Zimsec 2008 Science Practical:

School Science Practical Work in Africa Umesh Ramnarain, 2020-06-01 School Science Practical Work in Africa presents the scope of research and practice of science practical work in African schools. It brings together prominent science educators and researchers from Africa to share their experience and findings on pedagogical innovations and research informed practices on school science practical work. The book highlights trends and patterns in the enactment and role of practical work across African countries. Practical work is regarded as intrinsic to science teaching and learning and the form of practical work that is strongly advocated is inquiry based learning which signals a definite paradigm shift from the traditional teacher dominated to a learner centered approach. The book provides empirical research on approaches to practical work contextual factors in the enactment of practical work and professional development in teaching practical work. This book will be of great interest to academics, researchers and post graduate students in the fields of science education and educational policy.

Journalism and Ethics: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-05-03 In the modern hyperconnected society consumers are able to access news from a variety of channels including social media, television, mobile devices, the internet and more. From sensationalist headlines designed to attract clicks throughs to accusations of bias assigned to specific news sources it is more important now than ever that the media industry maintains best practices and adheres to ethical reporting. By properly informing citizens of critical national concerns the media can help to transform society and promote active participation. Journalism and Ethics Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the impacts of journalism on society and the media's responsibility to accurately inform citizens of government and non government activities in an ethical manner. It also provides emerging research on multimedia journalism across various platforms and formats using digital technologies. Highlighting a range of pertinent topics such as investigative journalism, freedom of expression and media regulation this publication is an ideal reference source for media professionals, public relations officers, reporters, news writers, scholars, academicians, researchers and upper level students interested in journalism and journalistic ethics.

Shifting Journalism Boundaries in Zimbabwe Mphathisi Ndlovu, Lungile Tshuma, 2025-12-03 This book investigates the ways in which peripheral news actors in digital media are transforming journalism in Zimbabwe. Journalism's boundaries have become blurred, porous and fuzzy as non traditional news actors such as bloggers, social media influencers, citizen journalists, start ups, satirists, comedians and fact checkers gain increasing influence in digital spaces. As legacy news media attempt to ring fence the field journalism becomes both boundaried and boundless. This book examines how peripheral journalistic practices are impacting Zimbabwe, a semi authoritarian regime facing significant economic pressures. Taking into account Zimbabwe's specific sociocultural, political and economic context this book explores how political issues are mediated by periphery actors, how they deal with challenges to their legitimacy and professionalism, how sustainable their positions are and finally what the implications of shifting journalistic boundaries are for education and training institutions As the impact of digital technologies continues to rise this timely book will be an important read for researchers working on journalism media and communication and African studies Religion and Sexuality in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Francis Machingura, 2022-12-06 Religion and Sexuality in Zimbabwe highlights the complex interplay between religion and sexuality in Zimbabwe It shows how religion both facilitates and complicates the expression of sexuality in Zimbabwe Approaching religion from a broader perspective this volume reviews the impact of African Indigenous Religions and Christianity in its varied forms on the construction and expression of sexuality in Zimbabwe These contributors examine the role of indigenous beliefs as well as interpretations of sacred texts in the understanding of sexuality in Zimbabwe They also address themes relating to sexual diversity and sexual and gender based violence Overall this book sheds light on the ongoing relevance and strategic role of religion to contemporary discourses on human sexuality

Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe Christine Peta, 2017-10-25 Disabled women represent one of the most marginalised minority groups in the world hence they are largely silent while their sexuality is ignored suppressed forbidden and buried underneath the carpet Until recently most of the Global Northern published literature on the subject of the sexuality of disabled women has predominantly been constructed from hearsay and second hand narratives in studies which draw from the perspectives of parents service providers and advocates without much consultation of the relevant women By facilitating the voice of disabled women in Zimbabwe and illuminating their experiences of sexuality this book hopes to shift the experiences of sexuality of disabled women from the periphery of society to the fore Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe presents original research on an issue that is thus far not found in local research data Whilst addressing the paucity of literature on the subject the book informs policy and practice and enhances the existing body of knowledge by making recommendations towards the development of a disability and sexuality framework that is rooted in the African context This book is of interest to students and scholars of African studies disability studies sociology psychology social work nursing education studies geography women s and gender studies and interdisciplinary studies Additional audiences include a wide range of health social care and educational professionals and practitioners as well donors disabled people s organisations charities government departments NGOs supranational organisations and policy makers Reforming Science Teacher

Education Programs in the STEM Era Sulaiman M. Al-Balushi, Lisa Martin-Hansen, Youngjin Song, 2023-06-07 This edited book explores different international practices in reforming science teacher education programs for STEM education Incorporating case studies in Asia the Middle East Africa Europe North America and South America the contributors emphasise the large variety in STEM teacher preparation Including science centric versions of STEM programs as well as more integrated models of STEM this contextual diversity will help readers learn about the design opportunities and challenges of STEM teacher preparation in a variety of circumstances in order to innovate and improve STEM education more broadly Online Journalism in Africa Hayes Mawindi Mabweazara, Okoth Fred Mudhai, Jason Whittaker, 2014-01-21

Very little is known about how African journalists are forging new ways to practise their profession on the web. Against this backdrop, this volume provides contextually rooted discussions of trends, practices and emerging cultures of web-based journalism across the continent, offering a comprehensive research tool that can both stand the test of time as well as offer researchers, particularly those in the economically developed Global North, models for cross-cultural comparative research. The essays here deploy either a wide range of evidence or adopt a case study approach to engage with contemporary developments in African online journalism. This book thus makes up for the gap in cross-cultural studies that seek to understand online journalism in all its complexities.

National Healing, Integration and Reconciliation in Zimbabwe

Ezra Chitando, 2019-12-06. This book brings together scholars from diverse backgrounds to provide interdisciplinary perspectives on national healing, integration and reconciliation in Zimbabwe. Taking into account the complex nature of healing across moral, political, economic, cultural, psychological and spiritual dimensions of communities and the nation, the chapters discuss approaches, disparities, tensions and solutions to healing and reconciliation within a multidisciplinary framework. Arguing that Zimbabwe's development agenda is severely compromised by the dominance of violence and militancy, the contributors analyse the challenges, possibilities and opportunities for national healing. This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies, conflict and reconciliation, and development studies.

International Perspectives on Older Adult Education

Brian Findsen, Marvin Formosa, 2015-12-29. This important book builds on recent publications in lifelong learning which focus on learning and education in later life. This work breaks new ground in international understandings of what constitutes later life learning across diverse cultures in manifold countries or regions across the world. Containing 42 separate country/regional analyses of later life learning, the overall significance resides in insiders' conceptualisations and critique of this emerging sub-field of lifelong learning and adult education. International perspectives on older adult education provides new appreciation of what is happening in countries from Europe 14, Africa 10, the Americas 7, Asia 9 and Australasia 2, as authored by adult educators and/or social gerontologists in respective geographical areas. These analyses are contextualised by a thorough introduction and critical appraisal where trends and fresh insights are revealed. The outcome of this book is a never before available critique of what it means to be an older learner in specific nations and the accompanying opportunities and barriers for learning and education. The sub-title of research policy and practice conveys the territory that authors traverse in which rhetoric and reality are interrogated. Coverage in chapters includes conceptual analysis, historical patterns of provision, policy developments, theoretical perspectives, research studies, challenges faced by countries and success stories of later life learning. The resultant effect is a vivid portrayal of a vast array of learning that occurs in later life across the globe. Brian Findsen is Professor of Education and Postgraduate Leader for Te Whiringa School of Educational Leadership and Policy, Faculty of Education, University of Waikato, Hamilton, New Zealand. Marvin Formosa is Head of the Department of Gerontology, Faculty for Social Wellbeing, University of Malta, and Director of the International Institute on Ageing United Nations Malta The Routledge Handbook of Political Risk Cecilia Emma Sottilotta, Julian Campisi, Johannes Leitner, Hannes Meissner, 2025-03-24 The Routledge Handbook of Political Risk explores the context analysis and management of political risk arising from recent tectonic geopolitical challenges to the world order posed by pandemics nationalist policy interventions changing supply chains technological transformation and the climate crisis Seasoned and emerging academics from the Global North and South alongside risk practitioners and business professionals from multiple continents and industries reconsider and address policy oriented questions in relation to social political democratic environmental economic security technological and geopolitical challenges Across five distinctive parts this Handbook considers ethical risks populism weaponised interdependence protectionism the disruptive effects of AI company case studies industries and political risk management while also reconsidering the future of political risk The volume will appeal to scholars and students of international business and management studies political science area studies security studies geography history and sociology In the absence of functioning global governance to mitigate such risks it will also be of great use to a range of consultants investors business practitioners and corporations Civil Society Narratives of Violence and Shaping the Transitional Justice Agenda in Zimbabwe Chenai G. Matshaka, 2022-08-01 In Civil Society Narratives of Violence and Shaping the Transitional Justice Agenda in Zimbabwe Chenai G Matshaka shows the shaping of the transitional justice agenda in Zimbabwe from a civil society perspective Based on the understanding that transitional justice approaches are seen through the lenses by which the violence and conflict is understood Matshaka explores the complexities that arise when particular narratives of violence dominate the agenda This book contributes to a discussion on how narratives intervene in the trajectory of a transitional justice process of a society in ways that may be beneficial or detrimental to breaking cycles of injustice and domination Presidents for Life in Sub-Saharan Africa Teresa Nogueira Pinto, 2025-11-13 Teresa Nogueira Pinto analyzes how Robert Mugabe and Paul Kagame developed narratives to legitimize and entrench their power in Rwanda and Zimbabwe From South America to Eastern Europe semi authoritarian leaders often deploy strategies of power legitimation rooted in historical legacies political institutions legal and constitutional frameworks economic conditions and shifting regional and international dynamics This framework is particularly pertinent in an era when authoritarianism is evolving and liberal democracy is facing a prolonged period of decline In Presidents for Life in Sub Saharan Africa Unpuzzling Authoritarianism in Zimbabwe and Rwanda Pinto examines how Robert Mugabe and Paul Kagame used these strategies in their personalized semi authoritarian and resilient regimes in Sub Saharan Africa as well as how their claims to legitimacy were challenged by opponents and civil society She emphasizes that these strategies are not developed in isolation but have instead emerged from leaders continuous interactions and negotiations in legal political and economic spheres Recognizing that the legitimation of power operates across different dimensions this book adopts a multidimensional approach to show how authoritarian leadership is constructed and challenged Through comparison of these two African leaders this book unveils the tactics used by authoritarian leaders to consolidate power and navigate threats to their authority Media, Conflict and Peacebuilding in Africa Jacinta Maweu,Admire Mare,2021-03-29 This book explores the role and place of popular traditional and digital media platforms in the mediatization representation and performance of various conflicts and peacebuilding interventions in the African context The role of the media in conflict is often depicted as either good as symbolized by peace journalism or bad as exemplified by war journalism but this book moves beyond this binary to highlight the in between role that the media often plays in times of conflict The volume does not only focus on the relationship between mass media conflict and peacebuilding processes but it broadens its scope by critically analysing the dynamic and emergent roles of popular and digital media platforms in a continent where the semi literate and oral communities still rely heavily on popular communication platforms to get news and information Whilst social media platforms have been hailed for their assumed democratic and digital dividends this book does not only focus on these positive aspects but also shines a light on dark forms of participation which are fuelling racial gender ethnic political and religious conflicts in highly polarized and stratified societies Highlighting the many ways in which traditional digital and popular media can be used to both escalate conflicts and promote peacebuilding this volume will be a useful resource for students researchers and civil society groups interested in peace and conflict studies journalism and media studies in different contexts within Africa

Digital Technologies and the Evolving African Newsroom Hayes Mabweazara,2016-04-14 African newsrooms are experiencing the disruptive impact of new digital technologies on the way they generate and disseminate news Indeed newsrooms are being forced to adapt in various ways and there are clear dimensions of localized creativity and adaptations by journalists to the digital revolution In the same way the influences of digitization Internet and social media are changing the informational needs of readers including how they engage with news These developments nonetheless remain on the margins of mainstream journalism research very few researchers have sought to qualitatively capture the implications of developments in digital technologies on the routine practices of African journalists especially in their natural habitat the newsroom In this light this edited volume interrogates the changing ecology of newsmaking in Africa in the context of rapid technological changes in newsrooms as well as in the wider social context of news production It brings together six contributions drawn from five countries Egypt Mozambique South Africa Nigeria and Zimbabwe to explore practices challenges and professional normative dilemmas emerging with the adoption and appropriation of new technologies While the studies point to dimensions of localised new technology appropriations as defined by the complex socio political structures in which African journalists operate they are not rigidly confined to Africa They are expressly in dialogue with theoretical observations largely emerging from Western scholarship In this sense the book goes beyond simply mainstreaming African perspectives it engages directly with dominant theoretical observations and offers a point of departure for developing what could loosely be branded as an African digital journalism epistemology This book was originally published as a special issue of Digital Journalism The Overthrow of Robert Mugabe Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2025-01-21 The Overthrow of Robert Mugabe Gender Coups and Diplomats argues the 2017 coup that ousted long time Zimbabwean president Robert Gabriel Mugabe and the generality of coups cannot be accurately and rigorously understood without examining the crucial role of gender and women's politics in military seizures of power Tendi's book shows that gender and women's politics pervade military coup causes dynamics justifications and international responses to coups Contrary to influential representations of Zimbabwe's 2017 coup and other recent coups as markedly different from past coups Tendi draws on long gendered histories of military coups in Africa to argue that there are significant continuities in coup characteristics across time Additionally Tendi's highly original study of Zimbabwe's 2017 coup identifies the motives dynamics and trigger of the coup Despite the existence of an international anti coup norm and democracy promotion in Africa by Western states Zimbabwean coup makers direct intervention in politics was largely not publicly condemned or penalized by Western and African diplomats Tendi uses original interviews with diplomats and politicians involved in external responses to the coup to address this important puzzle Handbook of Research on Promoting Global Citizenship Education Keengwe, Jared, 2022-02-18 A global citizen is an individual who believes in a public responsibility for their local community to grow and interconnect amongst the world's diverse people and things Global citizenship education is a fast moving process that continues to intertwine communities all over the world As we move toward a more global world the improvement in education health poverty rates and standard of living should come with it This global world must be a place where people are aware of what is going on and can have an impact as well The Handbook of Research on Promoting Global Citizenship Education explores various ways to empower educators to design and implement a curriculum that incorporates global citizen education Covering a range of topics such as global issues and academic migration this major reference work is ideal for academicians industry professionals policymakers researchers scholars instructors and students LGBT-Parent Families Abbie E. Goldberg, Katherine R. Allen, 2012-10-11 LGBT Parent Families is the first handbook to provide a comprehensive examination of this underserved area Reflecting the nature of this issue the volume is notably interdisciplinary with contributions from scholars in psychology sociology human development family studies gender studies sexuality studies legal studies social work and anthropology Additionally scholarship from regions beyond the U.S including England Australia Canada and South Africa is presented In addition to gender and sexuality all contributors address issues of social class race and ethnicity in their chapters New Media Influence on Social and Political Change in Africa Olorunnisola, Anthony A., 2013-06-30 While transitioning from autocracy to democracy media in Africa has always played an important role in democratic and non democratic states focusing on politicians diplomats activists and others who work towards political transformations New Media Influence on Social and Political Change in Africa addresses the development of new mass media and communication tools and its influence on social and political change While analyzing democratic
