Life on Drugs in Iran Nahid Rahimipour Anaraki, 2022-08-22 When they initiated a war on drugs in 1979 Iran developed a reputation as having some of the world's harshest drug penalties and as an opponent of efforts to reform global drug policy. As mass incarceration failed to stem the growth of drug use, Iran shifted its policies in 1990 to introduce treatment regimens that focus on rehabilitation. While most Muslim countries and some Western states still do not espouse welfare-oriented measures, Iran has established several harm reduction centers nationwide through the welfare system for those who use substances. In doing so, Iran moved from labeling drug users as criminals to patients. In Life on Drugs in Iran, Anaraki moves beyond these labels to explore the lived experience of those who use and have used illicit substances and the challenges they face as a result of the state's shifting policies. Gaining remarkable access to a community that has largely been ignored by researchers, Anaraki chronicles the lives of current and former substance users in prisons, treatment centers, and NGOs. In each setting, individuals are criminalized, medicalized, and marginalized as the system attempts to normalize them without addressing the root cause of the problem. Drawing upon first-hand accounts, Anaraki's groundbreaking study takes an essential step in humanizing people with substance abuse issues in Iran.

Encyclopedia of American Prisons Marilyn D. McShane, Frank P. Williams, 2004-08-02 Original essays by corrections experts. The United States has the lightest incarceration rate in the world, and crime is one of the major driving forces of political discourse throughout the country. Information about penal institutions, imprisonment, and prisoners is important to everyone, from judges on the bench to citizens on the street. Now, for the first time, a comprehensive reference work presents a full overview of incarceration in America. The Encyclopedia features original essays by leading U.S. corrections experts who offer historical perspectives, insights into how and why the present prison system developed, where we are today, and where we are likely to be in the future. Every important aspect of American prisons is covered, from the handling of convicts with AIDS to juvenile delinquents behind bars, from boot camps to life without parole, from racial conflict to sexual exploitation. Features more than 160 signed articles. More than 160 signed articles by recognized authorities are presented alphabetically by topic. The articles, ranging from 1,000 to 6,000 words, provide an overview of each subject and include a selective bibliography. The coverage introduces readers to individuals noted for their work with prisons: James Bennett, Dorothea Dix, Howard Gill, facilities renowned for setting precedents, Walnut Street Jail, Alcatraz, Marion. Current policy, procedure, and program-oriented descriptions: contraband, boot camps, classification, technology, concise discussions of current prison issues, prisoners' rights, gangs, visits by the children of incarcerated women. Frequently, the articles chart the historical evolution of a subject area, explore current issues, and predict future trends. Discusses vital issues. The Encyclopedia also surveys and analyzes policies and procedures used in the past, such as chain gangs, building tenders, and Sacred Straight programs, as well as legislation that has shaped prison policy, such as the Ashurst-Summers Act and the Civil Rights of Institutionalized Persons Act. Offering a wealth of useful facts this important new reference work contains a comprehensive name and subject index internal cross references and a chronology of important events in prison history The coverage encompasses historical and contemporary aspects of correctional institutions in the United States discusses vital issues and reports on the latest reaching findings Photos of notable people and facilities accompany the text This unique work fills a substantial reference need Government officials librarians teachers students and professionals working within the corrections field will find the coverage invaluable

Engendering Resistance: Agency and Power in Women's Prisons Mary Bosworth, 2017-03-02 This book explores how power is negotiated in women's prisons Drawing on fieldwork conducted in three penal establishments in England it analyses how women manage the restrictions of imprisonment and the manner in which they attempt to resist institutional control It is proposed that power is negotiated on a private individual level as women often resist the institution simply by trying to maintain an image of control over their own lives However their image of themselves as active reasoning agents is undermined by institutional regimes which encourage traditional passive feminine behaviour at the same time as they deny the women their identities and responsibilities as mothers wives girlfriends and sisters Femininity is therefore both the form and the goal of women's imprisonment Yet paradoxically femininity also offers the possibility of resistance because women manage to rebel by appropriating and changing aspects of it

You'll never walk alone Debbie Singh,2015-01-31

A true story about the Bangkok Hilton 2nd updated edition Debbie Singh s life fell apart when she received a letter from her brother out of the blue He had been sentenced to 10 years in Klong Prem prison in Bangkok for attempting to cash false travellers cheques The severity of the sentence shocked Singh who set of to Bangkok to support him and later to locate his Thai born son Appalled by the horrendous circumstances she found him in she started to campaign to have him transferred to an Australian jail something never achieved before This campaign changed her life and that of her family forever With great honesty and heart

You'll Never Walk Alone tells the story of Singh's great determination and strength in the face of adversity the roller coaster ride of emotions she had to face in the six year struggle to help her brother her ongoing charity work and the heartbreak she felt as her life was torn apart by a bitter twist in the tail In 2014 with the encouragement of friends and people who have read her book Debbie decided to update her sixteen year journey and love for Thailand and its people The Effects of Imprisonment Alison Liebling, Shadd Maruna, 2013-06-17 As the number of prisoners in the UK USA and elsewhere continues to rise so have concerns risen about the damaging short term and long term effects this has on prisoners This book brings together a group of leading authorities in this field both academics and practitioners to address the complex issues this has raised to assess the implications and results of research in this field and to suggest ways of mitigating the often devastating personal and psychological consequences of imprisonment Corruption and Organized Crime in Europe Philip Gounev, Vincenzo Ruggiero, 2012-06-14 In Corruption and Organised Crime in Europe Gounev and Ruggiero present a discussion of the relation between organized criminals and corruption in the EU's 27 Member States The book draws on research and scholarly work the editors carried out respectively within the Center for the Study of Democracy CSD in Bulgaria and within academic institutions as well as on behalf of the European Commission and the United Nations Combining empirical data and theoretical debates the book focuses on three main areas of the relationship between corruption and organised crime public bodies the private sector and criminal markets It presents the findings of a recent research project carried out by the CSD on behalf of the European Commission providing an analysis of the specific national contexts in which corruption and organized crime thrive The essays also address institutional responses and policies focusing particularly on how EU Member States attempt to sever the links between the official economy the political sphere and organized crime The second part of the book presents case studies written by some of the foremost international experts on the subject matter analysing corrupt exchange and criminal organisations concentrating on specific European countries Bulgaria France Greece Italy Russia Spain and the UK As the first comprehensive study of corruption and organised crime in the countries of the European Union the book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of criminology sociology law and international politics as well policy makers and law enforcement agencies Carceral Recovery Sanaullah Khan, 2023-10-03 The book explores the interrelation between carceral conditions and substance use by considering the intersections between drug markets sidewalks households and prisons in Baltimore Sanaullah Khan argues that while housing medicalization and incarceration fundamentally create the conditions for substance use individuals are increasingly experiencing the paradoxes of care and punishment by being propelled into a new regime of recovery which creates new pharmaceuticalized identities By shedding light on how addiction and the impetus for healing moves through families and institutions of the state Khan provides an account of the different competing forces that shape substance use recovery and relapse Through a combination of archival research and ethnography the book makes a case for disentangling punishment
