept is power projection and it envisions naval forces directly leading Army and Air Force elements to influence events ashore most probably in the Third World And this navy must be cost effective The Greenhill Dictionary of Military Quotations Peter G Tsouras,2020-05-18 An authoritative compilation of military history quotes from 2000 BC to the present day A massive compilation casting light not only upon the pain suffering and sheer insanity of war but also upon the unique comradeship and exhilaration of battle this is a valuable addition to the literature of reference The Spectator Peter Tsouras brings 4 000 years of military history to life through the words of more than 800 soldiers commanders military theorists and commentators on war Quotes by diverse personalities Napoleon Machiavelli Atar Che Guevara Rommel Julius Caesar Wellington Xenophon Crazy Horse Wallenstein T E Lawrence Saladin Zhukov Eisenhower and many more sit side by side to build a comprehensive picture of war across the ages Broken down into more than 480 categories covering courage danger failure leadership luck military intelligence tactics training guerrilla warfare and victory this definitive guide draws on the collected wisdom of those who have experienced war at every level From the brutality and suffering of war to the courage and camaraderie of soldiers to the glory and exhilaration of battle these quotes offer an insight into the turbulent history of warfare and the lives and deeds of great warriors Publications Stocked by the Marine Corps (indexed by Distribution). ,2001 Weaponizing Anthropology David H. Price,2011-08-16 The ongoing battle for hearts and minds in Iraq and Afghanistan is a military strategy inspired originally by efforts at domestic social control and counterinsurgency in the United States Weaponizing Anthropology documents how anthropological knowledge and ethnographic methods are harnessed by military and intelligence agencies in post 9 11 America to placate hostile foreign populations David H Price outlines the ethical implications of appropriating this traditional academic discourse for use by embedded militarized research teams Price's inquiry into past relationships between anthropologists and the CIA FBI and Pentagon provides the historical base for this expose of the current abuses of anthropology by military and intelligence agencies Weaponizing Anthropology explores the ways that recent shifts in funding sources for university students threaten academic freedom as new secretive CIA linked fellowship programs rapidly infiltrate American university campuses Price examines the specific uses of anthropological knowledge in military doctrine that have appeared in a new generation of counterinsurgency manuals and paramilitary social science units like the Human Terrain Teams David H Price is the author of Threatening Anthropology McCarthyism and the FBI's Surveillance of Activist Anthropologists and Anthropological Intelligence The Deployment and Neglect of American Anthropology in the Second World War He is a member of the Network of Concerned Anthropologists and teaches at St Martin's College in Lacey Washington
