Kill the Messenger Maria Armoudian, 2011-08-23 This wide ranging insightful book will make readers keenly aware of the media's power while underscoring the role that we all play in fostering a media climate that cultivates a greater sense of humanity cooperation and fulfillment of human potential What role do the media have in creating the conditions for atrocities such as occurred in Rwanda Conversely can the media be used to preserve democracy and safeguard the human rights of all citizens in a diverse society How will the media now global in scope affect the fate of the planet itself The author explores these intriguing questions and more in this in depth examination of the media's power to either help or harm. She begins by documenting how the media were used to spread a contagion of hate in three deadly conflicts: Rwanda, Nazi Germany and the former Yugoslavia. She then turns to areas of the world where the media acted constructively by aiding the peace process in Northern Ireland, rebuilding democracy in Chile, bridging ethnic divides in South Africa, improving the lot of women in Senegal and boosting transparency and democratization in Mexico and Taiwan. Finally, she explains how the media interact with psychological and cultural forces to impact perceptions, fears, peer pressure, groupthink and the creation of heroes and villains. “Checking the Receipts” Audits of Emergency Finance Sebastiaan Pompe, Miss Alice F. French, Martin Aldcroft, Camilla

Fredriksen, 2025-04-11. This paper explores one dimension of the IMF's COVID response: support for conducting and publishing independent audits of COVID-related spending. The economic impact of COVID was felt across the globe and created stresses on the balance of payments of member countries. Many members turned to the IMF for emergency financing. The IMF Managing Director urged member countries to do what it takes but keep the receipts. In line with this guidance, the majority of IMF emergency financing included commitments by members to put in place transparency and accountability measures. In 56 member countries, Fund financing included commitments for SAIs to audit spending related to the response to COVID. SAI audit reports were ultimately published in 50 member countries. This paper examines how these commitments were implemented and the broader lessons which can be derived. The Good Retirement Guide 2017 Frances Kay, Allan
