Vacation Bible School Curriculum 2014:

The Christian Writer's Market Guide 2014 Jerry B. Jenkins, 2014-01-31 For more than 25 years The Christian Writer's Market Guide has been the most comprehensive and highly recommended resource available for Christian writers agents editors publishers publicists and writing teachers In addition to providing a wealth of tips and ideas for publishing in the Christian industry The Christian Writer's Market Guide also includes up to date information on hundreds of book publishers periodicals agents conferences contests editorial services niche markets self publishing services and more This is the ultimate reference tool for the aspiring Christian writer Unreconciled Andrea Smith, 2019-12-13 In the 1990s many evangelical Christian organizations and church leaders began to acknowledge their long history of racism and launched efforts at becoming more inclusive of people of color While much of this racial reconciliation movement has not directly confronted systemic racism's structural causes there exists a smaller countermovement within evangelicalism primarily led by women of color who are actively engaged in antiracism and social justice struggles In Unreconciled Andrea Smith examines these movements through a critical ethnic studies lens evaluating the varying degrees to which evangelical communities that were founded on white supremacy have addressed racism Drawing on evangelical publications sermons and organization statements as well as ethnographic fieldwork and participation in evangelical events Smith shows how evangelicalism is largely unable to effectively challenge white supremacy due to its reliance upon discourses of whiteness At the same time the work of progressive evangelical women of color not only demonstrates that evangelical Christianity can be an unexpected place in which to find theoretical critique and social justice organizing but also shows how critical ethnic studies interventions can be applied broadly across political and religious divides outside the academy Bible Nation Candida R. Moss, Joel S. Baden, 2019-07-16 How the billionaire owners of Hobby Lobby are spending hundreds of millions of dollars to make America a Bible nation The Greens of Oklahoma City the billionaire owners of the Hobby Lobby chain of craft stores are spending hundreds of millions of dollars in an ambitious effort to increase the Bible's influence on American society In Bible Nation Candida Moss and Joel Baden provide the first in depth investigative account of the Greens' sweeping Bible projects Moss and Baden tell the story of the Greens' efforts to place a Bible curriculum in public schools their rapid acquisition of an unparalleled collection of biblical antiquities their creation of a closely controlled group of scholars to study and promote the collection and their construction of a 500 million Museum of the Bible in Washington D C Revealing how all these initiatives promote a very particular set of beliefs about the Bible the book raises serious questions about the trade in biblical antiquities the integrity of academic research and the place of private belief in public life Early Childhood Jewish Education Sigal Achituv, Meir Muller, Shelley T. Alexander, Hanan Alexander, 2022-12-29 Early Childhood Jewish Education explores some of the fundamental questions of early childhood Jewish education in today's societal moral and educational debates The book examines the challenges of transmitting Jewish heritage using developmentally appropriate pedagogy in the context of modern democratic society through the lenses of multiculturalism gender awareness and constructivism Researchers from Israel and the United States consider some of the core Jewish foundational subjects including teaching the Bible holidays and ceremonies Hebrew Jewish literature and spirituality as well as leadership issues in relation to these contemporary debates The book represents the ongoing collaboration of leading researchers from Israel and the United States who have worked together since 2010 as the International Research Group on Jewish Education in the Early Years

Nationalism and Youth in Theatre and Performance Victoria Pettersen Lantz, Angela Sweigart-Gallagher, 2014-07-11
Nationalism and Youth in Theatre and Performance explores how children and young people fit into national political theatre and moreover how youth enact interrogative patriotic and or antagonistic performances as they develop their own relationship with nationhood Children are often seen as excluded from public discourse or political action However this idea of exclusion is false both because adults place children at the center of political debates with the rhetoric of future generations and because children actively insert themselves into public discourse Whether performing a national anthem for visiting heads of state creating a school play about a country's birth or marching in protest of a change in public policy young people use theatre and performance as a means of publicly staking a claim in national politics directly engaging with ideas of nationalism around the world This collection explores the issues of how children fit into national discourse on international stages The authors focus on national performances by for with youth and examine a wide range of performances from across the globe from parades and protests to devised and traditional theatre Nationalism and Youth in Theatre and Performance rethinks how national performance is defined and offers previously unexplored historical and theoretical discussions of political youth performance

All Saints Michael Spurlock, Jeanette Windle, 2017-08-22 The True Story Behind the Powerful Film ALL SAINTS Newly ordained Michael Spurlock's first assignment is to pastor All Saints a struggling church with twenty five devoted members and a mortgage well beyond its means The best option may be to close the church rather than watch it wither any further But when All Saints hesitantly risks welcoming a community of Karen refugees from Burma former farmers scrambling for a fresh start in America Michael feels they may be called to an improbable new mission Michael must choose between closing the church and selling the property or listening to a still small voice challenging the people of All Saints to risk it all and provide much needed hope to their new community Together they risk everything to plant seeds for a future that might just save them all Discover the true story that inspired the film while also diving deeper into the background of the Karen people the church and how a community of believers rally to reach out to those in need yet receive far more than they dared imagine The Reverend Michael Spurlock served All Saints Episcopal Church in Smyrna Tennessee for three years He is currently on the clergy staff at Saint Thomas Church Fifth Avenue in New York City Michael his wife Aimee and their two children live in New York City Award winning author and investigative journalist Jeanette Windle has lived in six countries authored nineteen books and mentors writers on five continents To learn more visit her at www
