The Beyond Trilogy Michael Phillips, 2018-07-01 All three novels in the devotional author's Christian fantasy saga inspired by the works of George MacDonald and C S Lewis The Garden at the Edge of Beyond When a middle aged man embarks on an enlightening and dreamlike theological journey he awakens to a new reality with a profound new outlook on life Heaven and Beyond When a tragedy ends a man's mortal life his journey through eternity begins Traveling across the realms of heaven and earth his notions of each are turned upside down Hell and Beyond A prominent atheist dies unexpectedly and goes to hell Or so it appears but nothing is what it seems in this engrossing allegorical novel about the afterlife Beyond the Flashback: The Flashback/Dinosaur Apocalypse Trilogy, Book Three Wayne Kyle

Spitzer, 2022-09-24 First came the time storm which erased half the population Then came the dinosaur apocalypse How did it all begin That depends on where you were and who you ask In some places it started with the weather which quickly became unstable and began behaving in impossible ways In still others it started with the lights in the sky which shifted and pulsed and could not be explained Elsewhere it started with the disappearances one here a few there but increasing in occurrence until fully three quarters of the population had vanished Either way there is one thing on which everyone agrees it didn't take long for the prehistoric flora and fauna to start showing up often appearing right where someone was standing in which case the two were fused spliced amalgamated It didn't take long for the great Time displacement called the Flashback which was brief but had aftershocks like an earthquake to change the face of the earth Nor for the stories some long and others short some from before the maelstrom and resulting societal collapse and others after to be recorded Welcome to the world of the Flashback a world in which man's cities have become overgrown jungles and extinct animals wander the ruins You can survive here if you're lucky and if you're not in the wrong place at the wrong time which is everywhere all the time But what you'll never do is remain the same for this is a world whose very purpose is to challenge you for better or for worse It is a world where frightened commuters will do battle with murderous bikers even as primordial monsters close in and others will take refuge in an underground theme park only to find their worst enemy is themselves Where ordinary people never do wells on a cross country motorcycle trip a woman on a redeye flight to Hell a sensitive boy stricken with visions of what's to come will find themselves in extraordinary situations and a gunslinger and his telekinetic ankylosaurus will embark on a dangerous quest A world where travelers will be trapped with an unravelling President of the United States and a band of survivors will face roving packs of monsters and men in post apocalyptic Seattle where rioting teenagers will face deadly predators as well as their own demons while ransacking the nation's capital where a Native American warrior will seek to bury his past and offer an elegy for all the Earth in what remains of Las Vegas In short it is a world where anything can and will happen So take a deep dive into these loosely connected tales of the Dinosaur Apocalypse each of which can be read individually or as a part of the greater saga tales of wonder and terror death and survival blood and beauty Do it today before the apocalypse comes Möbian Nights Sandor Goodhart, 2017-08-24 I died at Auschwitz French writer Charlotte Delbo asserts and nobody knows it Möbian Nights Reading Literature and Darkness develops a new understanding of literary reading that in the wake of disasters like the Holocaust death remains a premise of our experience rather than a future Challenging customary aesthetic assumptions that we write in order not to die Sandor Goodhart suggests with Kafka we write to die Drawing upon analyses developed by Girard Foucault Blanchot and Levinas along with examples from Homer to Beckett Möbian Nights proposes that all literature works autobiographically which is to say in the wake of disaster with the credo I died therefore I am and for which the language of topology for example the Möbius strip offers a vocabulary for naming the deep structure of such literary critical and scriptural sacrificial and anti sacrificial dynamics Realism in the Twentieth-Century Indian Novel Ulka Anjaria, 2012-10-08 This study argues that realism in twentieth century Indian literature functioned as a mode of experimentation and aesthetic innovation not merely as mimesis of the real world Addressing issues of colonialism Indian nationalism the rise of Gandhi religion and politics and the role of literature in society Anjaria's analysis will complement graduate study and research in English literature South Asian studies and postcolonial studies An Introduction to Contemporary American Fiction Alan Bilton, 2003-03 Don DeLillo Paul Auster Cormac McCarthy Rolando Hinojosa E Annie Proulx Bret Easton Ellis Douglas Coupland and Thomas Pynchon An Introduction to Contemporary American Fiction introduces the work of a range of key American authors all of whom can be said to engage with postmodernism Exploring the vitality and energy of contemporary writing in light of pessimistic proclamations on the state of postmodern American culture Bilton highlights the tension between realistic description and linguistic self consciousness in contemporary fiction In addition by addressing a central problem in literary theory its neglect of literary discussion and the practice of reading An Introduction to Contemporary American Fiction is able to present a working model for reading a text theoretically As an introductory text it assumes no prior knowledge of the authors of the novels discussed To encourage understanding and aid further study the following features are included GLOSSARY OF CRITICAL AND LITERARY TERMS BIBLIOGRAPHY OF EACH AUTHOR'S WORKS BIOGRAPHY OF EACH AUTHOR GUIDE TO FURTHER READING THEMATIC AND AUTHOR INDICES Emergent U.S. Literatures Cyrus Patell, 2014-11-07 Emergent U S Literatures introduces readers to the foundational writers and texts produced by four literary traditions associated with late twentieth century US multiculturalism Examining writing by Native Americans Hispanic Americans Asian Americans and gay and lesbian Americans after 1968 Cyrus R K Patell compares and historicizes what might be characterized as the minority literatures within U S minority literature Drawing on recent theories of cosmopolitanism Patell presents methods for mapping the overlapping concerns of the texts and authors of these literatures during the late twentieth century He discusses the ways in which literary marginalization and cultural hybridity combine to create the grounds for literature that is truly emergent in Raymond Williams's sense of the term literature that produces new meanings and values new practices new relationships and kinds of relationships in tension with the dominant mainstream culture of the United States By enabling us to see the American literary canon through the prism of hybrid identities and cultures these texts require us to reevaluate what it means to write and read in the American grain Emergent U S Literatures gives readers a sense of how these foundational texts work as aesthetic objects rather than merely as sociological documents crafted in dialogue with the canonical tradition of so called American Literature as it existed in the late twentieth century as well as in dialogue with each other

Worldly Spirits, Extra-Human Dimensions, and the Global Anglophone Novel Hilary Thompson,2023-12-28 Engaging a diverse range of contemporary anglophone literature from authors of the Asian Middle Eastern and Caribbean diasporas this book explores how such works turn to spirit forces spirit realms and spirit beings were animals mystical birds and snake goddesses as positive forces that assert perceptual dimensions beyond those of the human and present a vision of Earth as agentive and animate With previous scholarship downplaying these aspects of modern works as uncanny hauntings or symptoms of capitalism s or anthropocentrism s destructiveness or within a blanket rubric of magical realism Hilary Thompson rejects this partitioning of them as products of an exotic East or global South By contrast this book builds a new critical framework for analysis of worldly spirits drawing on anthropological discussions of animism the newly recovered 1930s boundary crossing art movement Dimensionism and multispecies theories of animals diverse perceptual worlds Taking stock of novels published from 2018 2020 by such writers as Amitav Ghosh Andr Alexis Yangsze Choo Azareen Van der Vliet Oloomi Zeyn Joukhadar and Tanya Tagaq Thompson illuminates how these works extend an ecological call to decentre the human and align with multidimensional theories of art and literature to provide ways to read for rather than reduce the extra human dimensions emerging in contemporary fiction A refreshing rejection of ecological apocalypticism this book unsettles typical conceptualizations of both anglophone and Anthropocene literatures by invoking European art theory philosophy and non Western ideas on animism and spirits to put forward perceptions of the extra human as a form of dealing with the many uncertainties of today s different crises
