Tarusarira,2024-11-14 How does a regime whose members have been actively involved in the previous one appropriate and deploy religious ideas and rhetoric to cast itself as born again and attractive Exploring intersections between politics religion and economics this book examines invention of Zimbabwe s New Dispensation the regime of Emmerson D Mnangagwa and how it has aimed to separate itself from the previous regime of Robert G Mugabe Utilizing the concept of invention contributors reflect on how Mnangagwa and his publicists deploy religious ideas concepts and rhetoric in the quest for legitimacy in a heavily contested political field The book also reflects on the ways opposing political actors have utilized the same template in their quests to secure power The contributors interrogate the use of time theological ideas and religious practices to separate Mnangagwa s regime from Mugabe s This book provides insight into how religious rhetoric is used not only to gain but also to contest legitimacy in Zimbabwe s political sphere Africa Air University (U.S.). Regional Economic Outlook, April 2020, Sub-Saharan Africa International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2020-04-15 Sub Saharan Africa is facing an unprecedented health and economic crisis that threatens to throw the region off its stride reversing the encouraging development progress of recent years Furthermore by exacting a heavy human toll upending livelihoods and damaging business and government balance sheets the crisis threatens to retard the region s growth prospects in the years to come Previous crises tended to impact affect countries in the region differentially but no country will be spared this time The Department of State Bulletin ,1988 The official monthly record of United States foreign policy Constitutional Resilience and the COVID-19 Pandemic Ebenezer Durojaye,Derek M. book explores the resilience of constitutional government in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic connecting and comparing perspectives from ten countries in sub Saharan Africa to global trends In emergency situations such as the COVID 19 pandemic a state has the right and duty under both international law and domestic constitutional law to take appropriate steps to protect the health and security of its population Emergency regimes may allow for the suspension or limitation of normal constitutional government and even human rights Those measures are not a license for authoritarian rule but they must conform to legal standards of necessity reasonableness and proportionality that limit state action in ways appropriate to the maintenance of the rule of law in the context of a public health emergency Bringing together established and emerging African scholars from ten countries this book looks at the impact government emergency responses to the pandemic have on the functions of the executive the legislature and the judiciary as well as the protection of human rights It also considers whether and to what extent government emergency responses were consistent with international human rights law in particular with the standards of legality necessity proportionality and non discrimination in the Siracusa Principles FY 1981 Foreign Assistance Legislation: March 12, 13, 14, 19, 20, 21, 28, and April 16, 1980" United States. The Politics of Economic Reform in Zimbabwe Tor Skalnès, 2016-07-27 In 1990 Zimbabwe embarked on economic liberalisation The country's economic associations notably that erstwhile proponent of protectionism the Confederation of Zimbabwe Industries had successfully lobbied for gradual reform While state autonomy has often been regarded as a vital condition for reform in Zimbabwe societal groups have induced an initially recalcitrant government to reconsider its basic policies After 1980 the government tried to limit political competition However because of the perceived need for racial reconciliation following the guerrilla war it maintained dialogue with settler dominated interest groups along the pattern of societal corporatism established in the 1930s By contrast African associations particularly labour unions have regularly been subjected to regimentation The government however has listened more closely to the demands of African farmers who want to preserve parastatal marketing and governmental determination of prices In Zimbabwe key urban groups support liberalisation while key rural groups do not Theories of urban bias must therefore be qualified

Land and Agrarian Reform in Zimbabwe Sam Moyo, Walter Chambati, 2013-05-13 The Fast Track Land Reform Programme implemented during the 2000s in Zimbabwe represents the only instance of radical redistributive land reforms since the end of the Cold War It reversed the racially skewed agrarian structure and discriminatory land tenures inherited from colonial rule The land reform also radicalised the state towards a nationalist introverted accumulation strategy against a broad array of unilateral Western sanctions Indeed Zimbabwe's land reform in its social and political dynamics must be compared to the leading land reforms of the twentieth century which include those of Mexico Russia China Japan South Korea Taiwan Cuba and Mozambique The fact that the Zimbabwe case has not been recognised as vanguard nationalism has much to do with the intellectual structural adjustment which has accompanied neoliberalism and a hostile media campaign This has entailed dubious theories of neopatrimonialism which reduce African politics and the state to endemic corruption patronage and tribalism while overstating the virtues of neoliberal good governance Under this racist repertoire it has been impossible to see class politics mass mobilisation and resistance let alone believe that something progressive can occur in Africa This book comes to a conclusion that the Zimbabwe land reform represents a new form of resistance with distinct and innovative characteristics when compared to other cases of radicalisation reform and resistance The process of reform and resistance has entailed the deliberate creation of a tri modal agrarian structure to accommodate and balance the interests of various domestic classes the progressive restructuring of labour relations and agrarian markets the continuing pressures for radical reforms through the indigenisation of mining and other sectors and the rise of extensive albeit relatively weak producer cooperative structures The book also highlights some of the resonances between the Zimbabwean land struggles and those on the continent as well as in the South in general arguing that there are some convergences and divergences worthy of intellectual attention The book thus calls for greater endogenous empirical research which overcomes the pre occupation with failed interpretations of the nature of the state and agency in Africa

Community of Insecurity Dr Laurie Nathan, 2013-04-28 Exploring the formation evolution and effectiveness of the regional security arrangements of the Southern African Development Community SADC Nathan examines a number of vital and troubling questions why has SADC struggled to establish a viable security regime why has it been unable to engage in successful peacemaking and why has it defied the optimistic prognosis in the early 1990s that it would build a security community in Southern Africa He argues that the answers to these questions lie in the absence of common values among member states the weakness of these states and their unwillingness to surrender sovereignty to the regional organization Paradoxically the challenge of building a co operative security regime lies more at the national level than at the regional level The author's perspective is based on a unique mix of insider access analytical rigour and accessible theory

Reconciliation and Religio-political Non-conformism in Zimbabwe Joram Tarusarira,2016-05-20 Religio political organisations in Zimbabwe play an important role in advocating democratisation and reconciliation against acquiescent silenced or co opted mainstream churches Reconciliation and Religio political Non conformism in Zimbabwe analyses activities of religious organisations that deviate from the position of mainline churches and the political elites with regard to religious participation in political matters against a background of political conflict and violence Drawing on detailed case studies of the Zimbabwe Christian Alliance ZCA Churches in Manicaland CiM and Grace to Heal GtH this book provocatively argues that in the face of an unsatisfactory religious and political culture religio political non conformists emerge seeking to introduce a new ethos even in the face of negative sanctions from dominant religious and political systems

Transport Systems, Policy and Planning Rodney Tolley,Brian John Turton,2014-07-15 Provides a unique review of the major spatial aspects of transport systems a detailed analysis of transport problems in urban and rural areas an evaluation of social and environmental impacts and a planning and policy overview Divided into four parts each considering a different aspect of transport geography The first part outlines the basic geography of transport and examines transport and spatial structures focusing upon the varying contributions made by transport to industrial agricultural and urban development Part two moves to consider specific transport systems at both national and international scales drawing on studies from industrialised and developing nations and discussing the effects upon transport of the political changes in the former USSR and Eastern Europe The third part examines some of the many problems of transport and urban and rural areas using specific examples to illustrate the contrasting difficulties and evaluate current urban transportation planning methods

Zimbabwe Journal of Economics ,1984 Zimbabwe's Fight To The Finish Moore,2016-04-15 First published in 2013 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The European Union and Global Development S. Gänzle,S. Grimm,D. Makhan,2012-04-17 An assessment of the capacity of the EU to coordinate actors and policies with regards to
