Zimsec Literature In English November 2014:

Mobility in Contemporary Zimbabwean Literature in English Magdalena Pfalzgraf, 2021-06-29 This monograph explores the concept of mobility in Zimbabwean works of fiction published in English between the introduction of the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme and the end of the Mugabe era Since 2000 Zimbabwe has experienced unprecedented levels of transnational out migration in response to the political conflicts and economic downturn often referred to as the Zimbabwe Crisis This in turn has led to an increased outpouring of literary texts about migration both in locally produced texts and in works by authors based in the diaspora Situating Zimbabwe's recent literary developments in a wider context of Southern African writing and history this book focuses on texts that portray movement within Zimbabwe's cities between village and city to South Africa and overseas The author examines important developments and trends in recent Zimbabwean literature investigating the link between state authoritarianism and control of mobility and literature's potential to intervene into dominant political discourses The book includes in depth analyses of ten recent works of fiction published in the post 2000 era and develops mobility as a key category of literary analysis of Zimbabwe's contemporary literatures Setting out a rich dialogue between literary criticism and mobility studies this book will be of interest to researchers of African literature Southern Africa migration and mobility

Patrolling Epistemic Borders in a World of Borderless Pandemics Artwell Nhemachena, Rewai Makamani, 2021-11-19 The global epistemological gendarmerie do not only police epistemologies but they also infect the world with infectious epidemics of laughter targeted at those people whose epistemologies are offhandedly condemned as sterile and useless in controlling and containing pandemics Patrolling epistemic borders in ways that demobilise indigenous epistemologies the global epistemological policemen have ironically managed to prevent transgressive epistemologies from crossing borders but they have fatally failed to prevent the transgressive COVID 19 from recurrently crossing borders be they bodily national or continental Brandishing fetishised degree and diploma certificates African comprador academics who are more interested in fetishised ranks and titles than in creativity and innovation have also fatally failed to help African communities by producing vaccines for Africans by Africans Arguing that Eurocentric epistemologies have become sterile fetishes the book contends that such epistemologies have disabled African scholars from actively producing vaccines on a continent where there are paradoxically more epidemics of mimetic laughter than there are efforts at creativity and innovation The book is useful for scholars in sociology anthropology development studies languages and communication natural sciences historical studies and social work

African Migration, Human Rights and Literature Fareda Banda, 2020-12-24 This innovative book looks at the topic of migration through the prism of law and literature The author uses a rich mix of novels short stories literary realism human rights and comparative literature to explore the experiences of African migrants and asylum seekers The book is divided into two Part one is conceptual and focuses on art activism and the myriad ways in which people have sought to write justice Using Mazrui

s diasporas of slavery and colonialism it then considers histories of migration across the centuries before honing in on the recent anti migration policies of western states Achiume is used to show how these histories of imposition and exploitation create a bond which bestows on Africans a status as co sovereigns of the First World through citizenship The many fictional examples of the schemes used to gain entry are set against the formal legal processes Attention is paid to life post arrival which for asylum seekers may include periods in detention The impact of the increased hostility of receiving states is examined in light of their human rights obligations Consideration is paid to how Africans navigate their post migration lives which includes reconciling themselves to status fracture taking on jobs for which they are over qualified while simultaneously dealing with the resentment borne of status threat on the part of the citizenry Part two moves from the general to consider the intersections of gender and status focusing on women LGBTI individuals and children Focusing on their human rights and the fictional literature chapter four looks at women who have been trafficked as well as domestic workers and hotel maids while chapter five is on LGBTI people whose legal and literary stories are only now being told The final substantive chapter considers the experiences of children who may arrive as unaccompanied minors Using a mixture of poetry and first person accounts the chapter examines the post arrival lives of children some of whom may be citizens but who are continually made to feel like outsiders The conclusion follows starting with two stories about walls by Hadero and Lanchester which are used to illustrate the themes discussed in the book Few African lawyers write about literature and few books and articles in Western law and literature look at books by or about Africans so a book that engages with both is long overdue This book provides fascinating reading for academics students of law literature gender and migration studies and indeed the general public

Social and Legal Theory in the Age of Decoloniality Artwell Nhemachena, Victor Warikandwa, 2018-06-07

Right from the enslavement era through to the colonial and contemporary eras Africans have been denied their human essence portrayed as indistinct from animals or beasts for imperial burdens Africans have been historically dispossessed and exploited Postulating the theory of global jurisprudential apartheid the book accounts for biases in various legal systems norms values and conventions that bind Africans while affording impunity to Western states Drawing on contemporary notions of animism transhumanism posthumanism and science and technology studies the book critically interrogates the possibility of a jurisprudence of anticipation which is attentive to the emergent New World Order that engineers human beings to become nonhumans while nonhumans become humans Connecting discourses on decoloniality with jurisprudence in the areas of family law environment indigenisation property migration constitutionalism employment and labour law commercial law and Ubuntu the book also juggles with emergent issues around Earth Jurisprudence ecocentrism wild law rights of nature Earth Court and Earth Tribunal Arguing for decoloniality that attends to global jurisprudential apartheid this tome is handy for legal scholars and practitioners social scientists civil society organisations policy makers and researchers interested in transformation decoloniality and Pan Africanism

Postcolonial Justice Anke Bartels, Lars Eckstein, Nicole Waller, Dirk Wiemann, 2017-02-13 Postcolonial Justice addresses a major issue in current postcolonial theory and beyond namely the question of how to reconcile an ethics grounded in the reciprocal acknowledgment of diversity and difference with the normative if not universal thrust that appears to energize any notion of justice The concept of postcolonial justice shared by the essays in this volume carries an unwavering commitment to difference within and beyond Europe while equally rejecting radical cultural essentialisms which refuse to engage in utopian ideals of convivial exchange across a plurality of subject positions Such utopian ideals can no longer claim universal validity as in the tradition of the European enlightenment instead they are bound to local frames of speaking from which they project world

Violence and Memory in Zimbabwean Literature Tanaka Chidora, 2025-12-01 This book investigates how Zimbabwean literary texts subvert state sponsored amnesia when it comes to the many forms of past and ongoing political violence in Zimbabwe Zimbabwean Literature provides an important space for confronting the past and reflecting on how violence continues into the present day This violent past was forgotten either through the promise of violence against those who sought to remember or by depicting the violence as a necessary tool of a never ending decolonisation process or by appealing to the logic of letting bygones be bygones For instance by claiming that the five years of the Gukurahundi genocide were a moment of madness Robert Mugabe set a climate of state sponsored amnesia which has persisted through subsequent acts of state violence and into the Mnangagwa era Drawing on key works by Shimmer Chinodya Alexander Kanengoni Yvonne Vera Novuyo Rosa Tshuma Brian

Chikwava Chenjerai Hove Panashe Chigumadzi and NoViolet Bulawayo this book investigates how fictional works challenge this state sponsored amnesia in relation both to Gukurahundi and other past and ongoing forms of violence Bringing together iconic literary texts from 1980 to 2022 the book draws a common thread through the texts connected histories and highlights their role in de silencing the past Situated at the interface of memory studies and literary criticism this book will be of interest to researchers across the fields of African literature politics development and history The Rise of the African Novel Mukoma Wa Ngugi,2018-03-27 Engaging questions of language identity and reception to restore South African and diaspora writing to the African literary tradition Politics and Religion in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando,2020-04-03 This book illustrates how religion and ideology were used by Robert Mugabe to ward off opposition within his own party in Zimbabwe and from the West An interdisciplinary line up of contributors argue that Mugabe used a calculated narrative of deification presenting himself as a divine figure who had the task of delivering land freedom and confidence to black people across the world to remain in power in Zimbabwe The chapters highlight the appropriation and deployment of religious themes in Mugabe s domestic and international politics reflect on the contestation around the deification of Mugabe in Zimbabwean politics across different forms of religious expression including African Traditional Religions and various strands of Christianity and initiate further reflections on the interface between religion and politics in Africa and globally Politics and Religion in Zimbabwe will be of interest to scholars of religion and politics Southern Africa and African politics The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni,Pedzisai Ruhanya,2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe s ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam,Peter Falvey,2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong s use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders Indigenous Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-10-11 Global interest in indigenous studies has been rapidly growing as researchers realize the importance of understanding the impact indigenous communities can have on the economy development education and more As the use acceptance and popularity of indigenous knowledge increases it is crucial to explore how this community based knowledge provides deeper insights understanding and influence on such things as decision making and problem solving Indigenous Studies Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the politics culture language history socio economic development methodologies and contemporary experiences of indigenous peoples from around the world as well as how contemporary issues impact these indigenous communities on a local national and global scale Highlighting a range of topics such as local narratives intergenerational cultural transfer and ethnicity and identity this publication is an ideal reference source for sociologists policymakers anthropologists instructors researchers academicians and graduate level students in a variety of fields

Mindprints Ivan Gaskell, 2024-11-22 A rediscovery of Thoreau's interactions with everyday objects and how they shaped his thought Though we may associate Henry David Thoreau with ascetic renunciation he accumulated a variety of tools art and natural specimens throughout his life as a homebuilder surveyor and collector In some of these objects particularly Indigenous artifacts Thoreau perceived the presence of their original makers and he called such objects mindprints Thoreau believed that these collections could teach him how his experience his world fit into the wider more diverse even incoherent assemblage of other worlds created and re created by other beings every day In this book Ivan Gaskell explores how a profound environmental aesthetics developed from this insight and shaped Thoreau's broader thought The Cultural and Artistic Legacy of Oliver Mtukudzi Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Bridget Chinouriri, Pauline Mateveke, Ezra Chitando, 2022-09-10 This book delves into a critical and comprehensive analysis of Mtukudzi's legacy as an outstanding musician who anchored his music on cultural identity specifically through the artistic manipulation of language As a cultural worker his remit extended beyond performance This raised his stature to the levels of such African music icons as Fela Kuti of Nigeria Salif Keita of Mali and Miriam Makeba Hugh Masekela of South Africa all towering giants in African musical performance This volume examines how Mtukudzi artistically manipulated language to convey a timeless message of cultural identity fighting for the respect of rights for women children and all It unpacks how Mtukudzi subtly uses language to put across political views that speak truth to power harnessing Zimbabwean language to articulate and promote the nation's cultural heritage and to advocate for societal development and the promotion of rights of vulnerable groups The chapters in this volume are a mix of interdisciplinary Zimbabwean scholars of linguistics performance studies religion history communication and media studies unravelling Mtukudzi as a fighter for human rights and justice who subtly critiqued political systems and practices It concludes that Mtukudzi strove to be a cultural worker who used the power of language through music to contribute towards the rehabilitation of a battered African identity

Reading Postcolonial Literature Hayley G. Toth, 2025-03-10 An Open Access edition is available thanks to the kind sponsorship of the libraries participating in the Jisc Open Access Community Framework OpenUP initiative Debates about reading in postcolonial studies rarely discuss non professional readers except to secure the authority of professional reading practices In Reading Postcolonial Literature Hayley G Toth places non professional reading practices in dialogue with received academic wisdom to debunk common sense assumptions about non professional readers as Western or neocolonial consumers Drawing on reading practices recorded in academic books journal articles and on online book reviewing platforms like Amazon and Goodreads Toth draws attention to important continuities between professional and non professional practices of reading postcolonial literature At the same time she highlights that non professionals often have little desire to emulate the practices of professional postcolonial critics Precisely by not adopting the established protocols and methods of postcolonial studies non professional readers call attention to the limits of dominant approaches to reading in the discipline Across four chapters Toth examines the relationship between reading and identity during the Rushdie affair the difference between reading and address the challenges posed by difficult texts and the legitimacy of non understanding and the reception of popular texts primarily read by non professional audiences Reading Postcolonial Literature demonstrates that reception matters in any claims we make about the value of reading postcolonial literature and offers new ways forward for the practice study and teaching of reading in the discipline
